The Watchman.

THURSDAY, AUG. 29th, 1895.

Perhaps This Concerns You. Fifty Cents is not much money, but a lot of fifty cent pieces scattered here and there over the country would make a good sum if all were gathered together. The WATCHMAN has a lot of dollars widely distributed in the pockets of subscribers who have neglected to remit. For each of these to send Buffalo. in his money NOW could not be very inconvenient-not nearly so inconvenient as it is for the WATCHMAN to worry -Miss Theresa Cash, who has been visitdollars which is due it in small sums. Perhaps this concerns you, perhaps you have neglected to pay your abscription. The small sum you owe is not much to you but if sent in to us it wil. help to swell the aggregate of the dollar: that we need to pay paper bills, wage bills, and the other expenses incidenta, to the publication of what we trust a welcome weekly visitor to your home.

The Cleanliness of Towns.

If we would keep pestilence from our doors, we must keep our premises clean. And this does not mean merely the scrubbing of steps, polishing of win- teis week. dows and dusting of rooms. It means that we must get rid of festering rui. bish. Everybody ought to know, but a great many do not know, that it is dangerous to empty kitchen slops in the door yard of a house. -The district meeting for the Lindsay district, of the Methodist church met in Fenelon Falls church on Tuesday last. All the ministerial members of the district were present but Revs. W. Hodgin and J. Garbutt, the latter having been recently married was accordingly excused. Rev. S. J. Shorey occupied the chair and Rev. J. W. Totten acted as secretary, assisted by Rev. C. H Coon. The missions passed in careful review, and such steps taken as the brethren may in their power to economize both the men and the women used in each case. Considerable dirsatisfaction was felt with some mission fields that have been receiving help for some time, and yet the return does not appear to be up to what would be desired. Arrangements were made for the holding of missionary anniversaries, and educational meetings. The next meeting of a similar kind is to be held in Fenelon Falls. The chairman expressed the thanksof the meeting for the kind hospitality of the good people of the Falls, and requested the pastor of their church Rev. T. P. Steel, to convey to the people the gratitude of the meeting. The meeting closed about 4 p. m.
