More deaths from lightning and more destruction of buildings from the same cause have been reported in Canada during the past three months than for the four preceding years combined.

Peterboro Review: The congregation of St. Paul's church listened to two able and thoughtful sermons yesterday by Rev. J. W. Macmillan, pastor of the St. Andrew's church, Lindsay. Mr. Macmillan is a young man but he has already risen to a foremost position in the church.

J. W. McKay, the millionaire, whose enormous fortune was due to a coal boom of other days, says that if a man has a hundred dollars, a good constitution, plenty of determination, and no wife and children, he can safely retire to the Klondyke, or anywhere else in the world.

C. L. King, G.T.R. station agent at Mount Forest, Ont., lost two of his children, aged three and five years, on Monday last, through eating canned salmon. His three remaining children are suffering from the same cause.

On Monday, Aug. 30th, the Citizens' band will run an excursion from Lindsay to Coboscook per steamer Crandella to Rosedale and steamer Dundas to the barge to the university town on Gull river. This is a new and pretty excursion route. The fare from Lindsay is only 40c for adults and 20c for children.

Mr. Bruce McBurney, our local electrician, has completed the re-wiring of the steamer Estorion and the new system was given a test Monday evening, working perfectly. The power of the steamer's searchlight has been considerably increased, and its usefulness and value enhanced. Bruce evidently understands his profession.

On Wednesday week, at the mouth of the Muskoka river, Mr. Carran Morrison, one of a party of American tourists, caught a 35 pound maskinonge. The fish measured 4 ft. 2 inches in length, and its caper could without discomfort place his forearm within the mouth of the fish. Morrison has kept the fish's head as proof positive that his tale is not a fisherman's yarn.

The excursion to Lindsay and around the lakes to Lakeside on Tuesday under the auspices of the First Presbyterian church, Port Hope, was attended by about 235. At this point quite a number of our citizens joined the party. The Crandella made a fast run and all on board were delighted with the trip and charmed with the magnificent scenery en route. Capt. Frank Morrison was voted a jolly good fellow, and the right man in the right place.

Tuesday next, August 24, is Lindsay's civic holiday, and on that day, the Valley lodge C.O.O.F. will excure to Stoney lake per steamer Crandella. This will be a magnificent trip, and will no doubt be taken advantage of by hundreds of our citizens. The scenery is simply superb, and the fare is only 35c. The steamer will be liberally supplied with camp chairs, so that all may enjoy the trip with ease and comfort. Boat leaves the wharf at 8 a.m. sharp.

A Toronto gentleman has received a letter, dated Aug. 10th, from Deloraine, Manitoba, in which the following remarks are made upon the subject of Lindsay: "What cutting has commenced, and by the end of the week it will be general. The weather only continues favorable and free from frost for the next ten days, most of the oats and wheat will be cut. The average for wheat is estimated at from 15 to 18 bushels to the acre. The berry has filled well and the sample is said to be good. The oat crop is light, also the hay crop."

Partial sets of jubilee stamps from half a cent to 50c and from half a cent to 51c are now on sale in all the postoffices in the Dominion and by the various vendors of stamps. These sets consist of two kinds, one from 1-2 cent to $1 (value $2.20) and the other from 1-2 cent to 50 cents (value $1.20). Postmasters have been authorized to sell these stamps as sets, and sets only. Representations have been made to the postoffice department at Ottawa that in various parts of the Dominion there is a desire to obtain such for souvenir purposes.

Mr. Thos. Beall writes as follows: "The rain-fall of Tuesday—3.48 inches—was the greatest ever recorded here in one day. It rained for three inches for one hour. The greatest quantity of rain on any one day during the past eighteen years, before Tuesday last, was on June 10th, 1891, when there fell 2.75 inches. It was an enormous quantity of the rain which fell on Tuesday last may be better understood by many persons upon learning that the weight of the water which fell within one hour at this place was about 312 tons to the acre."

In our obituary notice of the late Mr. M. Markham in the last issue of THE WATCHMAN we omitted to mention the following particulars: Mr. Markham was born in 1836 in the parish of Kelkeeder, county Clare, Ireland, and came to Canada in 1855. In 1880, at Oshawa, he was married to Margaret Cain, the ceremony being performed by Father Laurent, now of this parish, who also officiated at the funeral high mass for the deceased. He came to Lindsay in 1886 and has been in business ever since. The deceased leaves one sister, Mrs. Rubay of Utica, N. Y., and one brother, now residing in Toronto. He leaves six children, Mrs. Spofford of this town, Mrs. Flood of Courtright and two daughters and two sons living at home. His brother and sister and her son were in attendance at the funeral and also his sister-in-law, Mrs. Smart and her daughter of Sherbourne-st., Toronto.

The band stand on the market square will be completed in a few days. The building—which is in the form of a half circle and faces to the south—is very neat and attractive, and reflects much credit on Alderman W. M. Robson, its promoter and designer. The lower space will be used as a refreshment booth, for which purpose it is admirably adapted, and if properly handled will pay for the stand in a very few years. The space allotted to the band is ample and well arranged, and Mr. P. G. Plitkie has had charge of the construction and has made a capital job of it. On Friday evening, 27th inst., there will be a grand inaugural opening, when the band will render a splendidly prepared program. They will be assisted by local talent, and a most enjoyable evening can be looked for. The band stand will be illuminated and decorated, and the square also illuminated and seated. As the cost of the stand will exceed the appropriation ($100) by probably $40, a collection will be taken up to help meet the extra cost, and we are confident our citizens will respond liberally. In the erection of the stand a long-felt want has been supplied, and one the public will appreciate.

The Port Perry Sons of Temperance will excure to Fenelon Falls per steamer Crandella on Friday, Aug. 20th.

The Lindsay Bicycle Club will hold a meet on Friday, Tuesday, 24th inst., at the Agricultural Park. One of the best programs of sport ever seen in Lindsay has been arranged, consisting of bicycle races, bicycle vs. trotting horse, cigar race, relay bicycle vs. trotting horse, and exhibition race, etc. Band in attendance. Sports commence at two o'clock. Admission 10 cents, money to be returned.

Tuesday afternoon a farm laborer named Albert Roe, who works for Robt. Shaw, near Millbrook, met with a terrible death by falling into the mouth of a steam boiler. He was drinking, and had jumped on the board for that purpose. He was cautioned to be careful, but being a quarrelsome fellow, for peace sake he refused to get down. While reaching out for a sheaf of hay, he fell into the boiler. His head was literally ground off, and had not the engineer turned off the steam, the whole body would have been crushed.

The annual harvesters excursion to Manitoba and the Northwest left yesterday morning. The scene at the Lindsay station for a half hour previous to the departure of the train was a very busy one, 500 people being on the platform. One hundred tickets were sold here, about half of them being purchased by residents of Lindsay. The train was composed of four points north and thirteen from Omemee. Three extra coaches were attached to the regular 9.15 train, pulled by two engines. There were many local friends among the excursionists, who will visit friends in the Northwest.

The season for testing the merits and demerits of harvesting machinery is now in the grain is ripe and ready for the reaper. Consequently more or less rivalry exists among the agents and manufacturers at this season of the year. The Lindsay Agricultural Society has received an invitation to be present at a trial on the farm of Mr. Wm. Corneil, near Deering and Massey-Harris. The WATCHMAN young man was present, and found only one binder—the Deering—on the ground. Several farmers were also there, and on seeing what the Deering machine could do, Mr. James Corneil readily consented and took the Deering into one of the worst looking fields of grain we ever saw. The heavy dew and storms had worked devastation in it. The grain was not only flattened down but was badly twisted and in many cases lay in pools of water. The Deering was set to work in the field, and in the very worst part of the field, and in the circuit around it picked up the grain and went right ahead cutting and stacking. The farmers present were agreeably surprised at the Deering's manner in which the Deering did its work under such adverse circumstances. Flattering testimonials were prepared and readily signed by Messrs. Wm. Curtis, James Hogan, C. H. Corneil, Wm. Corneil, W. A. Corneil, Fred Arksley, John Nolan and Samuel Hawthorne. Deering got a great boost that day.

About 9.15 yesterday morning a most distressing accident took place in the east ward, by which Mr. Egerton Henderson, a well known and respected citizen, aged 56 years, lost his life. In company with Mr. Joseph Morrison he was engaged in shingling the grain warehouse of Messrs. Hurley & Brady, and a scaffolding had been erected on the south side of the building for that purpose. When all was ready Mr. Arch. Menzies, who was to assist in the work, declined to work, and the scaffold was deemed it unsafe, and as events proved his suspicions were only too well founded. The two men mentioned above had only been on the scaffold a few minutes when the structure gave way, precipitating them to the ground below, a distance of about 20 feet. Morrison alighted on his feet and escaped unhurt, but not so with Henderson, whose body fell with great force across the iron rail of the track, which runs alongside the shed. When picked up he was unconscious and blood was flowing from his mouth, nose and ears. A further examination showed that the back of his head was fractured and his left temple crushed in. The unfortunate man was carried across the road to Mr. G. W. Mills store, and a few minutes later removed to his home. Doctors were promptly summoned, but the sufferer was beyond human aid, and breathed his last an hour after the accident. Deceased was twice married, and leaves a wife and family of nine children, who have the heaviest sympathy of the whole community in their sudden affliction.

Obituary.

Many friends in Fenelon and throughout the district were shocked to learn of the death of Mrs. James Moore, wife of Thompson R. James, in her thirty-fifth year, after a painful illness of six weeks. The deceased was a daughter of Mr. James Moore of Ops, and was married in June 1888. She was a consistent member of the Methodist church, but home duties prevented her taking an active part in church work. Her disposition was genial, and she was beloved by all who knew her. The funeral to Riverside cemetery was very largely attended, the burial services being conducted by Rev. J. A. McKee of Cambridge. The bereaved husband and four young children have the deep sympathy of the entire community in their affliction.

Fatal Accident at Fenelon Falls.

On Tuesday last, at 2.30 p.m., a boy discovered Fred Metcalf, a young man working in the new saw mill, lying under a log where he had been working. The alarm was given and the mill stopped and medical aid summoned, but it was found that death had been instantaneous. One had seen the accident, but it was supposed that in jacking the log forward the saw his cant hook had slipped just as the log commenced to roll, and he had fallen over it and as there was a drop of about a foot the log fell on him crushing out his life. No one had seen the accident, but the stretcher was made and he was carried to his home. He was a quiet, respectable young man, who resided with his aged grandmother who had raised him from a mere lad owing to the death of his parents, and his death is a sad blow to the aged lady, who has the warm sympathy of the entire community.

Sturgeon Point Notes.

A wanton waste of wind and a general scattering of storms has characterized the week. Canoeists have enjoyed good sailing, but fishermen do not recite adventures of big catches.

There have been several ruffles in the social swim of lively interest. Thursday afternoon a picnic party was given by Mrs. Harstone of Sandy Point, when a fleet of small boats conveyed the pleasure seekers half a dozen miles down the lake, and a march over country was made to "Red Rock." A very pleasant day was spent.

Monday evening Mrs. Burrows entertained at progressive pedro the majority of the young people of the place. An interesting season of well contested play Miss Ethel Neelands and Mr. Walter Sadler secured the coveted trophy awarded for first place. Mr. Geo. Dean and Mr. Tait secured—well, the only other prizes awarded. The score cards and lesser prizes were broken into of neat design.

Misses Genevieve and Grace Kempf of Peterboro are the guests of Miss Ethel Neelands.

Misses McLennan and Mills are visiting Miss McLennan.
