Manvers Gets There. Cobourg Sentinel Star.—The usual number of applications for township grants were made at the sitting of the counties' council last week, and as usual the majority of them fell to the ground. Manvers was successful in securing $200 towards opening up the road allowance through Pigeon Creek swamp. Mr. J. J. Preston, deputy reeve, in moving the resolution pointed out the necessity for the grant in such a fair and forcible manner that the motion was carried at once without a dissentient voice.

Board of Health. A meeting of the board of health was held on Monday evening. Messrs. Chairman T. Walters, Mayor Ray, Dr. Lynch, Wm. t. Stewart and J. L. Winters were present. Secretary Knowlson was in his place, Sanitary Inspector Douglas and M.H.G. Herriman were also present. A report from the sanitary inspector, gave a statement of the work done to date, showing that the town was in a good sanitary condition as a whole. The report also recommended the appointment of a milk inspector as numerous samples of milk had been tested and found impure. On motion it was decided to recommend the council to appoint an inspector of milk. A committee was also appointed to act in conjunction with a committee of the council to frame a by-law to regulate the new dumping grounds. A resolution was carried requesting the council to amend the public health by-law to permit Mr. Charles Bartlett to slaughter inside the corporation, as the inspector certified that his premises were kept in a clean and sanitary condition.

Josephine Cameron. Miss Cameron comes for three nights in some old time favorites: "Forget-me-not," "Camille" and "East Lynne." She comes with the endorsement of the press both in the north and in the southern cities where she has been playing. All the papers have nothing but the most lavish praises for the charms which Dame Nature has endowed the charming artist. They say that she not only possesses all the attributes to make a beautiful woman, but a personal magnetism that is felt by all with whom she comes in contact. She has large, sympathetic eyes, and her glance seems to reach the inmost thoughts of the soul. She is not alone a beautiful woman, but an artist of rare merit, and comes to us from an exceedingly triumphant tour of the West Indies and South America. As Camille, in Dumas's play, she gives the character an interpretation that places the lady of the "hectic flush" in a position not accorded by other famous artists, and to quote the New York World, "won applause by her thorough conception and naturalness." Miss Cameron's opening play, or Monday evening, will be "Forget-me-not," and on Tuesday night "Camille" will be presented. On Wednesday evening "East Lynne" will be presented. Seats now on sale at Porter's and Beall's.

Pay your subscription a year in advance and thus make yourself solid for a good obituary notice. —We have personally drawn the attention of the street inspector, to a bad place in the sidewalk in front of this office. He promised to attend to it a week ago but has not yet done so. Three persons have narrowly escaped injury already. Perhaps this will be sufficient or will it require a mandamus? —On Dominion Day, Saturday July 1st, the Crandella will run an excursion to Sturgeon Point, leaving Lindsay at 9.30 a.m. and returning in time for the grand display of fireworks. At the Point a good program will be carried out under the auspices of a committee chosen from the excursionists for valuable prizes, among which are a gold watch, silver cup, silver napkin ring, silver castor, silver teaspoons, pickle cruet, ruby water set, shaving mug, cups and saucers and other useful and valuable articles. The sports will include canoe races, swimming races, foot races for ladies, gentlemen and boys, jumping, hop, step and jump, vaulting with pole, sack race, tug of war etc. Return tickets 15 cents. —They are telling a good one on a well known blunder. He gave an employee a pot of paint and told him to go and paint a certain fence. The boy went in the morning and returned in about an hour for more paint. The boss was surprised and inquired what had become of all the material? The boy replied that there was about ten feet of fence yet to paint. The boss said that in the first place there was only ten feet to cover. However more paint was supplied and the job completed. A few days afterwards the master painter met the owner of the fence, where he sent the boy, and asked him how the job suited. The gentleman said that his fence had not been touched at all. Inquiries were set on foot, with the result that it was ascertained that the boy had painted the wrong fence. The builder next repaired to the residence of the man whose fence was painted and suggested that he pay for the work done. The citizen was highly indignant at his fence being painted a brilliant green and he now threatens to sue the contractor for damages.

M. —The Penetang whiskey must be powerful stuff, stronger than hypnotism, as the "Herald" relates that on Tuesday Mr. Piott bought some eggs from one of our merchants, and on breaking one of them found it to contain three little snakes about half an inch in length, partly hatched and all alive. —Millbrook is not far from Port Hope and the B-reporter of the first named place is asking enough to say of a neighboring place that "the Port Hope dominion day celebration committee will charge 35 cents for admission to the grounds, instead of 25 cents as formerly. It seems to be a pretty stiff price to see a fake show." —The directors of the Muskoka agricultural society have decided that grains exhibited must be left with the society. The new rule is devised for the purpose of stopping the alleged showing of the grain from year to year. Other societies nearer home might adopt the same rule. —What queer times we live in to be sure! Look at this for instance:—As green onions are now on the market we give a here a new game—six girls stand in a row while one bites a chunk off an onion and a young man pays 10c for a guess as to which one it was; if he guesses right he kisses the other five ladies. If he does not he is only allowed to kiss the girl with the onion scented breath. The tariff is extremely reasonable and we predict that this will be a popular game as most of the boys will be disposed to go it once even if they lose.

—Pawnee Bill's Wild West show will be here on Thursday July 13th. —The citizens' band will accompany the Lindsay Orangenem to Port Hope, on the coming twelfth of July. —Lindsay's programme of sports for Saturday next, is the best ever offered in the Midland district. —Gas is being placed in the Benson House, for heating, boiling and cooking purposes. —There were over one hundred loaded cars lying at the Grand Trunk yard over Sunday. If wetting and tamping were done no complaints would be heard. The chairman of the street and bridge committee should compel the men to leave the streets in a passable condition. —There will be a strawberry festival at the residence of Mr. W. B. Fee Caroline-st East Ward under the auspices of Victoria Guiding Star Lady True Blue Lodge No. 33, on July 6th. Admission 10c, including a dish of strawberries and cake. Good music and a pleasant time may be expected. Everybody welcome. —During a heavy thunder storm, the other evening four young men were playing a quiet game of "pedro" in a down town hotel. A very vivid flash of lightning extinguished the lamp and caused the y. m. to move. One of them struck another on the nose with his elbow and when quiet was restored the latter recounted to his fellows an astonishing tale of the close call he had from death, as he felt the effects of the lightning on his nose. —It is a nasty habit of pitching out of the back door a paifful or a dipperful now and then of greasy water, and a handful of parings and the general waste of the kitchen that breeds fever and bilious diseases. The waste disappears for the most part in the soil, but that is the key to the mischief. The soil gets full after a time and ferments, and the hot sun breeds gases which surround and enter the house. This is true not only of poorer homes or careless families, but well-to-do intelligent people have spots behind their houses saturated with slops and veritable breeders of disease.

—The regular meeting of the Board of Education will take place, on Tuesday evening next. —The Fire Brigade will hold a meeting on Tuesday night to try and ascertain when those rubber boots and coats are coming. —On Friday last three carloads of cheese were shipped from Lindsay to Montreal by Messrs.
