

2303 St. Catherine Street, Montreal. mother comforteth, so will I comfort you; camera, prepared to take a "shot" at the going to town to try to engage a cook, and They give free services to all who call and ye shall be comforted;" and by the rare old pile. He was quietly adjusting I wish to create a good impression." upon them before August 1st, 1892, and side was written, "My little motherless his plates when three young Mexican Offifrankly tell you if your case is curable or Isabel." "It is almost like my mother cers in passing made some insulting renot. All incurable cases are rejected. speaking to me from the dead." Isabel mark. Finley replied in kind, when the Special attention is haid to every case. said solemnly, "she must have known I Mexican rushed at him with drawn sword Invalids living outside of Montreal should should find this some day," and eagerly but was prevented from doing violence, cent stamps for symptom blank and ques- her daughter would probably find these tion sheets.

The Watchman.

THURSDAY, JULY 21, 1892.

A SONG OF TRUST.

We know not, but thou knowest All things, Most Good and Wise The light is all about thee, The mists are in our eyes.

Thy children love this solace In hours of strain and strife, What we know not thou knowest, Oh, God of all our life!

Why sicknesses and sorrows Should dare to touch thine own, Why loving hearts are breaking, And weak ones sad and lone; Why those who cry for morning Are lest amid the night, We know not, but thou knowest, And all thy ways are right.

Why from the world that needs them Thou call'st thy best way, Though hosts besiege thee for them And they are fain to stay, We ask. but find no answer, We cannot understand, But thine is perfect knowledge, Our times are in thy hand.

From beat of stormy waters, From waves of restless care, From tumult of great trouble And waste of wild despair, Our souls find ample refuge In faith as in an ark, We know not, but thou knowest,

And light shines through the dark,

A Bit of Tonic This Week.

It's a fact that some people think Christianity is dead or at least dying. It was only a little while ago that an infidel proclaimed the Bible would soon be out of print. How we laugh at such thoughts. | week. They hit so wide of the mark we call it a Christianity dead! Hardly, when the greatest city in the world-London-will celebrate the one great day of Atonement -Good Friday - by closing every shop and store, factory and mill, saloon and storehouse, banks and business alike; calling a halt in the affairs of life to remember the day when Jesus was nailed to the cross and gave his life for sinners. If you call that the sign of disintegration, give me more of it.

Some folk see little because they get in quite two score years ago. a bad position, lost in the woods of doubt or surrounded by the mists of worldliness. of this city, having lived here nearly The heavens show far different to one twelve years. He served two terms as beside the Lick telescope and one face downwards in jungle path. My brother my sister, ask God to help you out on some hill top for an hour's clear breathing tune. Four years ago he married a in the fresh breeze of facts and clear sky weil-known lady of this place. Back of realities of success in this mighty of this is a story tinged with romance course of ours. It will do you good. The day you read this there will be more than two thousand converts made for Christ. Think of that.

I saw with mine own eyes, only a few weeks just gone by, more than a thousand converts gathered at one time from athreeweek's mission in McKeesport, Pa. Mind you, that is just one spot out of the many where the smile of God has kissed the harvest into the full ripeness for gather-

Maybe the kiss of the world has left blisters of sorrow on your lip and life; Though denied all hope by the mar- their hair, we would say not. well, let me give the cure, the same as riage of his cousin with the girl he still as others have tried with success. The loved, this flame kept burning through Balm of Gilead, the love of Jesus and grace of God. I've been watching of late the effects of God's remedy on broken hearts and lives, and so sweet has been the outcome I want you to try it.

Thousands come to me for help. How foolish! Why not go to God. It was he who sail, "Fear not, I will help thee," and behind the promises was the strength of Omnipotence.

You will find written on my open ing flyleaf in the Bible, I use these words. "Be careful for nothing."

"Be prayerful for everything." "Be thankful for anything.

Little favors of God often outweigh the biggest gift in the world. Satan knew planet for one bow.

A Mother's Rich Legacy.

" Isabel, this is the key of your mother's wardrobe," said a father to his motherless "Take it, and, at your leisure, look over the long search. your mother's things. You are at an age now to value them.

scholar and bookworm, left the room. bill has been favourably reported to the better imagined than described after he slabel was soon looking over her young House from the coinage, Weights, and has spent half an-hour trying to smuggle mother's possession. She could just Measures Committee, and placed on the himself under a Gospel tent supposing it remember being taken as a kindly child to House calender.

kiss a sweet, pale lady in bed, and the next day being told that her mother was in heaven. As she looked on the long-unused He Says He Left His Autagonist Dying things, she yearned to have that fair mother by her side, for she was often lonely and cheerless. Suddenly Isabel at once about the middle, the place being suffering from a sword thrust in the side. A staff of eminent American Physicians small Bible, and that it opened at a place it is sensational in the extreme. On Jan. address their letters to MR. JOHN she kissed the page again and again. The MURRAY, Manager, and enclose two 3 young mother had known that some time words, watered by her dying prayers. And richly God answered those prayers, for that well-worn Bible soon became her she drew heavenly comfort and joy that brightened her solitary life.

Prayer Meetings.

The regular mid-week prayer-meeting in your church could be made a mighty power and filled to overflowing if the following simple rules and suggestions were carried out:

to edification.

a nice luncheon, never mind if it does cost time, trouble and money.

want and pledge them to it. Be present rain or shine. Get there early with cheering faces.

See that everybody has books to sing Have the room well lighted.

Squelch long preludes, and interludes, and afterludes, on organ or piano.

clear, and with good time. Every one be ready to offer a short very short, pointed prayer. Let the twenty-five demand reverence, himself mingled with joy, by their every act. Haye ready some good Scripture, testi-

Permit no one to be lengthy, not even the preacher. Never follow the same order; vary the

See that sinners are urged to accept thrusts already.

Close the meeting promptly. The twenty-five then speak to everybody in the room. Ask them to bring some one else next

Found After Two Score Years.

Ellenwood (B.C.)Letter in the Los grew weaker. Angeles Times: After a patient weary search extending over the Western continent and covering a period of nearly forty years, Charles Hartley, of Oswego, N.Y., a few days ago at this point ended a period in his eventful life by arresting Allen Hartley, a cousin charged with the murder of his wife

The man arrested is an old resident accumulation of a comfortable forand sullied by a crime so remarkable in its details that it furnishes a chapter in criminal history.

Allan Hartley is now an old man of | "It has walked away." nearly 70. When his locks were raven and his beard was young he married a so serious as a bad hearing for the charming young lady, the belle of the prisoner. small interior town of New York State where both resided. Charles Hartley the cousin, who yesterday, after such a was born. lapse of years, caused the arrest of Allen, was an unsuccessful suitor. change. Well, to judge by the length of the years caused the tracking down and a dumb baste talking to yez." arrest of the wife murderer.

Thirty nine years ago next May Allen Hartley bade his friends hearty farewell, and at the same time informing them with his wife he was going West to seek his fortune, No are very apt to speculate on futures. one saw the people leave the town, and finally murmurs of something Micky," said Mr. Dolan, "if yez 'ud pay wrong increased to open gossip. more attintion to gettin' yer shoes blacked St. PAUL'S (Church of England) Russel Charges of foul play were freely made, instid av yer eyes." but there were none to prove them, and at length they died away. When Snodgrass, as he entered his parlor. "Who later the house in which the Hartleys has been roasting you this time, love?" had lived was being repaired and there asked Mrs. Snodgrass, anxiously. was found in a cemented vault beneath it the skeleton of Agnes Hartley, the this when he offered Christ this entire town went mad. But the murderer was gone and there was no trace. Charles Hartley swore to hunt him down if it took a lifetime and his fortune. It required forty years of one aud as many thousand dollars of the daughter, on her eighteenth birthday. other, but success has at last rewarded

With these words the father, a great The United States Senate Free Silver The feelings of a small boy may be to be a circus.

MR. FINLEY'S DUEL IN MEXICO.

and Fled Across the Border,

The Chicago Daily Inter-Ocean says: F. came on a well-worn book, bound in red H. Finley, an old resident of Niles, Mich., morrocco, with a silver clasp. It opened has just returned from a visit to Mexico, marked by a bunch of dry and colorless The wound was received in a duel with a flowers. She saw that the volume was a Mexican officer, and the story he tells of though Finley succeeded in slapping him in the face,. A challenge was child's greatest treasure. From it she swords, but, in consideration of Fin- from him." learned the plan of salvation, and from it ley's in-experience, short blades of thirty inches would be used instead of thirty-six. inch blades, with which his opponent was familiar. At dawn on the following morning two coaches left the centre of the Mexican capital and to a silent and secluded grove. There the occupants alighted. The four men his spouse, who, by the way, is rather surgical instruments. On the way into 1. Let some one call together in his the wood Finley's second whispered his home twenty-five people of the parish, last instructions: "Strike for your adver- did it merely on Johnny's account. You who have brains enough to take part to sary's face," he said. "It is his weakest have no idea how kind all the gentlemen point. After lunging, spring back quick-2 Give them a happy social hour with ly to avoid his blade. His returns are rapid. In a small open glade the party paused. The seconds assisted them to 3. After lunch, tell them what you remove their coats, waistcoats, and collars. Then they stood back.

RUMBLED THROUGH THE SUBURBS

"Gentlemen en garde." exclaimed the Calgary and one at Macleod.

The two men advanced, crossed their points and threw up their left hands. For a few moments they seemed to feel each Keep the temperature at sixty-five other and in those moments Finley felt that he was over-matched and that death Get the people together, and front was before him. Suddenly the Mexican made a lunge and Finley parried it. Then came another and another. The Mexican advanced and retreated with the smooth-The twenty five should sing strong, ness and rapidity of a snake. His weapon played about the blade of his opponent than Asiatic cholera. like a rod of fire but Finley retreated and parried mechanically. Suddenly he felt

WOUNDED ABOVE THE HEART. but he was on a backward spring and the cut was very slight. Again the feeling was resumed, followed by rapid lunges and retreats. The shortness of his sword was an embarrassment to the soldier. It had saved the American from a dozen death

Finley remembered his second's advice flicted one or two slight scratches, but his are paid. wrist and arm, unaccustomed to sword 3. If subscribers neglect to take periodiadvantage, and pressed him hard, lunge succeeding lunge with lightning rapidity. Finley parried and retired and advanced again bravely, but after each attack he

At last, after a terrific onslaughter, the Mexican feinted at Finley's face and then changed his point in direct line with his heart. The American them uncalled for, prima facie evidence of parried the thrust, but was only partly intentional fraud. successful. The sword plunged through in that moment Finley shortened his tinue taking the paper, otherwise the

The Mexican fell insensible and died on the following day, while Finley Mayor, and has been successful in the hurried across the border as soon as his wound would permit.

WIT AND WISDOM.

Last sad writes—Epitaphs. "Joseph." "Sir." "Pass the cheese."

Job was probably the most precocious METHODIST, Queen Street.-Rev. Newton

A defect in the hearing of a judge is no child on record. He cursed the day he "Do poets often marry?" aks an ex-

"Ye pays no more attention to me,"

says Patrick to his child, "than if I was a Officer (examining recruits): "Why do you salute superior officers ?" Recruit : "In order to keep out of the guardhouse." Preachers rarely male deals in mercantile exchanges; but in their pulpits they "It would be a greddeal betther fur yez

"Well, your goose is cooked !" exclaim-

Seedy (to barmaid): "Whisky, please." Barmaid: "Scotch or Irish, sir?' Seedy: "Gimme the same as that fellow had what's lying under the billiard table."

May : "Well, I should have been engaged now if it were not for my chaperon.' Cousin Jack : "Did she interfere ?" May : "Yes; she took him on herself."

"Gracious, what are you buying a mourning dress for? Is someone in your family dead ?" "Not yet, but my husband has been appointed a football referee."

to propose to Sue and end my misery? Spatts: "That might not end it." Hunker: 'How's that?" Spatts: "She might accept you."

She: "And what have you done to prove your love to me?" He: "Done? Why, I have done without my lunch every day for a week in order to take you to the opera last night."

First Suburban: "Hello, Smith! You and Surgeons have opened an office for where was a text strongly marked in red 18, Finley stood before the historic castle are got up regardless. Going to a wedmedical and surgical attendance, at No. link. The text was, "As one whom his of Chapultepec, and, unstrapping a small ding?" Second Suburban: "No. I'm

> "I'd like to go away for the rest of the week, sir," said the tired bookkeeper. "There is no need for you to do that," replied the employer. "Stay here, and the rest of the week will come to you."

Charlie: "I don't know what Smith presented and accepted. Finley secur- does with his money. Yesterday he was ing the services of a young Mexican short, and he's short again to-day." Tom: officer as a second. The seconds an- "Did he want to borrow from you?" nounced that the combat would be with Charlie: No, hang it! I wanted to borrow Lipsley: "You know those cigars Miss Bacon sent me for Christmas?" Lapsley: "Yes." Lipsley: "Well, I gave a lot to my friends, and now I haven't any left." Lapsley: "What, cigars?" Lipsley: "No,

"So you passed yourself as a widow while you were away, eh !" said Mr. Briggs to were met by afifth, who carried a flat case of good looking. "You ought to be ashamed of yourself, but I suppose you are not." "Of course I am not," was her reply. "I

NEWS ITEMS.

Two cases of Small-pox are reported at

The storerooms of the ill-fated Inman liner city of Chicago have been looted.

Hon. Edward Blake had a walk-over in Longford, Ireland, on Wednesday. Russell Harrison, son of the United States President, visited Kingston, Thurs-The Spanish medical experts have reported that "cholerine" is nothing else

NEWSPAPER LAW

The following condensation is based upon derisions rendered at various times by Division Court Judges :-

1. Subscribers who do not give definite notice to the contrary are considered as wishing to continue their subscription.

discontinued, the publisher may continue and attacked the Mexican's face. He in- to send it until all arrears of subscriptions responsible till all arrearages for subscriptions are settled. 4. If subscribers move to other places without informing the publisher, and the papers are sent to the old address, they are held liable. 5. The courts have decided that refusing to take periodicals from the post office, or removing to another town and leaving his thigh near the groin. For a second are bound to give notice at the end of the officer could not withdraw it, and their time if they do not wish to con-> by payment of all arrears, is sent him. 7. The man who allows his subscription to run for some time unpaid and then orders the paper discontinued or asks the post-master to mark it "Refused" leaves himself liable to punishment.

The Churches.

METHODIST, Cambridge St.-Rev. T. M, Campbell. Pastor. Services at 11 A.M.. and 7.00 P. M. Sabbath School and Bible Class at 2.30, Classes at 10 A.M. Prayer Meeting, Wednesday at 8 P. M. Young People's Christian Endeavor Society, every Friday evening at 7.30.

Hill, Pastor. Services at 11.00 A. M and 7.00 P. M. Sabbath School at 2.30 P. M. Prayer Meeting Thursday a 7.30 P. M.

BAPTIST, Cambridge Street.-Rev. W. K Anderson Pastor. Services at 11.00 A M. and 7.00 P. M. Prayer Meeting Sabath morning at 10.30 A. M. Sabbath School at 2.30 P. M. Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor Monday at 7.30 P. M. Prayer Meeting Wednesday at 7.30 P. M.—All seats free.

Andrew's (Presbyterian). William Street. Rev. Robert Johnston, B. A. Pastor. Services at 11.00 A. M. and 7.00 P. M. Sabbath School at 3.00 P. M. Prayer Meeting Wednesday at 8.00 P. M. Young People's Christian Circle Sabbath Morning at 10.15

Street-Rev. C. H. Marsh, Rector. Ser vices at 11.00 A. M. and 7.00 P. M. Sabbath School at 2.30. Prayer Meeting Wednesday at 7.30 P. M.

St. Mary's (Roman Catholic) Russel Stree -Rev. Vicar-General Laurent, Pastor, Rev. Father, McCaul, Curate. Services at 8.00 and 10.30 A. M. and 7.00 P.M. Sabbath School at 3.30 P. M. Y. M. C. A., Rooms Cor. Kent and Cambridge sts. Open daily from 9.00 A. M.

SALVATION ARMY, Peel street.—Captain Moore and Lieut. Parkin, officers. Sunday services at 7 and 11 A.M., and 3 and 7.30 P.M. Public meeting with the exception of Tuesday, soldiers rollcall; and Friday, Holiness meeting to which all Christians are welcome.

Hunker: "I wish I had courage enough propose to Sue and end my misery?" OWENMCGARVEY & Son

1849-1853 Notre Dame Street.

MONTREAL

Wholesale and Retail Manufacturers of and Dealers in

PLAIN & FANCY FURNITURE

This popular house has been actively engaged in the manufacture of furniture since 1843, in which year Mr. Owen McGarvey established himself in business, laying the foundation of what is now known as 2. If subscribers order a paper to be of the finest furniture houses in the Dominion. Whilst so many other firms in this line have been less fortunate, success has followed him in all his operations. The premises occupied comprise a large six storey building, 60x100 feet, which is largely used for show rooms. The entire play, began to tire. The soldier felt his cals from the post office, they are likewise establishment is a model one, neatness and order prevailing everywhere all available space being taken up to accommodate the enormous stock which they carry and from which purchasers can select to advantage as their stock is classified, each department is complete in itself. Then passenger elevator is constantly in operation, and will be found not only a great conveniece, but a positive luxury in its way to convey their cus tomers to the various flats of this mammoth establishment. Two l Show windows (the largest in the world), as well as large bay windows on the second floor, will be worthy of special notice, as they cont many New styles of Parlor and Drawing Room Furniture, all their of 6. If subscribers ray in advance they make, the Upholstering being the very best in every respect, and fini ed during the past few weeks.

This firm enjoys the highest reputation in Canada for their relia own weapon and drove it through his antagonist's breast near the shoulder.

publisher may send until such time as a definite order to discontinue, accompanied by request and expense of the Canadian Government Messrs. Owen Messrs. Garvey & Son forwarded a large exhibit to the Antwerp exposition 1886, for which they have received two bronze medals and diplomas and a silver medal for their upholstery exhibit, part of which was original design. This exhibit was afterwards placed in the Colonia and Indian exhibition, London, England, still at the Government pense. One result of this was that the firm received a commemorative medal and diploma for their very large and fine dispiay of furniture Speaking of this display, the critic of the London Cabinet Maker Art Finisher (Nov 1st, 1886,) which is the highest authority in Englander in this line of business, says: "The Empire may well be proud of the fine Canadian exhit, but unfortunately the furniture of these hard colonists is too much affected by the American style to command the admiration of the artistic. It is, however, fair to say that in many case the goods which are shown are free from such blemishes, notably thos exhibited by Messrs, Owen McGarvey & Son, of Montreal. The char and table here figured (referring to illustrations of these articles) unique selection from the exhibit of this firm, and the designs will speak for themselves." They have been awarded medals, diplomas and other distinctive recognitions from the Paris, Belgian, and late Indian and Colonial exhibitions, as well as from all the Dominion exhibitions, when they have exhibited. As manufacturers and dealers in furniture, the have placed upon the market some of the finest drawing room, parlo dining and library suites, as well as the finer grades of bedroom furth ture, in which line they make a specialty. It is well known that McGar vev has never resorted to any exaggerated advertising, employed and outside salesman, or canvassing agents. His numerons customers have always received the respectful attention to the requirements of all visit ing his establishment. Heinherits all the well known proverbial straight forward qualities of a North of Ireland business man studiously avo any publicity as a prominet citizen of Montreal, and declining m honors which he had been requested to accept. What he does as philair thropist is done quietly and unostenstatiously, and whilst attending strictly to his own business has not neglected to identify himself will any worty object or institution. He has been for many years a governor of the Montreal General Hospital a life-governor and vio president of the Notre Dame Hospital, a director and vice-president the Mutual Fire Insurance Company of Montreal, a director of Patricks Orphan Asylum, a member both of the Board of Trade and Art Association, and vice-president of St. Patrick's Temperance Society to 10.00 P. M. Prayer Praise meeting for many years, being well known as a staunch teetotallar and an early Saturday at 8 P. M. Young men's est advocate of the temperance cause during the last 40 years. addresses. Good singing. Young men firmly established reputation of this well known house is a sufficient gl always welcome. Dr. W. H. Clarke, antee that outside show is only the last thing aimed at, and that stability good value for money are to be found in the old established firm

Owen McGarvey & Son.

1851 and185? Notre Dame Street, corner of McCill street.

dian b

Shippers sa vour reputations old country man would be hundre would attend to

Now that t many articles of English dealers Canadian Butte

For some Dairy Salt-As course, than the in the end. T grades. but it w this spring.

Its surprising the a specialty of, buying

LO'CONNOR has re

to be found in this part that is is scarcely neces workmanship in the co quently will not keep of which cannot be beate the above will be sold article and prices and

I VIIIII AA VO

REPAIRING A

Lindsay, April 5

PRIN

PF