The Harvest Home Festival.

The Harvest Home Festival in the Cambridge street Methodist church on Tuesday evening, was well attended, and the evening was spent in the pleasantest manner. The ladies of the congregation deserve the highest praise for the manner in which they furnished the abundance of excellent refreshments which loaded the tables, the more so as no canvassing was required.

Lecture.

Rev. J. Murray, of Kincardine, formerly of Woodville, delivered his celebrated lecture "My Trip in Italy" in the Presbyterian church, on Tuesday evening. There was a good attendance, and the Rev. gentleman gave a great deal of information respecting the "Sunny Land," and some very amusing experiences, particularly where he scared the natives with a few exclamations in Gaelic.

Exhibition Notes.

The gate and other receipts of the Central Fair footed up within three or four dollars of $2,000.

Mr. Jos. Riggs exhibited his patent Clothes Reel, which was much admired by the ladies.

Mr. John Hore made a grand exhibit of the singer sewing machines. The display of fancy work exhibited by these celebrated machines surprised and delighted the lady visitors.

SOUTH OPS.

The second day of the Lindsay Fair had its attractions for some, but not for the people of this vicinity. The reason is, that there was something more attractive, and more important in our own neighborhood going on that day; for no less than two weddings have we to record for Wednesday, Sept. 28th 1892. The Rev. Dr. Thompson of Omamee, had the pleasant task of tying the important knot for Miss Carrie, daughter of John Henderson, and Mr. Thatchell of Toronto. The bride was richly and handsomely attired, and the presents were numerous and costly. The young couple left home the same evening for their future home. May their new life be long and happy.

On the same day Mr. Isaac Shaw of this place, was united to Miss Ellis of Fenelon.

Mr. Duncan Blaylock of Lindsay, paid us a flying visit on Sunday last.

Coon hunting is all the go around here now and several fine animals have been captured.

Who were the boys who went hooking apples not long ago. Rumor states that they returned home at a much livelier gait than they expected, but, then people will talk.

Mr. R. J. Patterson's fine team of Canadian draughts, received 2nd prize at the Lindsay Central Exhibition.

Those who attended church, here last

Sunday enjoyed a treat from the Rev. Mr. Brown of Omamee. His sermon was taken from the text "Go Forward." He dealt very appropriately with the text, quoting cases in his own personal experience, where he was led on by that motto which brought the Israelites through the wilderness.

The Cosmopolitan Magazine.

Very well informed people have but little conception of the ten great railways, whose network of rails covers the United States—several of them have a length of more than ten thousand miles each. How these systems came to exist in their present vast dimensions, the territory which they cover, the causes which have led to their development, and their future possibilities and probabilities, will form the subject of a series of papers which will appear in the COSMOPOLITAN MAGAZINE. The first of this series is by President Plant, the head of the extensive Plant system of Railways and Steamers, and appears in the October issue of the COSMOPOLITAN, covering the system of railways east of the Alleghenies and south of the Potomac.

The Dog on Top.

Much interest is manifested in the result of a dog case which came up at the late Division Court held at Uxbridge before the junior judge of this county. Mr. Tuohy for a long time mail carrier between Uxbridge and Port Perry, had a son bitten by a dog the property of J. A. McGillivray Q. C., some weeks ago. When the father learned that his boy had been bitten he took his shooting iron, followed the dog and shot him, thus while the boy could not resent the injury the dog had done him the father could and did and thus prevented any further biting by his dog-ship. This was supposed to end the matter and very many if not all believed that the father had done right in avenging the biter of his son, and in preventing any further biting of his or any one else's son by the same biter. But this did not end it, for the owner of the dog sued the father for the amount of $60, the value which pliff set upon his dog. Most people in their ignorance of the law, supposed that the owner was pretty safe if he got off with the loss of the dog, but when the case came up for hearing pliff got judgment for the full amount claimed ($60) with costs. The dog took law in his own mouth but the father it appears should not have taken law in his own hands. Sixty dollars a shot is too costly game. For our own part we would not give $60 for all the dogs in the province. If men had as little sense as dogs, when a vicious dog—all dogs are vicious that bite—happened to bite a child the father would bite the owner—not necessarily with his teeth, but men must not take law in their own hand. —Port Perry Observer.

Mary Vanderbilt brought an action in the New York Supreme Court on Saturday to recover $100,000 from Capt. Jacob Vanderbilt, of Staten Island, son of the commodore, for the alienation of the affections of her husband and his son, Jacob H. Vanderbilt.

SALE OF CANADIAN HORSES.

Sixty-Two Head Brought Nearly $28,000, Great Prices Being Paid.

New York, Oct. 5.—Half the Four Hundred at least were gathered yesterday in the Tattersall sale building at Fifty-fifth street and Seventh-avenue, when Auctioneer William Easton ascended his rostrum and gave a preliminary flourish to his ivory gavel. The occasion was the annual sale of Mr. W. D. Grand's Canadian horses, and sixty-two head of the best and most carefully selected hunters, jumpers, carriage pairs and single horses came under the hammer.

Sixty-two head brought nearly $28,000, an average of almost $450. Such figures need no comment. Mr. O. H. P. Belmont was present and incidentally bought a four-in-hand team for $7,350 after a sharp competition with another well-known gentleman. The team he secured is of rare beauty and excellence. Ex-Secretary W. C. Whitney was another interested spectator, and in the crowd were Messrs. A. J. Cassatt, Amasa J. Parker, J. H. Roosevelt, Alexander Taylor, Jr., A. W. Powell, R. Hoagland, T. C. Patterson of Toronto, J. E. Moore, R. Wallack, Fred. Hoey, J. Arthur, Captain Frizzell, F. D. Brown and a brilliant array of ladies in the galleries.

The best price of the day, $3000, was paid by Mr. Belmont for the beautiful bay mare, Canadian Belle, by Ryshawk. She has swept the board of prizes wherever exhibited, and will be a terror to all competitors at the coming horse show. Mr. Belmont also secured for $1400 the bay mare Blue Ribbon, a very perfect match for Canadian Belle.

The sales for $500 or over were as follows:

CRICKET AT PHILADELPHIA.

Irishmen Have the Advantage in the First Innings of the Third Match. PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 5.—With the loss yesterday of two wickets with 51 runs, the Irishmen started in to bat again this morning in their first inning of the third and deciding match with All Philadelphia.

When the tenth man was finally caught out the visitors had succeeded in putting together 168 runs.

Philadelphia then went in. The loss of four wickets for 11 runs demoralized them, and when stumps were drawn for the day six men were out for only 47 runs.

Fell Under a Train. PORT CHESTER, Oct. 5.—Mrs. H. Atwood of this place is stepping from the lower step of the train from New York to-night, before the train had stopped, somehow swung under the track and two wheels passed over her, cutting her in two.

Mr. Michael Davitt in an address yesterday said that the moment the landlord campaign is opened in Ireland, a Land League will be started in Great Britain.

Another Life Taken.

The Mail says: Still another of these distressing street railway accidents which seem to come so inevitably occurred on Saturday forenoon on Church street, near its intersection with Gould street. The victim in this case is a young Hamiltonian named Ralph M. Blackely, who had but recently come to Toronto to pursue the study of law. About half-past nine o'clock the deceased boarded the trailer of a south-bound trolley a short distance below Gerrard street, and remained with his head projecting some distance beyond the steps on the side next the track. He had boarded the trailer while it was in motion, and apparently had failed to notice a rapidly approaching north-bound car. A moment later he received a terrific blow on the head, which crushed in his skull and threw him from the trailer to the ground. The cars were stopped as quickly as possible, the wounded man was carried to the boulevard, and the police ambulance summoned. Doctors Atkins, A. Wright, Cowan, and Teskey did what they could, but the injuries were too severe to admit the possibility of recovery. When the ambulance arrived Blackely was conveyed to St. Michael's hospital, but in a few minutes afterward his life had ebbed away. The young deceased was an articled student in the law firm of Ritchie, Leeming & Ludwig, and was in attendance at the Law School at Osgoode hall.

At the time of the accident there was nothing on his person to indicate his identity except some documents relating to the Law School Moot Court. The circumstance led to the belief that he was a law student, and upon the suggestion of Curry & Gunther, Mr. Gunther of the Ambulance driver, accompanied by Mr. Gillan, a brother student of the deceased, went up to ascertain who the injured man was. Gillan was very much shocked to see his comrade a crushed and lifeless mass of bleeding clay. Blackely was 20 years of age.
