CARTER DRYGOODS MANTLES and CAPES!

CARTER for CLOTHING MEN'S Furnishings

The man who sells Dry Goods has no rest between seasons. His trade is all continuing. The dealer in coal and the man who sells or other features usually found at fairs skates know what a halt is. There's none for us. We are ever on the march. It is a genuine pleasure now to invite you to our store. We feel that you will appreciate the treat in store for you to mention one or two of the good things on our shelves.

equally well satisfied with it. The live stock had been coming in all morning and at one o'clock the visitors came flocking in to inspect the dainty articles hung on lines and spread out on the tables by the fair ladies of Brock, and after wondering at the fruits, roots and vegetables, passed out to watch the candy butchers and vendors of fruit, and to finally land at the horse ring, where all appeared to be interested in the handsome equines. Speaking of the horse ring reminds us that perhaps there is one weak point with the management of this excellent fair in that they neglect the stock and the Sunshine wasn't in it.

The live stock had been coming in all morning and sent them away in order to see them scorch up the good track. They them selected the three first named and not a few comments were heard on the fact that the Port Perry pacer should find a place among the favored ones, but his glory was of brief duration and the struzgle dwindled down to the black and chestnut. There was a good deal of speculation on how it would go, but it was a good day for the Easy Fortune is one weak point with the management of this excellent fair in that they neglect them swork in the stock and the Sunshine wasn't in it.
