SONGS FOR THE DAY.

That falls from mortal lips on mortal ear,

Why must a word so sweet bring only And then we feel it impotent and vain. May God be with you!

Oh. may He guide and bless and keep you He who is strong to battle with your foes; Whoever fails, His love can fail you never, And all your need He in His wisdom May God be with you!

Better than earthly presence, e'en the dear-Is the great blessing that our partings For in the loneliest moments God is near And from our sorrows heavenly comforts If God be with us!

A legacy of hope and faith and love. Parting must come, we cannot long delay it; But one in Him, we hope to meet above, If God be with us!

Good-by! 'Tis all we have for one another; Our love, more strong than death, is helpless still! For none can take the burden from his Or shield, except by prayer, from any ill. May God be with you! -Philip Bourke Marston:
