Camp Number Twenty.

n and well

Son.

as Produced

d their advertis

am asked me for

bill of mine you

Dame Street, or

. statuette tables,

rtment of rattan

ledged the chear-llie's further and

3, 20, 22, 24 26, finest styles and Son's oldest and

, and I went to

goods to existoon

up to the house,

of furniture that made of the fact

took me through e finest furniture that I have seen

the prizes, a cut carving, the legs t kind known as

description. In Mr. McGarrey

f them will turn

re not mentio

DRS

y one.

werything. He did not vote at all on the ath penalty, he says, and Judge Longeker is inclined to believe him. The paper and the lottery of murder was murdered husband and children. at comes up to its were expected to begin at once. This man was one of the prisoners now under r specimens, and larrest, and he directed the murderous th Dr. Cronin Suffered death.

alled to guard the informer, to pre- considerable emotion. at harm being done him. He will not arrested, and no sign will be by the officers that would dicate to the conspirators that he is der the protection of the police.

These disclosures confirm the worst aprehentions of the character of the Clana-Gael. The facts show pretty conclusiely that this organization should have no ding place in the Republic, but be deoyed root and branch. The authori-They may rightly claim the symeathy and support of every minded man the world. It is a crime against the ountry and the civilization of the cenmy which they are bringing to light. he task is difficult, but the necessity of unishing the guilty is urgent.

lake, two miles south of Madoc, by the Parnell Commission on July 2, and it lie. - J. K. Van Zandt." s expected he will be the last witness alled for the defence.

A Centenarian on his Way West.

Edwin Batcheldaz; perhaps the oldest One of the Inner Circle Tells all he man ever seen at a Montreal railway CHICAGO, June 25.—One of the inner ture last week from Van cefore, State of told State Attorney Longenecker possible 103 years old. He came to the possible 103 years old. He came to the son-Houston Electric Company, and United States in early childhood, setthing at Vancefore, where he learned the trade other. Attorney says'-refused to vote of shoe making, and became very success- A few weeks ago he was in an Ohio ducted the producted the production of the control ok place, swould have chosen this place aged 70, the youngest but one of four other. sen there are saloons kept by good Clan-still living, aged respectively 77, 78 and "Well I'll open it, and if it dated Bridge-

A Woman Executed.

ting of the inner circle, at which bearing of Mrs. Whiteling, hanged to-day quandary, when the hotel clerk advised for the poisoning of her husband and two that both read it at the same time. ay night in the latter part of February. children, throughout the ordeal was a they finally did, but at the end neither there the Senior Guardian of the camp and resignation to her fate. During the exclusively to him. They read it again, esided or not is not yet known; at any and resignation to her fate. During the ate the informer says he was there. entire morning she never for a moment ase in attendance were known to be showed the slightest evidence of weak thful, beyond a shadow of a doubt, to ness, and frequently expressed her pleashe behests of their superiors. Cronin ure at the prospect of "meeting her he receives an order signed by both as found guilty of being a British spy, husband and children." She spent her Clarks to deliver it to one of them. Up and the punishment was fixed at death. last night walking about her cell singing to this meeting neither knew of the exgn Medals. Toduced Death was always the penalty which trai- and praying. She ate, with apparent relish, a breakfast consisting of fried eggs, toast and chocolate. She was then taken The law of the order is that whenever to another cell, where she was joined by ngerous work is to be done, if no one her spiritual adviser. She joined in the inteers for the mission, lots must be devotional services with considerable spirit along the coast here over the mysterious may in the camp to which the accomp- and apparently obtained much comfort ocean wreck is increasing. More cattle shment of an object is entrusted, and the therefrom. She was escorted to the and wreckage, among which there are senother to whom chance awards the task scoffold by two ministers. She walked veral life preservers marked "Victoria" indertakes it without question and with- firmly and showed no hesitation. At 10.07 make it almost certain that one of the unout thought of life or liberty. In the mat- the trap was sprung. The fall was about fortunate vessels is the Anchor Line er of the removal of Dr. Cronin no vol- five feet and the physicians stated that steamship, which left New York recently eers were called for. It was necessary death was instananeous from strangulation for Avonmouth. A fresh south-easterly preserve the greatest secrecy, for Cro- though the heart continued to beat spas- wind has made the eastern part of Nanin was a man of many friends, and some modically for some time thereafter. The tucket thick with debris to-day, among them were sufficently attached to him body was turned over to Dr. Alice Ben- which was more clothing, part of which orun the risk of their lives to save his. nett, of the Norristown hospital for the was a woman's. Several articles of men's lots were therefore drawn. The names insane, for examination of the brain, after underclothing have also been picked up. those present were put on separate slips which it will be buried by the side of the The most significent thing is a section of ertise cannot be set the men selected for the fearful deed murder of his wife, hanged himself early of several incandescent lamps and their The man who were not made known at the meeting. this morning. His cell was but a few wire appertainings. This is accepted as s not keep, is the No one knew the names of the men who yards from that in which Mrs. Whiteling conclusive evidence that one of the lost were to "remove" Dr. Cronin except the was awaiting execution. He hanged him- boats must have been a passenger steam-

Seven Years' Penitentiary.

Chief of Police Hubbard said last night; Israel Barnett appeared before the Cri- mystery is which was the other vessel. Dan Coughlin was not at home the night minal Assize Court this afternoon for The wreckage is so battered and smashed, May 4th; he was not at the East Chi- sentence for fraudulent appropriation of while yet giving indisputable evidence of Dealer in Fresh and Salt Meats avenue station and we have traced two negotiable securities of $5260, the having been in the water a short time, almost to the very door of the Carl- property of the Central bank, Barnett that it goes to show that some terrific Orders delivered to any part of the townbeing at the time trustee of these securi- shock caused the disaster. An ordinary The police will not say that Senior ties. His Lordship said that he could not collision, even with sufficient force to sink ardian John F. Beggs is not one of the treat Barnett with any more consideration both vessels, could hardly account for is eagerly and anxiously watch- than justice would allow. He had been in the shattered wreckage. An ordinary is a fact that detectives were close connection with the parties respon- gale could not have done it. It would day. It is not believ- sible for the wrecking of the Central seem as if the vessels, if in collision, had has left the city and therefore Bank, which had brought ruin to so many come together bow on at full speed, or as aunts were thoroughly search- people. As far as the transaction was if some terible force had crushed both was connected with the prisoner, he had vessels to pieces, as might an iceberg or Detective Palmer had a long interview taken drafts and appropriated them, aerolite. th Judge Longenecker early this morn- knowing the consequences. He had fled and an hour later a flurried looking the country, but distance proved no dmitted to the Judge's office by object when the law must be vindicated. ide door. He was a Clan-na-Gael man, "I do not think that anything I could and he was the one who gave the State's say would have any influence on you," torney the names of seven of the ten continued Justice MacMahon. "You're last night through the window of a room nen who compose the inner circle of a man of intelligence and good business character, and took the responsibility of Lena. The girls were awakened while The trial, condemnation and execution your action knowing the consequences, Cronin was entirely in accordance and it is only my duty to impose the full th the usages of the Clan as practised penalty of the law. The sentence of the ether cases, noticably by the informer court upon you, Roland Isræl Gideon rey, who was tried by the process under | Barnett, is that you be confined in Kingston penitentiary for a period of seven The gravity of the charges made against years." Barnett's brother, who was emen composing the inner circle of court, was much effected at the sentence. P No. 20 is fully appreciated by the He threw his arms round Barnett's neck orney, who has several officers and wept bitterly. Barnett also showed family of which Miss Nina, the proxy widow of August Spies, the hanged anarchist, is a member, removed recently from their Rush streee residence to Austin a suburb of Chicago. Their new home was selected because of the proximity to Waldheim cemetery. where lie the bones her loss and wears the widow's weeds, which she donned in November, 1887. She lives a retired, melancholy life, wrapped up in the memory of the tragic past, and a solitary black rfibed figure can often be seen at the tomb of Spies holding silent communion with the dead. A reporter called on her father yesterday with to lead the Anarchist's mob on the stage ich several thousand acres of valuable in the title role. Mr. Nan Zarnt was too busy to leave his desk, but he wrote across Mr. Michael Davitt will testify before the face of the telegram: "An infamous

Spies' Proxy Widow.

The Mennonite delegation who have been partly manufactured in Canada and comooking for land in the North-West have pleted in the States was submitted recentelected Calgary for their future home, and ly to the Washington Treasury Departhave asked the Dominion Government to ment authorities, who decided that duty should be paid upon the value of the parts manufactured in Canada.

Whose Letter is it?-It is From Mrs. Mary Clark, but Which Mary is the Question.

One of the best known men in southern Connecticut is ex-Postmaster William J Ja of Camp No. 20 of the Clan-na-Gael; Maine, on his way to the far west. Batch- Clark of this town, says a Birmingham, man who attended the meeting when eldar was born in Sweden on July 1, 1786, Conn., special to the New York Sun. Mr. and is consequently almost as nearly as Clark is now connected with the Thomp- Attorney Longenecker the death sentence because his heart ful in business, amassing considerable town, and was surprised when a gentlethe death sentence failed him. He insisted that means, but which he eventually lost man stepped up to the hotel register and means, but which he eventually lost through speculation. Strange to say he enjoys his mental faculties almost perfect, while physically he is all but crippled, having to be carried in a wheeled chair; and the was a British spy—was brought up by he was a British spy—was brought up by he was a British spy—was been prominently by he recounted were head and, as he reclined in the latter at the gentlemen inquired for letters, and the clerk handed out one addressed to William J. Clark, Bridge-enjoys his mental faculties almost perfect, while physically he is all but crippled, having to be carried in a wheeled chair; and, as he reclined in the latter at the clerk handed out one addressed to William J. Clark, Bridge-enjoys his mental faculties almost perfect, while physically he is all but crippled, having to be carried in a wheeled chair; and the clerk handed out one addressed to William J. Clark, Bridge-enjoys his mental faculties almost perfect, while physically he is all but crippled, having to be carried in a wheeled chair; and the clerk handed out one addressed to William J. Clark, Bridge-enjoys his mental faculties almost perfect, while physically he is all but crippled, having to be carried in a wheeled chair; and the clerk handed out one addressed to William J. Clark, Bridge-enjoys his mental faculties almost perfect, while physically he is all but crippled, having to be carried in a wheeled chair; and the clerk handed out one addressed to William J. Clark, Bridge-enjoys his mental faculties almost perfect, while physically he is all but crippled, having to be carried in a wheeled chair; and the clark handed out one addressed to William J. Clark, Bridge-enjoys his mental faculties almost perfect, while physically he is all but crippled up to the hotel register and the sign his name as William J. Clark, Bridge-enjoys his mental faculties almost perfect, while physically he is all but crippled up to the hotel register and the sign has name as William J. Clark, Bridge-enjoys his mental faculties almost perfect, w station he recounted very lucidly events of the past, to the crowd that surrounded him. He remembered President Washough a second party. The man who him. He remembered President Washough a second party. The man who him. He remembered President Washough a second party. The man who him. He remembered President Washough a second party. The man who him. He remembered President Washough a second party. The man who him. He remembered President Washough a second party. The man who him. He remembered President Washough a second party. The man who him. He remembered President Washough a second party. The man who him. He remembered President Washough a second party. The man who him. He remembered President Washough a second party. The man who him. He remembered President Washough a second party. The man who him. He remembered President Washough a second party. The man who him. He remembered President Washough a second party. The man who him. He remembered President Washough a second party. The man who him washough a second party washough a second party. The man who him washough a second party washough a together with the name of the name war broke out in 1861 he was exempt ham Clark doubted this, but knew it was the lawyer who acted as prosecutor upin that occasion. A German saloon on some service for the North Sitting beside showed. An examination of previous North side was given as a rendezvous his wheeled carriage and in watchful at- letters showed an astonishing similarity of tendance upon him was an old man very penmanship, so much so, in fact, that the white haired, and bent; this was his son hotel clerk could not tell one from the

the city.

The informer has been on nettles ever that he had lost nearly everything he had made and was going west to see once and at last determined to ease his conscience by telling the State's Attorney.

Lindan The informer has been on nettles ever that he had lost nearly everything he had made and was going west to see once more some relatives before he died.

Well I'll open it, and if it dated Bridge-portiti is mine, of course, "said the varnish man. It was opened, but unfortunately it was simply dated May 3, with no town written. This was a puzzler, but the varnish man was sure it was his and finally servething. He did not vote at all on the land of th must be mine, as that is my wife's name.' And that is the name of my wife, also," PHILADELPHIA, Pa., June 25.—The said the ex-postmaster. They were in a each committing it to memory, and finally returned it to the hotel clerk in another sealed envelope, and he is to keep it until PACIFIC RAILWAY, istence of the other.

The Mysterious Ocean Wreck. Boston, June 27. - The excitement the saloon bulkhead, containing a broken mied out in all its details. The names Geo. McCann, awaiting trial for the lamp fixture, which showed the remains apply to tes they find that man who was to notify them that they self with a pocket hankerchief fastened to known, contain this sort of electric illuminating outfit for the saloon. The Hydrographic office and Anchor Line agents both accepted the theory that one of the TORONTO, June 26.—Roland Gideon vessels was the "Victoria," but the chief

A Murderous Burglar. LACROSSE, Wis., June 27.-A burglar Barristers and etc., Lindsay. entered the house of John Webber the robber was searching their clothing, and Lena, aged eighteen attempted to escape. She fell, and before she could arise she was seized by the burglar, who plunged a knife into her body below the ninth rib. The knife was pulled upward, a deep gash nine inches long was cut, which exposed the heart, lungs and intestines. The assassin then made a thrust at the other girl, who managed to evade the kife. The family were aroused by the noise, but the burglar escap-

CHICAGO, June 56.—The Van Zandt Disaster to a Merry Rowing Party on the Hudson-Six Drowned. ALBANY, N. Y., June 25 .- One of the saddest drowning calamities that has ever occurred in this vicinity took place this evening, resulting in the death of six young people, who made up a merry rowof the five anarchists. Nina still mourns | ing party on the Hudson, Joseph A. Cote, his brother, Edward F. Cote, aged 25, John J. Mattimore, all of this city, and Maud Horner and Maggie Horner, sisters, aged respectively 17 and 15 years, living in Bath, on the Hudson, and Kate Ryan shortly before eight o'clock to-night to ena despatch which stated that Nina wanted joy a row on the river. Suddenly out of the semi-darkness ahead came a tug at in "Paul Kauvar," with Joseph Haworth full speed. Joseph saw it and warned the rowers. This is the last of which he has any recollection. Then there was a crash and all became a blank. When Joseph recovered consciousness he was on board the tug, the only one left alive of a The question of the duty on a railway truck party of seven. None of the bodies have

> The date of the trial of the suspected murderers of Dr. Cronin in Chicago will not be fixed until after the extradition of

SIX FRONT TEETH WITHOUT

If you want a beautiful SET of TEETH that will last you a lifetime, go to NEE

Numbers of persons are wearing Teeth

noted the prosecution was an Irish ington perfectly, and many minute cir- mark was examined, but all that could ty-one years, extracting teeth for thou-

-TO GET-

Room Papers, Picture Frames,

near the market.

GOODS! NEW PRICES.

The Best Equipped Road on the Continent.

Lowest Rates

TO ALL POINTS

East & West.

MANITOBA, B. COLUMBIA.

CALIFORNIA,

And all points in the United States For TICKETS and full information

> T. C. MATCHETT. Agent C. P. R.

OFFICE in Petty's Jewelry Store

P. TULLY,

Shop-5th door east of the market.

MONEY TO LOAN.

Kent Street, Lindsay.

AT LOWEST CURRENT RATES, INTEREST PAYABLE YEARLY. Terms to suit borrower. McINTYRE & STEWART,

Parties intending to build the coming season snould call and get prices for

The Bridgeport Clark was sure by the superscription that it was from his wife, and other leading episodes of the batter, and other leading episodes of the war of 1812-14. When the Southern was broken to the mame of the name of the nam MOULDINGS, Etc.

Prices right and satisfaction guaranteed.

Ingle & Ryley.

Woollen Wills T_indsay

Again in Operation.

A large STOCK of GOODS

To be Sold Cheaper than the Cheapest.

Accounts required to be settled without delay, and

IN FUTURE NO CREDIT WILL BE CIVEN.

Wool Wanted as usual.

J. W. WALLACE,

MANAGER.

CREAM BAKING POWDER.

Made fresh every week and sold in bulk at 30 cents per pound

A HIGINBOTHAM'S.

Drug Store.

A. CAMPBELL,

Whoesale & Retail Grocer,

HAS NOW ON HAND A LARGE STOCK OF

General Groceries.

and Mary Hennesy, both of Hudson, relatives of the Horner girls, started out Teas, Sugars, Coffees, Spices, Raisins, &c. Coal Oil and syrup Cans, Latest Styles.

or sould be been been like will retailate by in reasing the lumber

WHOLESALE & RETAIL GROCER, KENT STREET, LINDSAY.

ticular, but will held to-morrow RNEAUX