Coupling Pins Used as Weapons Against the Men Who Tried to Run the Cars-Strikers Knocked Non-Union Conductors and Motormen Senseless and One Man Was Shot-The Weavers' Strike at Hespeler.

Cleveland, O., June 21 .- Cars were running during the day on all lines opened by the Street Car Company since the strike. At 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon the special committee of the City Council appointed to try to settle the street car strike met the representatives of the strikers and the company. Pending preparations of the formal statement a recess was taken.

Riotous disturbances broke out about noon. A crowd boarded a Wade Park avenue car near Lindus and Anndale avenues and beat the non-union meterman into insensibility. The conductor deserted his car and fled. Another Wade Park avenue car was stoned and one on the Euclid avenue line was attacked. Many women were on board and shrieked with terror as the stones crashed through the windows. One woman fainted.

One Man Was Shot.

At the corner of Wilson avenue and Quincy street one man was shot and others had narrow escapes. The passengers escaped as best they could when the stones began to fly, but the conductor and motorman were struck repeatedly. times into the crowd. At Wilson avenue one man got on, and at every crossing thereafter one or two more men boarded the car until there were ten passengers. While Harry C. Clark, the conductor, was taking up fares he was struck on the head from behind by ; coupling pin in the hands of one of the passengers. Several of the other mer then jumped on him and pounded him into insensibility. The others turned their attention to the motorman, John Clark. He was hit on the head and body and sank to the floor in an unconscious condition. At Hackman street the men all left the car. A block further on Clark recovered sufficiently to shut off the current and bring the car to a stop. After a short wait it was run back to the parn.

Company Refuses Arbitration. Akron, O., June 21.-Not a street cer was running on the Akron & Cuyahoga Rapid Transit lines yesterday. Some time ago there was a disagreement as to wages and the matter was referred to arbitration. The report, which was submitted last night, included a clause providing for arbitration in the future, and this the company refused to accept. The men held a meeting and then decided to strike. No effort was made to run cars yesterday.
