

SAVAGE REDUCTIONS

Is the Policy that Dominates every Department in the Mammoth FORCED-TO-SELL Sale.

Now we add fuel to the fire and increase the roar of business. We have never enough to take the bull by the horns and sell the people brand-new Clothing, Cloths, Tweeds, Hats and Caps, Furnishings, etc.

PRICES CUT IN TWAIN.

It's a case of—The more you buy the more you make. Values have been let loose and cost of production has gone on a vacation and made a plaything of. Purse openers like these around your sense of economy make quick selling all over the store, and brings crowd after crowd of enthusiastic shoppers, and the promise of still busier days. Things must hum, for the goods are destined to depart, tagged with half-price tickets. We are in dead earnest—the hour has come—the time is ripe—rain or shine the bargains will be here. Although cart loads have been taken away to the homes of happy purchasers, the bargain counters and shelves appear as full as ever. Do you want a suit of Clothes for the price of making them? Don't think too long, or somebody else will be wearing it for you. Here are a few starters:

- $2.90 Will buy Young Men's and Youths' Suits, worth from $3.75 to $6.50, made up in Good Tweeds, Serges and Worsteds.
- $3.90 Buys Men's Suits, worth from $5.50 to $8.00, made up in good Tweeds, Serges and Worsteds.
- $1.80 Will buy Boy's Two-piece Suits, worth from $2.50 to $4.00, made up in Dressing Fabrics well lined and trimmed, not to rip.

GOUGH BROS. THE WONDERFUL CHEAP MEN.

LOCAL NEWS-LETTERS

VALENTIA.

GARDEN PARTY.—All the readers of the Watchman should not fail to attend the garden party to be held at Mr George Webster's on Friday evening. An attractive program has been arranged and a number of visitors from Belleville, Toronto, Orono and other points, who are now are now camping at Washburn's Island, have promised to be present and assist. A good time assured. Admission 15 cents.

JANETVILLE.

BRIEFS.—The quarterly meeting was well attended on Sunday. Rev. Mr. Coon preached a very eloquent sermon. Mr. J. Cherry is erecting a very fine residence. Dr. Naysmiths windmill is and improvement to the village Mrs Heaslip is slowly improving.

PERSONAL.—Miss Hanna is on an extended visit to Toronto. Mrs Echrold and Mrs Boss of Detroit are spending a few weeks with Mrs Dr Naysmith. Miss Vina McGill is spending a few weeks with her friend Miss Reynolds at Stoney Lake. Mr A. B. McGill is spending a few days with friends in Toronto.

NO OPS.

Special to the Watchman.

WHO IS HE.—Every body seems anxious to know who that nice young man is that spends his Sunday afternoons in the Hill Head district. He sports a yellow gear-top buggy and gray horse. I have heard it said that he came from Omeenee and follows the calling of an agricultural chemist.—That's what.

A CLOSE CALL.—While driving from Lindsay on Saturday, the Miss Sheas came near being upset near Low Park corners. A cow rushed out of the bushes and were it not for the presence of mind one of the young ladies displayed in jumping out and catching the horses by the head it might have resulted disastrously.

A COMING RACE.—Should that foot race come of between Mr. John Everson and another local sprinter we feel confident that John will be the favorite. Folks who have seen him step say he can hang on like an old maid at a kissing match and on several occasions he captured the greasy pig at the Dunsford picnic.

THE CREEK BRIDGE.—When commissioner Robertson possesses the contract of graveling done by T. Conner on the Creek bridge the work will then be complete and capable of standing the severest criticism. Although the work was done away below its value the completion was attained at the hands of competent men. A good cedar railing adorns the top while underneath two glance piers filled with stone having a span of 14 ft and a breast work 4 ft high of the latter material to prevent destruction from water surrouds the base. The cost will be about $200.

STRAYED AWAY.—Little Ella Reid, aged about 6 yrs, wandered away from Mr. Wm. Hicks place on Sunday last. As soon as she was missed a large party of neighbors commenced to scour the locality. She was found crying vigorously on the road opposite Mr. Alex. McArthur's residence. She was taken home amidst rejoicing and sobbed to receive a caution.

SALEM-MARIPOSA.

Special to the Watchman.

BASE BALL. The Salem B.B.C. took in the Tournament held at Hartley last Thursday, and succeeded in capturing first place. The prize is a handsome silver cup, which was given the Salem boys at the conclusion of the game. Our boys expected to see a number of teams in the field (among others the Lindsay team) but found on reaching Hartley there was only the home team

AMATEUR BULL FIGHTS.

Training Schools For the Youth of San-terilleros and Matadores of Mexico.

In Mexico it is the ambition of every youth to become a bullfighter. In their plays they mimic the bullfighters. They use their shawls as banderas, use sticks as pikes and a flat piece of wood as a sword. One boy acts as the bull, and each acts the part of the picadores, banderilleros and matadores. When they grow older, they participate in amateur bull fights. In the country towns these are common. Blooded bulls are used, but their horns are saved off, and the lads, rigged out in all the finery of a real matadore, enter the ring, tease the bull and carry out all the performance save the slaughter. The government forbids that. At these amateur fights often one or more of the lads are injured. If he recovers, he is a hero; if he dies—oh, well, he was brave!

But to describe one of those amateur fights. All the señoritas, with their staid chaperons, are present in the pabcos. Two or three are called "reinas de la fiesta" (queens of the feast). They are clad in gorgeous gowns of iridescent hues, with crowns of flowers encircling their dark hair, with a touch of rouge to brighten the color of their cheeks and a draft of cognac to add sparkle to their eyes. They add zest to the affair as they clap their hands and cry "Bravo! bravo!" as some young fighter accomplishes a dangerous feat.

When the bull is brought into the ring, the fun begins. Usually he chases every one over the fence and cavorts around in high anger. Soon the fighters, with their scarlet, green and yellow mantles, re-enter the ring and flout them in the face of the bull. He is teased thus until the juj of the feast blows the cornet. Then the picadores ride in, dressed in gay costumes, and the bull is teased into trying to unseat them and kill the horses. If the picadors are skillful, they keep off the animal. If not, there is a dead horse and often an injured rider. Then the banderilleros, or little spears, made in imitation of ollas,

AMATEUR BULL FIGHTS.

Training Schools For the Youth of San-terilleros and Matadores of Mexico.

In Mexico it is the ambition of every youth to become a bullfighter. In their plays they mimic the bullfighters. They use their shawls as banderas, use sticks as pikes and a flat piece of wood as a sword. One boy acts as the bull, and each acts the part of the picadores, banderilleros and matadores. When they grow older, they participate in amateur bull fights. In the country towns these are common. Blooded bulls are used, but their horns are saved off, and the lads, rigged out in all the finery of a real matadore, enter the ring, tease the bull and carry out all the performance save the slaughter. The government forbids that. At these amateur fights often one or more of the lads are injured. If he recovers, he is a hero; if he dies—oh, well, he was brave!

But to describe one of those amateur fights. All the señoritas, with their staid chaperons, are present in the pabcos. Two or three are called "reinas de la fiesta" (queens of the feast). They are clad in gorgeous gowns of iridescent hues, with crowns of flowers encircling their dark hair, with a touch of rouge to brighten the color of their cheeks and a draft of cognac to add sparkle to their eyes. They add zest to the affair as they clap their hands and cry "Bravo! bravo!" as some young fighter accomplishes a dangerous feat.

When the bull is brought into the ring, the fun begins. Usually he chases every one over the fence and cavorts around in high anger. Soon the fighters, with their scarlet, green and yellow mantles, re-enter the ring and flout them in the face of the bull. He is teased thus until the juj of the feast blows the cornet. Then the picadores ride in, dressed in gay costumes, and the bull is teased into trying to unseat them and kill the horses. If the picadors are skillful, they keep off the animal. If not, there is a dead horse and often an injured rider. Then the banderilleros, or little spears, made in imitation of ollas, sombreros and other fantastic designs of varied colored paper or silk, are handed to the young man, who attempts to plunge them into the shoulders of the bull. If he succeeds, he is wildly cheered. This ends the first fight. The vaqueros come in and chase him out of the ring. The young fighters are then called before the queens and decorated with ribbon sashes, which are placed over their right shoulders, and they strut about the ring until the cornet calls forth another bull and the crowd joins in yelling "Otro toro, otro toro!" (another bull.)

HE RIDES THE INFURIATED ANIMAL.

The last bull, after going through the performance, is thrown down, a rope placed around him and a peon for "dos reales" (25 cents) rides the infuriated animal about the ring. Then comes the wind up. A half tame bull, with padded horns, is turned loose in the ring, and every muchacho in the enclosure piles into the ring and waves his serape at the bull, which chases them over the fence and about the ring madly. The boys are now in their glory. They are teasing a real bull and may be hurt. Often one is trampled on or badly bruised by the bull. The rest simply howl with delight. By this time the audience has departed. Every one has had a chance to fight the bull. A ball at night ends the festivities. Such are the opportunities offered the lads of Mexico toward their cherished ambition to become fighters of blooded bulls.

A Vegetable Garden in a Graveyard.

A vegetable garden in a graveyard is one of the curiosities in Augusta, Ga. The graveyard is a small one and numerous slabs tell the passerby that the ancient dead repose there. Cucumbers, tomatoes and red pepper are found in abundance there, and several impetuous persons are responsible for thus making this unique corner in the vegetable market.

Thieves In Sewers.

A band of thieves frequent the underground sewers in Naples and bore their way into shops in order to rob tills and carry off goods.

Victoria's Solitary Death Warrant.

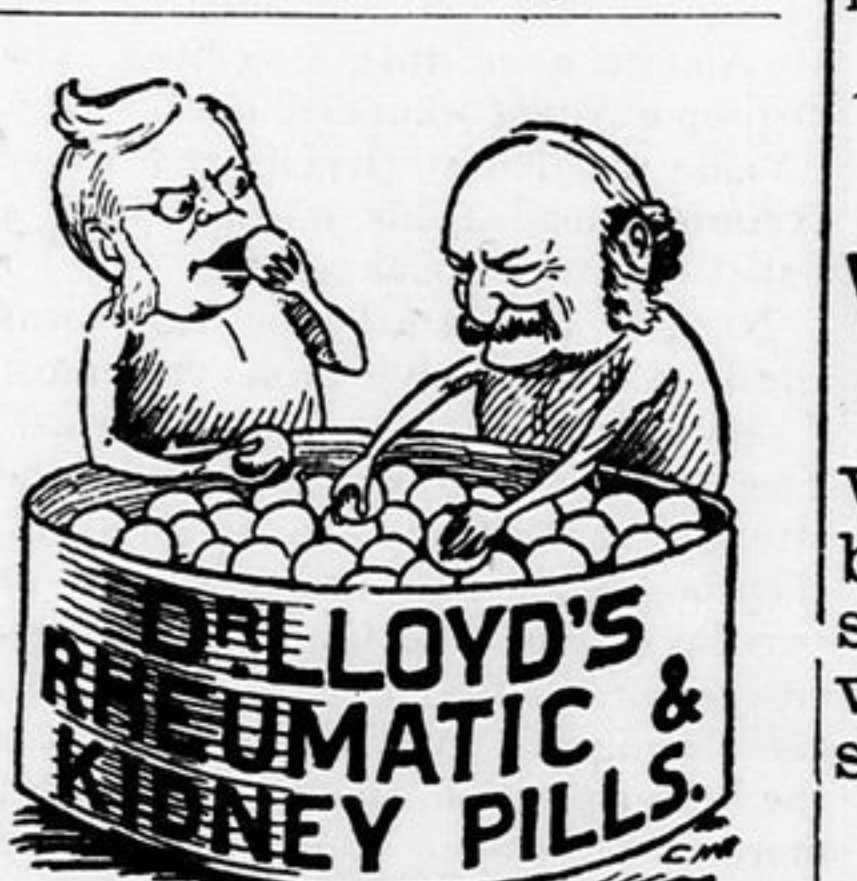

Queen Victoria has signed but one death warrant, and that was for an execution in the Isle of Man.

LINDSAY MARKETS

Fall Wheat per bushel	0 75 to 0 75
New Fall Wheat per bush.	0 70 to 0 70
Fyfe Wheat do do	0 75 to 0 75
New Fyfe Wheat per bush.	0 70 to 0 70
Spring do do	0 75 to 0 75
New Spring Wheat do	0 70 to 0 70
Goose do do	0 70 to 0 75
Buckwheat do do	0 33 to 0 35
Barley, per bushel	0 40 to 0 40
Rye do do	0 00 to 0 40
Potatoes per bushel	0 25 to 0 30
Butter per lb.	0 14 to 0 18
Eggs, per dozen	0 10 to 0 12
Oats do do	0 31 to 0 31
Peas, small do do	0 55 to 0 06
Peas, Mummies do do	0 55 to 0 06
Peas Blue do do	0 50 to 0 05
Chickens, per pair	0 50 to 0 50
Ducks, per pair	0 45 to 0 50
Hay, per ton	8 00 to 9 00
Onions, per bunch	0 00 to 0 05
Radishes do do	0 00 to 0 05
Lettuce do do	0 00 to 0 05
Farmer's Hams do do	0 08 to 0 09
Rhubarb do do	0 00 to 0 05
Gooseberries, per quart	0 08 to 0 10
Honey per lb.	0 06 to 0 06
Green peas, shelled per qt	0 10 to 0 10
Cream per qt.	0 20 to 0 20
Hogs, live weight, per cwt	4 50 to 4 50
Turkeys per lb.	0 09 to 0 10
Raspberries per pail	0 75 to 0 95
Currants, per qt.	0 00 to 0 12

MARRIED.

NEEDLER-MARTIN.—On Monday, August 5th, 1895, at the residence of the bride's cousin, 260 Carlton-st., Toronto, Ont, by the Rev. George I. Taylor, M. A. rector of St. Bartholomew's church, William Needler, Esq., to Mary L. Martin, both of Lindsay.

A POSITIVE CURE FOR RHEUMATISM

AND ALL Kidney Complaints, Pain in Back, Brick Dust Deposit, Rheumatic Pains, Etc., Etc.

From the Peterboro Daily Review:—"Dr. Lloyd's Rheumatic and Kidney Pills are credited with some remarkable cures of kidney disease and rheumatic troubles in this district. From all accounts the medicine is of genuine merit, and only requires a trial to prove it."

Buying the Best Always Means Economy, and Economy Itself is a Large Income.

We manufacture only the best class of goods, which we can sell for less money than wholesale men. Just now we are making tweed for the working man, filling and warp both doubled and twisted, has a very handsome appearance and will wear like leather, 30c. to 35c. per yard. Another special line is a fine lambs-wool fancy shirting, which our customers claim has given constant service for three years, 25c. to 30c. per yard. White Canada wool blanket (union) size 176x54, price $2.00 per pair, this is not below cost, but is less than manufacturers prices to wholesale houses. In Hosiery and Knitted Underwear, we'll save you 10 per cent. straight.

HOME MADE YARN A SPECIALTY. HORN BROS. LINDSAY WOOLLEN MILLS.

W. H. POGUE THE LEADING LOW PRICE STORE. "Hello, where have you been for so long?" "Out west." "See any cyclones?" "Only one." "What did you think of it?" "I was fairly carried away with it!"—Pittsburg Chronicle.

JUST PUBLISHED.

ROYAL FOLIO OF MUSIC NO. 3. PRICE 75 CENTS. THE GOSPEL CHOIR NO. 2. PRICE 50 CENTS.

GEO. A. LITTLE

Book and Stationery Store, opposite Post Office, Kent-st. Lindsay.

OF COURSE YOU SCOLD

When you suffer from bad fitting and poor shoes. You run no risk when you purchase our stamped shoes.

Our customers will get some BIG BARGAINS During the next few weeks. Some lines must go before stocktaking.

DON'T FORGET IT.

JOHNSTON & SISON, One Door East of Daly House.

Read over this list and compare with Peddling prices. There are some men in business that seem to think the Farmers are silly fish; they say "bait the hook with 3 or 4c per dozen extra on eggs and they will bite at once, you can scale him easy once he is hooked." Call at the old reliable place. Prices always even with the market.

W. H. POGUE, LITTLE BRITAIN.

MUST BE SOLD AT ONCE. In order to effect an immediate sale of her large and carefully selected stock of LADIES' GOODS MISS FOSTER, KENT-ST., LINDSAY, is offering same at very greatly reduced prices. Ladies should call and inspect these goods and learn prices. The stock comprises. Corsets, Gloves, Hosiery and Ladies' White Wear of all kinds. Childrens' Pinafores, etc.

JERSEY CREAM BAKING POWDER, —FRESH AT— A. HIGINBOTHAM, Volume VIII. Number 33.

New

Are Now ARRIVING at WARNE

We call special attention to our v

GREY FL

in which our stock is now full and claim special values at 13, 15, 18 and light and dark colors. These goods sharp advance and are worth

We Have Just Op

- 1 We have just opened a big ba offer at 20, 25 and 30 cents per the best values ever shown in
- 2 We have just opened some Goods, medium price. A ha range of novelties in Wrappere
- 3 We have just opened a bargain 25 cents per yard, just the thi and untearable.
- 4 We have just opened a fu Tweed in all the new color prices.

COTTON BAGS

makes at prices much lower than we We are making preparations for prices, qualities and values will tel, tion for having the best bargains in t

WARNE LINDSAY AND V

IT . . .

COSTS .

NOTHING —TO SEE

HOUSE

BLIND

MIDSUMME

SALE . .

PRICES . .

E. E. W. M