Accident.

It is reported that an aged couple named Littleton were very seriously injured by their team running away at Fenelon Falls on Tuesday last. We were unable to obtain particulars.

Band Concert.

The Band Concert on Friday night last was but poorly attended, a matter that is to be greatly attended. The programme rendered by the band was of the highest order of excellence throughout, and deserves a bumper house. Our citizens so far have not been doing their duty by the band, and we trust that the concert to-morrow (Friday) evening will be well attended. Give the boys a bumper house.

Obituary.

It is our sad duty to record the death in New York on Friday, July 8, of Charles W. Jewett, the second son of Mr. B. F. Jewett, of this town. Mr Jewett learned the trade of printing with Mr. C. D. Barr of the Canadian Post, and when seventeen years of age went to New York to follow his occupation, and where he spent the past fourteen years. He was very successful in his business, and had few equals as a compositor. At one time he was employed in the Mail office, Toronto. Being of a cheery disposition, he made many friends, who were shocked to hear of his untimely end. The deceased had not been in good health for several weeks prior to his death, but his complaint was not sufficiently serious to cause alarm to his friends. On Thursday, July 7, he was taken down with peritonitis, and in spite of the best medical skill, and the kind care of friends, he expired on Friday morning. The remains were embalmed and prepared for removal to Lindsay. The funeral in New York took place on Sunday, at the church of St. Chrysostom, which was attended by his relatives, friends and fellow employees. The floral tributes were very beautiful, among which were a wreath of white roses, and a pillow of white lilies inscribed "Charlie." The body arrived here Monday evening, and was interred on Tuesday afternoon in the family plot in the Riverside cemetery. Mr. Jewett was in his thirty-first year, and his early death is much deplored. The sympathy of Lindsay friends is extended to the bereaved mother and to the other members of the family.

Sticky Fly Paper.

Divine Service.

The arrangement of Lindsay made a good turn out on Sunday last in attending divine service at the Queen street Methodist church. Rev. N. Hill preached an excellent and appropriate sermon to a crowded congregation.

Prize Organ

The organ given in connection with the baking powder, at Mr. W. M. Robson's store, was awarded to Mr. Geo. A. Metherell, on Friday last. The envelope was opened in the presence of the Mayor and Reeve and the reporter of this paper. The lucky No. being 115.

Y. M. C. A. Notes.

The young men's meeting will be held next Sunday at 4.45 p.m. It is expected that Rev. J. Truax will deliver a short address. All young men are heartily invited.

A Handsome Banner.

One of the handsomest banners exhibited in the procession on the 12th was that painted by our townsman, W. A. Goodwin, for the Reabero Lodge. It was beautifully arranged on expensive heavy silk, and was admired by a large number. It reflected the highest credit on Mr. Goodwin. On the face side the portrait of the Queen, over which is an open bible, surrounded by the rose, shamrock and thistle. Beneath the portrait are two scrolls, entwined by maple leaves bearing the letters L. O. L. No. 82, Reabero. On the reverse side is an equestrian portrait of King William III, with the celebrated motto "No Surrender." Beneath the portrait are the words, Aughrim, Enniskillen and the Boyne, with the ever memorable date "1690."

Orange Demonstration at Fenelon Falls.

The Orange celebration at Fenelon Falls on Tuesday last was one of the largest which has taken place in this county for some years. Both the "Crandella" and "Alice-Ethel" left Lindsay with large numbers on board, the former having about 400 and the latter, with barge, conveying about 700. There was also a special train which added largely to the numbers. The day, however, passed off without the slightest jar, and, considering the crowds, it was the most harmonious and respectable celebration ever held here. As more than one remarked to us there was no sign of drinking, and everything terminated in the most pleasant manner.

Church Notes.
