Nearly a Fatal Assault.

Wednesday last Miss B. O'Neill of the east ward, sister of Mr. J. R. O'Neill, grocer, was the victim of an assault that nearly ended fatally. She was visiting with her sister, Mrs. Thomas McCabe, who lives a few miles south of Reaboro. On the day above mentioned she had gone over to visit a neighbor, Mrs. Roddy. Mr. Roddy was cut Edwin, about 23 years of age, who had been plowing with his father the day previous, was in the house at the time. For some days previous he had shown indications that his mind was somewhat unbalanced and his parents were a trifle anxious, but did not fear any serious consequences. While conversing in a general way, young Roddy accused Miss O'Neill of being a witch, and ordered her to leave the house at once. The look in his eyes and his threatening attitude alarmed Miss O'Neill, but before she could escape Roddy seized a chair and brought it down with terrible force on the unfortunate young lady's unprotected head, felling her to the floor, and while prostrate he kicked her repeatedly about the head, face and body. Mr. McCabe, who had heard the screams for assistance, arrived just in time to save her life, as the maniac evidently intended to kill her. Dr. Poole was speedily summoned from Lindsay, and upon his arrival he found it necessary to place several stitches in a gaping cut on the head. Her face was also badly cut and her body lacerated. On Thursday Chief Bell and Constable Foster brought Roddy to Lindsay and placed him in goal for safe keeping. . . . Roddy's mind is supposed to have become unbalanced owing to religious fervor, but just what the cause of his mental collapse is it is difficult to say. He was up to the time of the unfortunate occurrence a young man of excellent disposition, and enjoyed good health.

The Counterfeit Cases.

The trial of the members of the Murphy family on the charge of making and passing counterfeit coin, is in progress before the Hon. Justice Meredith at the assize court. True bills were returned by the grand jury against Frederick, Richard and Allan Murphy on separate charges of passing bogus money, that against Wellington Murphy is under consideration to-day. A true bill was also brought in against Jeremiah Murphy and his four sons on the one general charge of making counterfeit coin or having knowledge thereof. Fred Murphy was tried yesterday morning and convicted of passing bad money on Mr. Fleming, the jury recommending the prisoner to the mercy of the court. Mr. Riddell for the crown, and Mr. Stone for the defence. The case against Allan Murphy occupied the afternoon. He was charged with attempting to pass a bogus quarter at the store of George Fox. Prisoner stated, in defence, that he got it from a buyer of frogs' legs in town. Quite a sensation was created in court when Mrs. Elliott, of Mount Hope, was giving supplementary evidence. Mrs. Murphy and the two Miss Murphys took the floor and began hurling invectives at the witness. They were removed by constables. The youngest woman shouted, as she was taken through the door, "I can whip any man in the court room." Barrister Stone was invited by Justice Meredith to apologise to the court for an insinuation made against the jury. "At eight o'clock last evening, when the court resumed, the jury entered and returned a verdict of guilty against Allan Murphy. During the afternoon the gallery was well-filled with lady spectators, who seemed to take much interest in the proceedings."

Ho! For Bobcaygeon.

The Verulam fair will be held at Bobcaygeon on Saturday, October 5th. Among other attractions Mr. Boyd's herd of buffalos and their offspring as well as his Persian sheep and other rare stock will all be on exhibition. The steamer Crandella will run a cheap excursion to Bobcaygeon on that day, leaving the new wharf at 9.30, and on the return trip will leave Bobcaygeon at 4.30, calling at the Point both ways. This is the last excursion, and farmers and others should take advantage of it to enjoy a pleasant sail and visit the fair and inspect Mr. Boyd's rare stock. The return fare is only 30 cents.

Church Chimes.

—In the Queen-st Methodist church, Lindsay, next Sabbath at 10 o'clock, the monthly fellowship service will be held in the basement.

—Mr. J. L. Allin of Lindsay, took charge of the services in the Methodist church at Cambray on Sabbath last, during the absence of the pastor.

—Rev. C. H. Marsh of St. Paul's, is in Toronto attending the opening services of Wycliffe college. He will be home on Friday evening, and will preach morning and evening at St. Paul's on Sabbath next.

—Sabbath afternoon last Miss Macdonald of Toronto, daughter of the late Senator Macdonald, addressed a very large audience of children and others in the auditorium of the Cambridge-st. Methodist church. Miss Macdonald is an excellent speaker, and has devoted much of her life to Sabbath school work. The address was listened to with deep attention by all present.

—It is expected that in future all literature intended for the use of the Canadian Presbyterian Sabbath schools will be printed in Canada. At present the "Picture Lesson Papers" and other publications distributed among the children come from the United States, and at times these contain anti-British spread-eagle statements that make them unsuitable for use in Canadian Sabbath schools. Collections were taken up in all the Presbyterian churches in Canada on Sabbath last with this object in view, and no doubt a large sum was realized.

—Special harvest thanksgiving services were held in St. Paul's church on Sabbath last, morning and evening. The building was tastefully and appropriately decorated, and presented a beautiful appearance. The congregations were very large at both services. The morning service was conducted by Rev. C. H. Marsh, and in the evening Rev. Carl Smith, who is leaving Lindsay and going to Peterboro, preached his farewell sermon. Mr. H. Petter also assisted in the service.

—The morning services at St. Andrew's on Sabbath last were of a character appropriate for children, it being "children's day" throughout the whole Presbyterian church in Canada. The service was divided into four parts: "Youth's call," "Youth's perplexity," "Youth's duties," and "Youth's glory"—and was entered into heartily by pastor, people and children. Rev. J. W. MacMillan, B.A., preached a short appropriate sermon, that was listened to with deep interest by the hundreds of children present.

—Next Sabbath, in the Queen-st Methodist church in Lindsay there will be at 3 p.m., a union meeting. It is intended to be a union of congregation, league, Sabbath school and any others who will come. All are invited. The ministers of the town from the other churches are invited. Some are to be away. Rev. J. W. MacMillan B.A., of St. Andrew's, has signed his intention to be present, and will give an address. This is in connection with the harvest home services of the day. Last year this afternoon service was a very interesting one. No doubt it will be so this year. Although announced at 3 o'clock any who desire to attend it can come in at the close of Sunday schools.

Church of England Temperance Society Entertainment.

The regular monthly meeting of the Church of England Temperance Society was held in St. Paul's school room on Monday evening last. By eight o'clock the room was comfortably filled. The meeting was of a particularly interesting character, it being the last occasion on which Rev. Carl Smith, who has been curate of St. Paul's for the past two years, would be present with them, he being about to remove to Peterborough. Mr. J. H. Knight, who occupied the chair, in the absence of Rev. C. H. Marsh, president of the society, made a few introductory remarks, and also read a letter from the pastor, expressing his regret at being unable to be present, particularly as this was the eve of Rev. Mr. Smith's departure for another field of labor. The program, which was short but very interesting, was at once entered into. Instrumental, Miss Silver; recitation, Miss Aggie Duffus; instrumental, Miss Annie Dingle. Rev. Mr. Smith then gave a short farewell address, thanking the members of St. Paul's congregation and the members of the C.E.T.S. for the many kindnesses shown himself and Mrs. Smith during their residence in Lindsay. He also spoke a few words of encouragement and advice to the members of the C.E.T.S. Mr. H. Petter made a few remarks on behalf of the congregation and the temperance society, expressing regret at the departure of Mr. and Mrs. Smith from amongst them. A pleasing part of the evening's program was the presentation to Rev. Mr. Smith, on behalf of the congregation, of a number of valuable books, as a slight token of the esteem in which he is held by all. While taken somewhat by surprise, Rev. Mr. Smith made a very neat and feeling reply, thanking the congregation heartily for their most appropriate gift. At this stage Miss Silver was called on for a song, to which she graciously responded, Miss Dingle playing the accompaniment. She was warmly eulogized. She was also heartily eulogized in her instrumental number in the earlier part of the programme. On motion of Mr. Knight, a hearty vote of thanks was tendered to all those who so kindly took part in the programme and assisted in the evening's entertainment. The intellectual portion of the programme being concluded, coffee and cake was passed around and in order to give a chance to knit and at the same time enjoy a short respite from a very large and increasing city practice he decided to visit his old home. Mrs. Foley is a sister of Mrs. McDougall.

Those Circus Tickets.

The following letter was read at the meeting of the town council on Monday evening last from C. E. Thompson, Sells Bros. ticket agent:—"I see by one of your city papers that there appears to be some misunderstanding amongst your members to the effect that 26 tickets had been left with the clerk, but omitted to state that this number included 10 or 12 left with your city police. If your clerk distributed any among the aldermen it was his own pleasure, as the tickets were given to him for his own use, except a few that I asked him to give to some of the members most convenient to meet, and any who received them are indebted to the clerk for the same. If any disagreement has arisen I hope this will rectify it." . . . This substantiates the prompt denial made by Mr. F. Knowlson at the time. Probably apologies are now in order. It was a tempest in a teapot in the first place.

Hymeneal.

—On Tuesday of last week Mr. Wm. Best of Ops was married to Miss Elizabeth Corbett, daughter of Mr. L. Corbett of South Verulam. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Father Nolan in St. Joseph's church, Bobcaygeon. The bride was beautifully dressed, and looked as lovely as any bridegroom could desire. She was assisted by her sister, Miss Lucy Corbett. At the conclusion of the ceremony the party drove to Mr. Corbett's residence, where nearly a hundred invited guests from Lindsay, Dunsford, Bobcaygeon and elsewhere had assembled to offer congratulations and partake of the sumptuous wedding repast. The bride is very popular wherever known, and the list of presents was very large and costly. THE WATCHMAN adds its felicitations to the general good wishes for welfare and future happiness of the young people.

—On Wednesday, October 2nd at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hall 813 Water-st. Peterboro, was the scene of a very pretty wedding, being the marriage of their daughter Annie Josephine to Dr. John Spier of Montreal, son of Mr. Robert Spier of this town. Rev. Mr. Torrence tied the knot. The bride was charmingly robed, and was assisted by Miss Laura Davidson. Mr. Ed Gregory of Lindsay supported the groom. The popularity of the winsome bride was shown by the large number of handsome presents. The happy couple left by the evening train for an extended wedding trip. THE WATCHMAN joins with a host of Lindsay friends in extending congratulations.

PERSONAL.

—Mr. Ernest Short, of Davis & Henderson, printers and bookbinders, Toronto, is in town for a few weeks holidays.

—Miss Ferguson of Valencia, is visiting in town, the guest of her friend Miss L. Galbraith.

—Miss McMillan, who has been visiting friends at Gillingwood and other western points, has returned home.

—Miss Olive Totten of Lindsay went to Toronto on Monday to pursue a course of study in the school of pedagogy.

—Miss Florence Totten left a short time ago for Whitby, where she is in attendance at the Ontario ladies college.

—Mr. D. Brown, Jr. of Glenora accompanied by his two cousins passed through here on Monday last for South California.

—Mr. J. N. Garvin, B.A., District manager for the North American Life Assurance Co., spent Tuesday, last in town, with his district representative Mr. R. Campbell.

—Mrs. E. T. Sheffer, of Rochester, who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ancil Mills of the east ward, returned home Tuesday.

—Mr. Percy Soanes, student of Wycliffe college, left for Toronto Tuesday morning to resume his studies. This is Mr. Soanes' last term.

—Mr. W. H. Lodge of Dunsford, who has been residing at Downeyville for some months past, was in town Saturday, and gave THE WATCHMAN a call.

—Miss A. E. Fitzpatrick, who has been visiting with friends among the Thousand Islands during the past summer, left for Rochester, N. Y., on Tuesday last.

—Mr. Albert Forbert, who has been employed in C. T. Hadder's tailoring establishment for some time, left for Toronto on Monday to take a position in one of the big city shops.

—Mr. D. C. Trew was one of the judges of poultry at the Cammington fair, which took place on Friday last. He reports a good show, and a specially fine display of poultry.

—Rev. A. L. Smith, Presbyterian souldier at Sprucefield, Muskoka, is on a visit to friends near the old home town in Eldon. While in town on Wednesday he gave THE WATCHMAN a call.

—Among those from Minden who came in to see the great Central fair we noticed Mr. J. H. Delamere, member prospective for North Victoria, and publisher of the Minden Echo; Mr. M. Brown, registrar; and John and Joseph Mortimer.

—Mr. George Charles of New York city and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Parkin and little daughter of Valencia are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Arlington Foster, north ward. Mr. Charles is a cousin and Mr. Parkin a brother of Mrs. Foster.

—Mr. A. L. Merrill, assistant master of the Ottawa college institute, was in town Friday, and gave THE WATCHMAN a call. Mr. Merrill is an applicant for the position of inspector of schools for the county of Haliburton, and was on his way to Minden in connection with the same.

—A slight error occurred in the personal in the last issue of THE WATCHMAN regarding Miss Dundas's appointment at Demill college, Oshawa. Miss Dundas is a niece of Mr. J. R. Dundas, late of Lindsay, and she has been appointed teacher of vocal voice culture at the above college.

—Dr. Chas. Foley and wife of Detroit, Mich., are in town visiting Mr. and Mrs. D. McDougall, Sussex-st. Dr. Foley had the misfortune to break his arm some weeks ago, and in order to give it a chance to knit and at the same time enjoy a short respite from a very large and increasing city practice he decided to visit his old home. Mrs. Foley is a sister of Mrs. McDougall.

LITTLE LOCAL LINES.

—Cherries, Berries, Pineapples and Water-Melons at Fox's.

—R. CAMPBELL, Insurance Agent, office second door north of WATCHMAN printing office.—28-4.

—F. C. Taylor, Insurance Agent. Office on the ground floor of the new opera house, Lindsay-st.—8.

—Thanksgiving day, Thursday, November 21st. This gives nearly two months in which to fatten the turkeys.

—The annual meeting of the Children's Aid Society will be held in about two weeks, the exact date and other particulars will be given in a future issue.

—Remember the excursion to Bobcaygeon fair on October 5th, per steamer Crandella. Fare for the round trip only 30 cents.

—The steamer Esturion is now running single trips between Lindsay and Bobcaygeon, leaving Bobcaygeon at 8 a. m. and Lindsay at 3 p. m.

—J. A. McIntosh of Minden has been awarded a matriculation pass. Mr. McIntosh was a pupil at the collegiate institute last year.

—A card of thanks from Mrs. R. D. Thexton, to the members of Court Lindsay, No. 125, I.O.F. is unavoidably crushed out. It will appear next week.

—You may be about due for that fall suit. Come in. Our shelves are at your service. Don't worry about the fit—we attend to that. DUNDAS & FLAVELLE BROS.—40-2.

—A correspondent sends the following:—"The town has a new hook and ladder truck that cost $500. Where it is stowed at present it takes fully 40 minutes to get it housed, and I presume it takes the same time to get it out again. Can no better arrangement be made than this?"

—A buyer was in town the other day looking after a shipment of crab apples for Toronto and Winnipeg. He wanted to buy thirty barrels. In Toronto crab apples are selling for 50c. a pair and in Winnipeg they are in active demand at $1.00 per pair.

—Mr. D. Howkins of Woodville was one of the successful exhibitors at the Central. Out of a possible six first prizes for Berkshire and Yorkshire swine he carried off five. He had a big field against him.

—A large amount of local matter, news-letters, etc., has been crushed out this issue by the publication of the central fair prize list. Our readers will have to bear with us for a week or two while those prize lists are being published.

—A prize of a pair of ladies' slippers was offered by Johnston & Sisson for the prettiest young lady on the grand stand between the hours of 4 and 5 on the second day of the Lindsay Central fair. The judges—several in number, among whom was the horse editor of THE WATCHMAN—decided after due inspection, that Miss Thorndike of Oakwood was the fortunate lady who was entitled to the prize, and their decision was received with applause.

—On Monday afternoon last a barn raising was held on the farm of Mr. Isaac Watson, Reaboro, to replace the one destroyed by fire some time ago. Sides were chosen, captained by Messrs. T. Hawkins and J. Hickson, and the barn raised up in a hurry. A young man named F. Graham met with a slight accident by the falling of a piece of timber, his toes being crushed.

—Next week the steamer Crandella will go into winter quarters at the locks here. The boat has had a very successful season, and Capt. Crandell is well satisfied with the patronage he has received. During the winter the Crandella will be strengthened and improved in many ways, and when spring comes will be as good as new.

—Mr. J. Carow of the Lindsay lumber mills made a contract a short time ago to furnish the air line railway between Tilsonburg and Hastings with good hemlock and tamarack ties at a good price. These ties were shipped this week. Mr. Carow's business is assuming large proportions, and shipments of lumber, ties, etc., are of weekly occurrence. In addition to this he has a capital land trade.

—The Janetville Methodist church, of which Rev. C. H. Coon is the popular pastor, will be re-opened for divine worship on Sabbath, October 6th, when Rev. Mr. Garbutt of Omemea, will preach morning and evening. On Monday from 4 to 7 o'clock the ladies of the congregation will give a grand food dinner in the drill shed, and an entertainment in the evening. The tickets are only 25 cents and 15 cents for tea and entertainment. No doubt many from Lindsay will be present.

—The trial of Hessie Gray for the murder of David Scollie came to a sudden termination Friday morning at Peterboro, when, after the defence had called three witnesses, his Lordship suggested that it was not necessary to hear further evidence, and the jurv concurring a verdict of "not guilty" was returned by direction of the court. When this verdict was read it was received with loud applause and cheering by the great crowd that packed the room.

—Friday afternoon last Mr. Robert E. Stinson, an employe of the J.G. Edwards & Co. met with a very painful accident. He was pressing a cork into the neck of a castor oil bottle with considerable force, when the bottle broke, and his hand—the right one—coming in contact with a sharp sliver of the glass was severely gashed across the palm, severing a small artery. Mr. Stinson immediately sought Dr. White's office, where the wound was carefully dressed and the edges drawn together by a couple of stitches. The danger of a wound of this kind is, of course, great, but as medical aid was promptly procured the danger in this case is slight. It will be a week or ten days before Mr. Stinson is able to resume work.
