THE STREET COMMISSIONER WAS SEVERELY SCORED AT A SPE. CIAL MEETING OF COUNCIL ON SATURDAY NIGHT.

A BATCH OF LETTERS-THE RATHBUN COMPANY-LOCAL IMPROVEMENTS -HORN BROS. GET THEIR FIXED ASSESSMENT - A HOT DISCUSSION LENNON, JACKSON AND THE MAYOR

A special meeting of council was neld on Saturday night. The routine dragged to a finish prosily enough, and a motion to adjourn was before the chair when Capt. Crandell 10se and as he afterward expressed it "dropped a bomb-hell into the camp." Whether the Commodore's military figure was particularly appropriate will be better known at some future date, but it is certain that his attack on commissioner Pilkie resulted in a discussion that occupied council for nearly an hour after the necessary business had been completed. It seemed that the work was done, the legislators leaned back in their chairs and a motion to adjourn had been seconded OVER MR. PILKIE-ALDS. CRANDELL, when Ald. Crandell struggled to his feet with the threat that he was going to "say ATTACK-REST OF COUNCIL DEFEND a few words regarding this commissioner work." With a readiness that suggested priming and an enthusiasm scarcely roused by anxiety for the town's good alone, the commodore alderman uttered one of his periodic campaign effusion -. The o-tensible theme was Commissioner Pikie's shortcomings, but this in no way excluded the usual self-praise with which the Capt. is wont to angle for franchises far ahead. "On the 6th of February" cried the speaker with a surprising memory for dates, "we appointed an overseer for our streets at a salary of $500 a year.
