

WALL PAPERS

New Patterns Arriving Daily FROM English, Canadian and American Markets.

All the Latest Designs in Dining Room, Drawing-Room and Bedroom Papers, Ceiling Papers, Corners and Decorations.

Remember the place, just opposite the New Post Office, which is now open and running in full blast.

W. A. METHERELL, Agent for the celebrated Uxbridge Organ and Mendelsohn Piano.

The Watchman. THURSDAY, JULY 10, 1890.

Doings About Town.

Pure Paris Green. Folies—warranted pure, cheapest price town, wholesale or retail.

Fatal Accident. On Tuesday last an old man of about 80 years of age named John Haggart was killed by a train in Peterboro.

True Blues. The Hackett True Blues, meet in their large room on Saturday morning at 7 o'clock, for transaction of business.

Garden Social. This evening (Thursday) the ladies of St. Paul's Church give a garden social at the residence of Mr. John A. Barron. Refreshments and music supplied.

Accident. Mr. Rogers, one of the employes of the Peterboro Bros., had the misfortune to lose his fingers caught in the gearing of machinery last Friday, by which he lost a portion of two fingers.

The Glorious 12th. The Lindsay Orangemen and True Blues accompanied by the Loyal Orange Boys went to Orilla on Saturday, to take part in the monster demonstration there, in honor of the victory at the Boyne. Cheap fares have been issued from all stations on the N. T. R.

Orange Divine Service. The members of the several Lindsay Orange lodges assembled at their hall on Front street last Sunday afternoon and marched to St. Paul's church, where they were addressed by Rev. C. H. Marsh.

That Investigating Committee. A committee of the Town Council was appointed some time ago to enquire into and report upon certain charges preferred against our chief constable.

A Narrow Escape. At the tea and anniversary of the Veterans Union Sabbath School held on Monday last in Mr. Swain's beautiful grove nearly a serious accident occurred.

Dr. Brown's Magnetic Oil. Positively cures worst cases of catarrh, cold in the head or system, sore throat, lame back, kidney troubles, neuralgia, rheumatism, and aches and pains of every description.

Drowned. We learn that on Sunday last Richard Morrissey, of Emily went into Pidgeon Creek for a bath, when by some means he got beyond his depth, and was drowned.

Cheese Market. The cheese market at Peterboro' on Tuesday last was well attended. There were on the market 4,000 boxes, valued at about $35,000; 3,000 from Peterboro' County and 1,000 from Victoria.

Archer Will Likely Come. It is almost definitely settled that Frederick Archer, one of the world's greatest living performers on the pipe organ will give one of his wonderfully attractive programmes in Lindsay the latter part of September.

Prentice Boy's Excursion. The public would do well to remember the excursion to Fenelon Falls on Saturday 12th, under the auspices of the 'Prentice Boys of Lindsay. The "Alice Ethel" and palace barge "Lindsay" will leave the Wellington street wharf after the arrival of the 9.15 train from Ormeau, and return in time to catch the same train going east in the evening.

Y. M. C. A. Notes. As the weather did not permit last Tuesday evening, the Y. M. C. A. garden party was postponed. Mr. R. J. Colville, general secretary of the Peterboro Young Men's Christian Association was in town last Sunday and spoke at the young men's meeting at 4.15 in the Y. M. C. A. rooms.

Special Meetings.—Mr. Walbrook will begin special meetings in the Y. M. C. A. rooms next Saturday evening. All young men are cordially invited to attend. The first meeting will be held on Saturday evening. Two meetings will be held on Sunday in the rooms. A consecration meeting at 9 a. m. and a men's meeting at 4.15.

Sturgeon Point Notes. The season at the Point has fully opened. The cottages are now about all occupied. Mr. Armour is erecting a new one. Among the permanent residents are the following families: Judge Dean, Rev. Dr. Williams, J. B. Knowlson, Squire McDonald, J. R. Dundas, F. C. Taylor, W. Flavelle, W. Needler, Wm. McBurney, T. Dean, H. Dean, W. A. Goodwin, J. Hamilton, A. B. Terry, John Dobson, S. Perrin, R. S. Porter, G. Hopkins, R. Easton, J. W. Wetherup, C. Britton, D. J. McIntyre, E. Gregory, W. Milne, R. Smyth, Messrs. Head, Grantham and Warner, Mrs. Tai, Mrs. Dunsford, Mrs. Walkie, Mrs. Bogart of Belleville, Mrs. Peter Hamilton, Mrs. Robert Hamilton and Mrs. Cameron of Peterboro'.

The visitors to "the Point" during the week have been delighted with the charming freshness of the scenery, with others were Mrs. A. Parkin, and party of United States friends. Mr. John D. McMurphy and family, Miss Dunsford, Miss Taylor, Mrs. James Workman, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Little, Miss Meacher of Fox, Miss Fox, Miss Lottie Meacher of Napanee, Miss Silver, Miss Hamilton, Mr. Frampton and family, Mr. George Walkley of Port Hope, Mr. R. Terry of Midland city, Mrs. John Woods, J. R. McNulty, Miss Bertha Morris of Toronto is a welcome guest at cherry tree cottage. Mr. Geo. Simpson has been laid up with inflammation a few days. We are pleased to see him around again attending to his hotel guests in his gentlemanly way. Excursions continue numerous the "miskeeters" less so.

Religious services was held in the chapel on Sunday by Mr. Head. Next Sabbath the Rev. Mr. Greener will officiate.

The other day some lads went in search of larger game than squirrels to chase. They found some, but the animal they had to tree was not sweet-scented like a geranium, and the result was anything but satisfactory to the urchins or pleasing to parents.

On pleasure intent a fishing he went, But never a fish did he take; Still bites he had many, Yet he'd have given a penny, If the mosquitoes were all in the lake.

The rusticator dress of an ex-member of parliament rivals the Windsor uniform worn by Sir John McDonald on state occasion.

The Warner twins are the admiration of all fair ones who take stock in such samples of humanity. The little ones receive more kisses in the week than many a man does in a whole life-time.

The latch-string of the Goodwin mansion always hangs on the outside and friends are cordially welcomed and hospitably entertained.

The wind-mill, which failed to pump a pint of water for two weeks, has been doing its work nobly since the engine managed to whistle up a good stiff breeze.

Most of the cottage-owners have names for their summer houses. Would it not be well to have the same posted up? Some rustic lettering, made from cut twigs, tacked to a narrow painted board would look nice.

queried a rusticator. "Oh," was the reply "they hang some of them upon hooks at night, and on wash-days use them for clothes pins."

The advanced section of the celebrated Rochester Club arrived at the Point on Tuesday, and are comfortably quartered at the hotel, where mine host Simpson will take good care of them during their couple of weeks stay. The following registered: C. H. Amsdeed, A. McWhorted, A. P. Little, J. M. Backues, Thomas Griffith, S. A. McKenny and W. H. Page. There will be about twenty in all when the others arrive. The Republicans, having won in the last election, had the honor of sending a sample of the Harrison men over first.

Lake and River Items.

The Water Witch plies on the lakes below Bobcaygeon.

Rusticators at Bobcaygeon bob up serenely while bathing.

The Delurey fife and drum band excursion to Port Perry on Dominion day, per steamer Alice Ethel, was quite a success.

The steamer Coboonk, owned by the Messrs. McArthur, makes daily trips from the Falls to Rosedale and other points.

The boats built by Mr. P. Doris, since he began business, would make a pretty close procession between Lindsay and the Point.

The Beaubocage took a tow of forty thousand logs from the Falls to little Bob for the Boyd mills, the other day.

A farmer's excursion from around lake Sturgeon took place on Thursday last to Stony creek and Pigeon lake. A good time was enjoyed.

Captain Bowerman of Port Perry is kept busy with his little steamer "Princess Louise" and barge carrying excursion parties and towing.

The steamer Dominion and Eva, Captained by the Crandell boys, Frank and Fremont, find plenty of work to do towing and running excursions.

The excursion to Bobcaygeon Park on Monday, per steamer Dominion and barge, under the auspices of the Presbyterian church was well attended. The rain, however, put a damper upon the pleasures of the day.

On Saturday the Prentice Boys of the town will run an excursion to Fenelon Falls, where a celebration of the Glorious Twelfth takes place.

The whistle of the Esturion can be heard a distance of ten miles on a calm day.

The Methodist's of Oakwood have an excursion to the Point to-morrow (Friday) by the steamer Esturion.

Capt. Ball with his steam yacht and barge, is doing a good business in Saturday's excursions to town, from the Scugog shore, portions of Cartright and Mariposa.

The church of England, Presbyterian, and Baptist Sunday schools at the Falls united in a picnic and excursion to Bobcaygeon on Friday last. It was largely attended, but the coolness of the atmosphere chilled the pleasure.

The Methodist's at the Falls ran an excursion to Jacob's Island on Tuesday of this week. It was largely attended. The village band accompanied the party and discoursed admirable music.

The Lindsay Canoe club took a run down the river to Sturgeon Point on Friday evening last with fair friends invited. About forty couple in all. The steamer Alice Ethel, Captain Fee in command, was utilized for the occasion. A stay about three hours was made at the Point, the party trifling the light fantastic in the recreation hall of the hotel, to music supplied by Messrs. Humphrey and Dennison. Luncheon was partaken of before leaving for home, which was reached about one o'clock.

Personals.

Miss Foley is visiting her relatives at Prescott.

Mr. J. H. Pearman of Toronto, was in town on Wednesday.

Mr. A. J. Reid, barrister, of Cannington was in town on Tuesday on business.

Miss Watson of Beaverton is spending a few days in town as the guest of Mrs. J. D. MacMurchy.

Mrs. H. A. McLaughlin and family left to-day for Dundalk, County Grey, to spend the summer.

M. W. F. Link, who for some time past has been engaged as operator on the C. P. R. is spending a few holidays in town.

Mr. Jos. Keele, of Toronto, is at present on a visit with his friends in Lindsay, and he intends spending a few days at the Point.

Mrs. W. Mowrey, of Erie, Penn., and Miss Maud Nethercott of Dundalk were in town for a few days last week, the guests of Mr. L. Archambault.

Miss Eva McCarthy left on Friday last, to join her mother and sisters who are residing in Toronto. Miss Eva's many young friends in Lindsay will miss her very much.

Mr. F. L. Morton, of Rochester is home on a visit to his parents, William street. He is employed by one of the first law firms in that city as phonographer, and he seems to like his position.

Mr. R. Lees, science master in the the Brampton High School, and formerly of the Lindsay Collegiate staff, spent a few days in town last week. Mr. Lees has gone to Stony Lake where he intends spending his holidays.

James Graham, Esq., now of Memphis, Tenn., but formerly one of our popular Kent St. merchants, is now paying his annual visit to his old friends in Lindsay and district. Mr. Graham looks hale and hearty and speaks highly of his new home in the U. S.

Safe For Sale.

A Taylor safe with combination lock in first class order.

Apply to H. GLADMAN, Postmaster, Lindsay.

Fifty Thousand Dollars

WORTH OF GOODS

TO BE SLAUGHTERED.

Grand Amalgamation Sale. We have four stores full of goods which have to be amalgamated into one at an early date, and in order to accomplish this we are going to sell at prices which will enable us to reduce this amount to half its present size. On the first of April we commence in Bradburn & Co's old stand, opposite Perrin's drug store, to sacrifice these goods.

E. E. W. McGAFFEY.

IN THE CITY STORE,

SOOTHERAN & CO'S OLD STAND,

we will hold a big Clearing Sale under the management of LEE & McCRIMMON.

AT OAKWOOD,

Perkins & Co. will clear their stock out at cost for thirty days.

This is the largest sale of goods ever offered to the Lindsay public. Come early and secure bargains.

E. E. W. McGaffey.