IN MEMORIAM

Published by request. The following lines have been composed in memory of Emile Savage...

Dearest Emile, thou hast left us, No more thy voice shall cheer...

Oh! my dear boy, how we miss thee, When we see thy vacant chair...

Little thought we when thou left us, On that fair bright April morn...

Oh! the cruel, cruel waters, That to clasp and hold thee there...

So long weeks we watched and waited, For the form we loved so well...

But at length our prayers were answered And we laid thee down to rest...

Tenderly we placed rare flowers, Fair and white upon thy bed...

And we daily thank our father, For the last words thou hast penned...

Now we wait with faith unshaken On the promises of God...

Knowing we shall one day meet thee, Where the saints alone have trod...
