REDUCE THE LICENSE HOURS.

Editor of The Templar. DEAR SIR,—I notice by The Templar you propose a "reduction of license" campaign.

In favor of early closing as against present conditions it might be urged: 1. More easily enforced.

- 2. Largely removed temptation. 3. Give employes a needed rest. 4. Make hotels much better places for travellers to pass at night. 5. Prevent a great amount of excessive drinking. 6. Make our streets in the evening much safer and less objectionable. 7. All business should be closed not later than 7 p. m. 8. Husbands and sons would more generally pass their evenings at home. 9. Largely decrease the need of police protection. 10. Very few of our young men would visit the bar if closed at seven. 11. Hotels are established by law for the travelling public and no inconvenience to them would result by closing at seven. 12. Nearly all business done in the bars after seven is in violation of the spirit if not the letter of our present license law.

I shall not, at present, elaborate these various reasons nor add further to the list. What do you think of my position? Yours truly, J. P. ARCHIBALD, Ingersoll, Ont., Nov. 1, 1894.
