And then guffaws broke forth until by 10 o'clock a. m. the whole town had "laughed consumedly." In many instances the laughter was so profound as to cause alarm for the safety of the individual. What must have been the effect of the "Letter to the World was in town the greater part of last Conference" upon the 1000 or so Warder week, interviewing our citizens generally readers in the outlying country districts for the purpose of securing information can only be imagined. Cricket Notes.

Perhaps the most interesting place on Dominion Day was the school ground, a game of cricket being played between the Oshawa tcam and the Collegiate Institute eleven, which resulted in a victory for the home team by one wicket. The Oshawas arrived on the Toronto train where a splendid lunch was waiting for Stafford, Miss Minnie Stafford, Dr. J. T. them. Play commenced, as soon as the Stroud, Mr. Robert C. The home team then took up the "willow" and at the fall of the last wicket had 36 runs, Montgomery making 8 and Matthews and Porter each, McBurney although only getting in 2 runs entirely used up the bowlers by his steady play. The Oshawas again tried their luck at the bat but they could not solve the swift bowling of Montgomery and were kept down to 21 runs. This left the Collegiates 18 runs behind or 19 to beat. The boys went in for the last time to do or die and they determined not to allow the visitors to defeat them. Milner, Porter and Matthews mowed down the Oshawa wickets. The Oshawa players are a fine set of fellows and a ricer lot could hardly be played with.

The first cricket match on the home grounds this season was played last Saturday, with the Trinity College School (Port Hope) second eleven, and resulted in a defeat for the Collegiate by 19 runs. in a defeat for the Collegiate by 19 runs.

Six Persons Found Dead in a Paterson (N.J.) House of Ill-Repute.

PATERSON, N.J., June 28 .- Four women and two men, all disreputable characters, were discovered dead to-night in a house of ill-repute here. Death was caused by asphyxiation. Three of the women were stretched out on the floor, half naked. The oldest, aged 40, was lying in a pool of blood, which came from any ugly wound in the head and covered her face and body. Her right eye was almost torn from the socket and the face was horribly swollen. The fourth woman, aged 17, was sitting in a rocking chair near the window with her arms folded. Goodfried, keeper of the dive, was found in the rear of the house lying on a cot with his tongue protruding and swollen to four times its normal size. His features were badly decomposed. He was about 80 years old. The second man was found in a sitting position with his head resting on the bed on which Goodfried was lying. Near him was a gas stove, which had evidently done the fatal work. The gang were last seen Wednesday night going into the dive.
It is believed they have been dead since Thursday morning. The coroner and police are investigating the case.
