Worshipping there with me.

I am sure that the gentle pastor,
Whose words are like summer dew, Is cheered as he gazes over The dear little heads in the pew. Faces earnest and thoughtful,

Innocent, grave, and sweet, They look in the congregation Like lilies among the wheat. And I think that the tender Master, Whoes mercies are ever new,

Has a special benediction For dear little heads in the pew. When they hear "The Lord is my shep-

Or "Suffer the babes to come," They are glad that the loving Jesus Has given the lambs a home-A place of their own with His people : He cares for me and for you, But close in his arms He gathers The dear little heads in the pew.

So I love in the great assembly, On the sabbath morn, to she The dear little children clustered, And worshipping there with me; For I know that my precious Saviour,

Has a special benediction For the dear little heads in the pew. -Mrs. M. E. Sangster.
