e and Yard on the East side Telephone in both Omces.

The Matchman,

Fresh Mined Coal all kinds of Wholesale and Retail, and Day SonT

COAL and WOOD

VOLUME I, NUMBER 39,

LINDSAY, THURSDAY, OCTOBER 18, 1888.

AND COUNTY OF VICTORIA RECORDER.

50 Cents a Year in Advance

Printing Office, BAKER'S BLOCK, LINDSAY.

The WATCHMAN is published every Thursday morning, at 50 cents per Annum in A lvance.

ALL KINDS OF

Plain And Fancy Job Printing,

Neatly Executed and at the LOWEST CITY PRICES.

J. COOPER,

Editor and Propritor.

THE ABOVE CUT REPRESENTS

1 SIX FRONT TEETH WITHOUT

If you want a beautiful SET of TEETH

Numbers of persons are wearing Teeth

J. NEELANDS, Dentist...

GAS and VITALIZED AIR

Administered constantly for nearly twen-

OFFICE-Kent Street, Next Door to

___TO GET___

Room Papers, Picture Frames,

Self-Rolling Window Shades and Picture

Hanging Mouldings is at near the market.

W. H. Cross,

DENTIST LINDSAY,

Twenty-Eight Years' Experience.

MR. GROSS is constantly adding Improvements and New Appliances with a painless as possible. If you want your teeth taken out ABSOLUTELY WITH-

OUT PAIN, and a set of Artificial Teeth

ALL KINDS OF

Willow Work

MADE TO ORDER, AND

CANE CHAIRS RESEATED,

THE

New Paper.

in Toronto, called

The Empire

STAFF OF BRILLIANT WRITERS.

The public may expect

Reliable Commercial News,

Readable, and Reliable Paper.

EMPIRE,

Everybody Looks for it.

Able Editorials,

Interesting Sporting Intelligence,

Send in your Subscriptions now, accom-

Accurate Reports.

All should Read It.

$1 per Annum.

EMPIRE

D. CREIGHTON,

WEEKLY

Manager EMPIRE, Toronto

W. H. GROSS.

J. H. L. DENNIS.

that will never wear out, go to

At Dennis' Pump Works.

ty-one years, extracting teeth for thouor injury.

the Golden Lion.

Professional Cards.

ete,

HN McSWEYN BARRISTER, OLICITOR, etc. Office in Hamilton's Block

D. MOORE. BARRISTER, AT-TORNEY, Solicitor and Notary Public A PLATE. NEY TO LOAN. Office, Kent-St., Lindsay. [ARTIN & HOPKINS, BARRIS | that will last you a lifetime, go to NEE-TERS, Etc. MONEY TO LOAN at low- LANDS. Current rates. Office, Thirkell's Block, Kent-St.

G. H. HOPKINS. LIUDSPETH & JACKSON, BAR-RISTERS, Solicitors, etc. Office William-St DAM HUDSPETH, Q. C. ALEX. JACKSON. Fifteen and 20 years and never required LI B. Dean, BARRISTER, SOLI-CITOR, Proctor, Notory Public, Conveyancer, blices in Bigelow's Block, Corner York & Kent ets. Entrance on Vork Street, Lindsay, Ont.

CINTYRE & STEWART, BAR-RISTERS, Solleis Notaries, etc., etc., sands of persons without a particle of pain r Ontario Ba k, Kent-St., Lindsay. NTYRE. T. STEWART. P. DEVLIN, BARRISTER, SO-LICITOR, etc., County Crown Attorney, of Peace, Lindsay, Ont. Office over Howe's DEARY & O'LEARY, BARRIS- THE RIGHT PLACE TERS Attoneys at Law, Solicitors in Chancery, Ac. Office, Dohney Block, Kent street. THUR O'LEARY. HUGH O'LEARY. BARRON, CAMPBELL &

McLAUCHLIN, MONEY TO LOAN at lowest JOHN CAMPBELL.

R. J. McLAUGHLIN. Physicians.

DEGRASSI, PHYSICIAN, SURGEON, ETC., ETC., Wellington-St.

W. & S. Kg. Office and residence Cambridge NEW GOODS! NEW PRICES. L. HERRIMAN, M. D. M. C. P.

t, Lindsay, opposite Baptist Church, DR. BURROWS, PHYSICIAN, Lindsay, Jan. 16, 1887. SURGEON. Etc. Office and residence opposte Carr's Hotel, William-St., P. PALMER BUR-ROWS, M. D. C. M., Graduate McGill College, 1366 DR. C. L. COULTER, PHYSI-CIAN and SURGEON. Medical Health Of-Office and residence Russell street, one door sest of York st. Office hours 9.30 a. m. to 10.30 a. m.,

30 p. m. to 3.00 p. m. C. L. COULTER, M. D.

Business Cards. MONEY TO LOAN.

COMPANIES' & PRIVATE FUNDS TO LOAN AT LOWEST RATES. rivilege to borrower to pay off any sum on account ad without expense. Interest yearly. All payments ade in my office

H. B. DEAN, Barrister, Solicitor, &c., Corner of York & Kent Streets, Lindsay.

MONEY TO LOAN. AT LOWEST CURRENT RATES,

INTEREST PAYABLE YEARLY. Terms to suit borrower. McINTYRE & STEWART, Barristers and etc., Lindsay.

THE Century Magazine on of almost 250,000. The war Papers and the Life Lincom increased its monthly edition by 100,000.

in's early years, and giving the nece sary survey of Lincoln in the War. heir narrative, vis.: The early years of the War and Kennan on Siberia. Except the Life of Lincoln and the war Articles no more important series has ever been undertaken by THE preparation of four' travel and study in Russia and Sibena the author undertook a journey of 15 000 miles And able Journalists in every department. the author undergood a journey of 13 do and of the interior addiction from the Russian Minister of the Russian Minister of iles, -Libera, Nihilists, and others, and the series will be a startling as well as accurate revelation of the photographer, Mr. George A. Frost, who accom-ted the author, will add greatly to the value of the

A novel by Eggleston with illustrations will ren through the year. Shorter And all other Departments well sust ovels will follow by Cable and Stockton. Shorter fic- In short, THE EMPIRE will be a Bright, ces will appear every month. Miscellaneous Features.

Will comprise several ustrated articles on Ireland, by Charles De Key; papers touching the field of Sunday School Lessons, illustrated by E. L. Wilson; wild Western life by Theodore Roosevelt; the English Cathedrals, by Mrs. Van Renselaer, with illustrations by Pennell; Dr. Buckley's unleash, account on Dreams. Pennell: Dr. Buckley's valuable papers on Dreams, Spiritualism, and Chairvoyance: essays in criticism, art arvel and biography, poems, cartoons, otc.

By a special offer the numbers for the past year containing the Lincoln history) may be secured with the years subscription from N

1807 twenty our issues in all, $6.00 or with the last year s numbers handsomely bo und for $7.50..

Published by The Century Co New York.

EMPIRE,

So per Annum.

So per Annum.

Send in your Subscriptions now, panied by the cash.

Address,

D. CREIGHTOL

Manager Empire, To

Groceries,

Crockery,

Glassware,

With this issue of the WATCHMAN we extend to its The compliments is sure to please her, readers many thanks for the cordial support given us since com- And we can call the darling 'Lou.' mencing business, and invite all our old customers to give us a Most prudent counsel, all too late? continuance of the same. Hoping many readers who have not Twixt Malachi's and Matthew's pages yet given us any trade will now do so at the commencement of the New Year. Give us a trial.

We keep the nicest goods, and have the Handsomest

China Tea Sets,

Dinner Sets, and Chamber Sets,

Ever offered in Lindsay. Excellent value in TEAS and SU-GRS, SYRUPS, RAISINS, CURRANTS, &c.

GRAHAM & LEE.

WHITE PINE

BALSAM THE GREAT REMEDY FOR COUGHS, COLDS,

Hourseness, Bronchitis, Asthuia, Whooping Cough etc., in fact all diseases of the but for my own story I should not for me so much?

Mrs Geo. Laing, Reaboro, writes,-White Pine Balsam is the best cough and Mrs. T. H. Hern, Lindsay, says: I never feel alarmed in cases of coughs and Lisa Contagoning and thuc gave method by the boiled as well as brass ones. Time boiled as well as brass ones, Time brought me into close relations with of dying, Elsa; you are altogether too wasted. A perfectly clean lamp that cold renedy I ever used, it is easy to take and very effective. colds, when I can reach for White Pine Balsam.

25 CENTS, AT A. HIGINBOTHAM'S DRUG STORE

Are unequalled as a nerve tonic and regulator; guaranteed to produce an immediate in crease in weight, and, a ruddy healthy complexion, filling the veins with pure rich blood and restoring weak, nervous, pale-faced people to health and strength.—Price, thrown a great deal together for wo not strength and in the steady gaze, his eyes so like his mother's, said. "But we shall soon die. Mamma and I snall die together."

I was spaaed the pain of taying to the wicks should be turned a little below the nim of the lamp chimneys to die. Mamma and I snall die together."

I was spaaed the pain of taying to below the nim of the lamp chimneys to die. Mamma and I snall die together. I was spaaed the pain of taying to below the nim of the lamp chimneys to die. Mamma and I snall die together."

I was spaaed the pain of taying to below the nim of the lamp chimneys to die. Mamma and I snall die together."

I was spaaed the pain of taying to below the nim of the lamp chimneys to die. Mamma and I snall die together.

I was spaaed the pain of taying to below the nim of the lamp chimneys to die. Mamma and I snall die together.

I was spaaed the pain of taying to below the nim of the lamp chimneys to die. Mamma and I snall die together. Wm. A. Goodwin's, Dr. Dingman's Female Pills.

A. HIGINBOTHAM, Sole Agent, Lindsay.

GREAT SALE OF view of making every operation as near

Beds, with a large assortment of Sideboards, Bureaus, &c., to be

These goods are our own sleep, I think," whispered little Carl. can't imagine." Mrs. General Bruce "It makes her so ill. to go to sleep here stopped for breath and looked manufacture, and made the best kiln dried lumber, I looked towards the child's mother. hotel." THE new Conservative Journal started ollowing the "buttle series" by distinguished generals, will discribe interesting features of army life, tunneling are being spared to make the paper worthy from Libby Prison, narrative of personal adventure, etc. of Canada, and of the great party of whose of the War."

Has made its appearance. And no pains are being spared to make the paper worthy of Canada, and of the great party of whose of the War." views it will be the exponent. It has started with a started with a

ANDERSON, NUCENT & CO.

POWDER.

Manvers, Joseph Staples, Manvers, "Carl" I said in alarm, "are you quite gratitude. They were asked then to Geo. Skuce, Ops, Wm. Hancock, Maripsosa, Geo. Werry, Fenelon, Albert Ware, that she wakes all right?" lective eyes. It was too much. This Fenelon, Eugene Fee, Liudsay.

Try them. Don't take any other. 25 cts.--Five for $1.00, at

A. HICINBOTHAM'S Drug Store now!"

Boetrn. "Her Name." right to question him, much as the went. Then father took the Bible down then I stooped and kissed her.

not yet be here."

read something.

ist die kuhle Nacht."

And in his clear old-fashioned hand Upon its record pages brown He wrote the name as it should stand. But protest came from all the rest At giving such a little fairy.

The dearest, sweetest, and the best, That antiquated name to carry. And aunts and second cousins cry "A name so worn and ordinary

Could not be found if one should try As that same appellation 'Mary.' Her yellow curls, her baby grace; "On, call her 'Ethelind,' or 'Maud,' Or 'Christine,' for her angel face."

"But time will change this golden fleece To match the eyes in duskysplendour, 'ar better name her 'Beatrice,' Or 'Imogen,' serene and tender."

'Oh, name the child for Aunt Louisa, For she, good soul, is well-to-do.

Appears unchangeable as fate, The name beloved of all the ages.

grown anxious, but had avoided saying anything about it for fear of alarming The ancient gem, its purity Unspoiled shall grace our latest beauty; "But they will all return safely," Sometime on dearer lips to be she added, as if reading my thoughts.

The synonym of love and duty. I was completely mystified, but fore-And gracious womanhood adorn, bore to question her. However fortune's gifts may vary, I took out from my pocket a little Till on a day like Easter Morn She hears the Master call her "Mary."

-Jennie Colton in the Current Literature.

A MYSTERY INDEED.

life. There is nothing remarkable in to speak it. "If I were going to die that. What heart can be found with- I should like you to be near me as ut its bitterness? But wherein my now.

darkness of my own despair, which ear, and I said, "You must not speak boiled as well as brass ones. Time

She was staying with her husband and lit was a glance of contradiction—of—
She was staying with her husband and lit was a glance of contradiction—of—
I cannot say what besides. But little little son at the same hotel as myself, l cannot say what besides. But little an unsteady, lurid, sight-destroying flame? The paper roses, guelder roses hemlock, strychnine, veratrine, etc. A genadmiration of our exploits. We were I was spaced the pain of taying to below the rim of the burner to pre legal mich, no in the university, Professor only made the same party in several ex- anxiously watched-for party. Mr. peditions, but, when we were confined Coningham was the first to enter the ham would read aloud to us altogether, paleness even through the glow that or, with his boy between his knees, tell mountaineering always produces, He one story after another of lively ad- went at once to his wife, who met him At these times Elsa (as I learned to Carl in his arms in silence. He was to call her) would appear fully at peace usually chatty, and even humerous, so if not absolutely happy; but coming that this silence struck me as very odd. upon her alone I always noticed a look "We are thankful you have returnof troubled anxiety on her face. She ed" I said "We have been so anx-was a pretty woman-about thirty, I jous. think, but I never was told her age- "And with reason, I'll promise you," and she had the most sensitive face in broke in Mrs. General Bruce, who had the world. She was French, though entered close on Mr. Coningham's heels her husband was English, and she spoke accompanied by my niece and others. the prettiest broken English imaginable. "We had such an escape; nothing Her husband adored her; her child was shall ever tempt me on a mountain ly a favorite of Fortune.

er, and then she would gaze out at the mountain peaks with unutterable sadfor by changing our course to make porriage, which is called "polenta," and which is the which is called "polenta," and which is called "polenta," and which is called "polenta," and which is the which is called "polenta," and which is the which is called "polenta," and which is the which is called "polenta," and w me. "Mamma is afraid of going to safe, though how he could knew it I it now?" - Youth's World.

I smiled for answer to this odd very pale.

so. Papa holds her hand till she wakes she will own all about it. In the mean-

"I told you so," said little Carl in all be now but for her!" triumph. "You sit and hold mamma's Every one has a double so it is said," be apparent. hand, and when she wakes say 'Elsa' Mr. Coningham remarked in a hollow Family portraits have resumed their academic, and has but small reference to such noted horsemen as John Cairns, little delicate hand is mine. How cold little piqued, despite their reason for little piqu sure your mother is often like this, and disbelieve their own eyes-their col "I have told thee so," replied the was what was plainly visible on every child with quiet dignity. (He some- face as they withdrew. As Mrs. Gen-times spoke like his mother.) "And eral Bruce was departing last of all, with soda water. when papa comes you will not say that and a trifle more "huffily" than the

The little fellow nodded atme impres- he should know his own wife." sively as if he could tell me more did "And he did seem to know her-at wash put upon the cellar walls will keep he so choose. But I did not think it the time," she made answer as she vermin away.

over, I scarcely think the child would clone, but Elsa called me to her. ently stiff and useless, by laying them have told me more even had I done so. "Have you any wish, dear? I began as in a mixture of ammonia and water over I sat still, pondering and continuing I bent over her chair. "Is there any night. to keep the small hand within mine. thing you would like me to do?,' In about half an hour I felt the hand "Oh, mon Dien! but yes, I have a dealy more incisive and more brilliant," vibrate strangely. Carl, who had been wish; but no, you cannot give me my he iron becomes steel.

watching his mother, whispered, "Say wish. I wish to be just like other women. Oh it is hard to went to be a "Elsa" I said in a voice that I knew woman-like the others, and to be had grown very tender since my trou- different! Oh, que je suis malheureuse!" and she cast herself weeping into her A The white eyelids trembled; the sweet husband's arms.

eyes were revealed in all their strange, "You will leave us now, Miss Thompmysterious beauty. Then a smile flick- son," he said to me hoarsly. "And"ered over her face, and she said "Let extending one hand to me-"believe it be always 'Elsa.' How I feel myself me, I am very grateful to you. I know how you have tended Elsa. I am glad "You shall be 'Elsa' dear, and I- she has so taken to you. Be all you must be 'Joan'" I made answer. And can to her." He spoke brokenly and as if with difficulty.

shall return, isn't it? she next said. my voice, I was so strangely moved. "They are already late—but they will As I went out I heard Carl's child- of ammal matter. It may, therefore, be ish treble saying those words: They zuere late; I knew it, and I had father, is she to know the secret too To be Concluded next week.

The Management of Lamps.

tions for treating lamps, and it so accords with the experience of another hours and found that it still retained all its that we present them herewith. To in- virulence. From this he rightly concluded sure good light the burners of petroleum that the poisonous substance was a non-volavolume of Heine's poems—my constant companion—and asked if I should are allowed to become dull the light is to as Panum's putrid poison. Panum's work uncertain, and owing to the absorption was published in Danish, and did not attract "Do please." she answered promptly of heat by the darkened metal, smoke much attention for some years "Read Nacet lingt auf den fremdne is the result. Once a month place the Wegen, and afterwards, 'Der Tod, das burners in a pan, covering them with to which he gave the name Sepsine. In the cold water, to each quart of which a following year Zeulzer and Sonnenschein ob-I read these, and afterwards others. tablespoonful of soda should be added, tained a substance which resembles atropia in "How comfortable is your voice and also a little soap. Boil slowly for its physiological action, and in a medico-Joan l" she said at last, lingering on one or two hours, and at the end of the A great sorrow had come into my my name as it were a pleasure to her time pour off the blackened water. Then reactions similar to those of digitaline.

soda in the same proportions as before. sorrow differed from most was this, that I looked at the fair, youthful face, to After boiling again a few minutes pour which was called by them it was all concentrated in one blow, as which the coloa had returned, glowing off the water, rinse the burners with From putrid meat Professor Brieger propared f in compensation for the unbroken and very pleasant to see, and could clear hot water and rub dry with a soft a substance, neuridine, which acted as a happiness which had preceded it. For not imagine her as dying, though I had cloth. The burners must be perfectly other products of putrefaction; other putrefactio long cloudless day -- followed by night like to death. She appeared to be in Should the wicks become clogged with stemes that occur in the human system in its which I know can never give place to day dawns. was, I felt convinced, of the mind. I and new ones not be desired, they may the constituents of the brain; and choline, But I am not about to write my own wished she would confide in me; why be boiled in vinegar and water, dried tory-it will never be written. Yet didn't she, since she seemed to care thoroughly and put back in the burn- choline, are transformed into the highly ers. If wicks have done duty all win- poisonous neurine. It is a remarkable fact Then I remembered my own inabi- ter they should be replaced by new ones that neurine, which is indentical with mus-It was this sympathy, born in the lity to confide my own sorrow to any in the spring. Nickel burners may be wasted. A perfectly clean lamp that side source. wierd experience I am about to narrate A glance which passed between her gives a brilliant light is a great comfort. It was at Zermatt that I first mether. and the child interrupted my sentence. What is more cheerless or depressing Rhoda Thompson, who was an enthusi- he was the quietest child I ever knew and chrysanthemum, so popular for deastic climber, and had with her made and looking gravely into my face with most of the ascents at all possible to his steady gaze, his eyes so like his women. Mr. Coningham was a member mother's, said. "But we shall soon

None too Small. to our hotel by the weather, Mr. Coning- saloon. I could not but remark his BY THOS. R. THOMPSON. Dear boys and girls, I like you all; You may be young, with a glad smile. He then took little You may be small, But not too small

Or young, I think, To say you will Not taste strong drink. Ask God to help You, day by day, And keep yourselves From sin alway. Gen. Harrison and the Wine-Cup. The following story is told of Gen. Harrison, in connection with the public din-"At the close of the dinner one of the beautiful and strong. She was evident- again, rest assured." And then, sud- gentlemen drank his health. The genedenly addressing Elsa, she said "How ral pleged his toast by drinking water. Yet I certainly detected in her dark, ever did you get back, Mrs. Conning- Another gentlemen offered a toast, and Hence, it is that cuts received while disrestless eyes a somethir g very like fear. ham? We were all nearly as frozen as said: 'General will you not favor me by secting corpses often end in death. 50 Bed Room Sets and 300 restless eyes a something very like lear. I shink that from the first she knew that I saw in her what others did not, and where it would rest for minutes togeth- believe it was their first expedition. "Gentlmen, I have twice refused to crabs or lobsters. In the maize porridge, mountain peaks with unutterable sadness. She never made any of the ascents, being too timid, but remained we were standing on was one of

with her boy.

Inough you press the men, there is formed by putrefaction in hot weather a poison which causes "pellagra," an eraption of the skin resembling erysipelas, those awful corpices and it gave way. One evening Mrs. Coningham and I and fell crashing down the precipice who graduated together. The other sixwere watching for the return of her husthe very instant the last of us had left who graduated together. The other sixdence of their presence. The frequent inband with his party-my niece and two it. We all stood speechless, staring teen members of my class now fill drunkother ladies were with them. I had at the gulf that had so nearly swallow-remained behind at Mrs. Coningham's ed us up; and then you had dissapear the first request—the first request she had made and Mr. Coningham declared you were request—the first request she had made and Mr. Coningham declared you were request—the first request she had made and Mr. Coningham declared you were request—the first request she had made ed. Mr. Coningham declared you were that resolution. Would you urge to break All food, whether vege morning has sapped the enjoyment of must not always be inferred that they do not I could not account for seized me, and Mrs. Coningham has never left the the whole day. There was a silent received. These poisons are not destroyed by "That is impossible!" cried my in the faces of friends, all through the have been traced to causage poisoning from I hastily took up a glass of water niece. We all saw her—every one of slow hours. There never was a vision 1793 to 1853. The plague like epidemic that and was about to sprinkle her face, when Carl put back my hand with his small fingers, saving with the strangest wielers. look I ever saw on a child's face, "No "There couldn't possibly be another Miss Thompson; it is of no use to try to wake mamma when she goes to gleen Wer. Promisines are divided into two classes—

"There couldn't possibly be another could read all life aright! Cleanse the could read all life aright! Cleanse the spirit of these little sins which carken spirit of these little spirit of the spirit of these little spirit of the spirit of to wake mamma when she goes to sleep Mrs. Bruce once more; "and presently the whole don't Cot the hand till -she is afraid when she first wakes." sine will own an about it. In the meantime we ought every one of us to thank

I did make an effort to rouse her have been declared by the line and I did make an effort to rouse her, her on our knees. "To think," she humanity of your lives will chine forth ner on our knees. "To think, she humanity of your lives will shine forth be radically remodeled. It is an academic be radically remodeled. It is an academic voice, and with the weakest attempt at old time position on parlor walls.

That lemons may be kept by covering ing .- Professor H. H. Boyesen in The Forum.

withcold water; change every week. That ceilings that have been smoked you think my word unworthy of belief nest, "I shall be a bricklayer yet."

That copperas mixed with the white-

That rubber bands for cans may be mystery excited my curiosity. More- I was about to follow and leave them renewed, after they have become appar-

SUBJECT ATTRACTING ATT

sons Which Are Generated in Food. Risks of Eating Stale Sausage or Fish.

Probably no other subject is attracting so much attention in the medical world today "You will be near me when they I bowed my head. I could not trust fesser Victor C. Vaughan, is a basic of alkaloidal body formed during the putrefaction investigations on this subject were made by Some one has written a few direc- chemical reagents, which would destroy all > pour enough boiling water into the pan | Bence Jones and Durpre about this time also to cover the burners, adding soap and obtained from the liver a substance which,

> > poison from a corpse where every suspicion

In 1870, Selmi began a series of investigain isolating completely any ptomaine. Nencki, in 1876, first succeeded in determinsubstance was obtained from patrid gelatine. the putrefaction of fish, white of egg, meat, cheese, gelatine and yeast. The presence of well adapted to the formation of these SPEAK NOT HARSHLY .-- One word noticeable. Especially should great care be round on us all. Elsa had become spoken impatiently or angrily in the putrefaction are odorless compounds, and it genders, as a consequence, discontent and

A Fair Maid's Indifference. Belingbroke has just forvently proposed Miss Steele-Do you play a good game of Bolingbroke Prirth 10 Whys b orb - wrong oildne mamma has been asleep. She will say others, I said, "You should allow Mr. this to him herself—and he knows it Coningham to have an opinion, even it that the head of half accepted the parcelain egg in her Dick Starr, will you! I know the process of the head of half accepted the parcelain egg in her Dick Starr, will you! I know the process of the head of half accepted the parcelain egg in her Dick Starr, will you! I know the process of the head of half accepted the parcelain egg in her Dick Starr, will you!

and Low Il Chairs, in price stock of ng of atess having rination by

Theurooms,

as Parlor,

vate house.

Book-case

airs. Ltd

es, Desks

and lat cminion tial vertable for vater, is United the our will be re as for. my house

REAL

places. Gran