—Mr. M. B. Byrd has a silo that will hold 300 tons of ensilage built on his stock farm on Big Island. It was filled last week.

—The last kilns of brick are now being burned at the Lindsay yards south of the town. The output for the season is about the average, although the building trade is rather on the dull side.

—It is believed that natural gas has been found on the farm of Mr. Wm. Humphrey on R. 15, Mariposa, about two miles east of Cannington. The discovery was made by a well-digger while working at the bottom of a deep well.

—The cheese factory at Norwood was destroyed by fire on Monday night, together with $2,300 worth of cheese, which was insured for $13,000. The building and machinery was insured for $12,000. The fire originated in the boiler room.

—For some reason an issuer of licenses to shoot deer has not been appointed at Lindsay, which is the most central place in the whole district. At Bobcaygeon Mr. J. L. Robinson, seven people, two women and five children—are known to have lost their lives. At Scott's Hill's near Whittemouth, the body of an old trapper has been found. It is believed that he was a trapper who has been lost ever since. Settlers in many sections have lost everything, barely escaping with their lives. The prairie in many sections is dotted with dead cattle.

—Mr. Francis Marks contributes a very interesting letter in this issue on the condition of the laboring classes in England, the price of meat, and the kind of bacon that is wanted there. She spent about a year at Crofton city, ten miles from London, in the heart of a rich agricultural district, and writes very intelligently from a working man's point of view of what he saw there. The letter will be found on page 2.

—The Sun, (Canada Farmer's Sun reorganized), has been reorganized by Mr. J. H. Oliver, 33 Oliver, 23 points, $1.00. It is the one paper to which "Bystander," one of the greatest living writers, is a regular contributor. Its market report is prepared especially for farmers, are unequalled. It gives information on agricultural matters, especially regarding new ideas and departures. It is a paper that is worth reading in every section and selections are of the best. The Sun is the great farm and home paper of Canada. You can get it, together with this paper, for $1.00 now until Jan. 1st, 1898—fifteen months.

—According to the Toronto Mail Messrs. Geo. McHugh, M.P., and Thomas Stewart of Lindsay, were in Ottawa on Friday and had an interview with Sir Oliver Mowat in which they urged that before he vacated the Department of Justice he should appoint a junior judge for the county of Victoria. They strongly urged the claims for Mr. D. J. McIntyre, police magistrate of Lindsay, to the position. There are, however, two other Richmonds in the field, the inexpressible J. A. Barron and Mr. Hugh O'Leary, and it is said that Mr. Barron's chances are the best, but that McIntyre's are not far behind.

—PERRIN'S Pine Tar Cordial cures coughs and colds—41.

—At Peterboro last week a lady bicyclist was fined $2 for riding on the sidewalk.

—The WATCHMAN and the Weekly Globe from now until January 1st, 1898, will be fifteen months. Send in subscriptions at once.

—See the Cinematograph at the Academy of Music this (Thursday) evening. Life-like moving pictures of the recent diamond jubilee parade will be exhibited.

—Dear Shooting opens on November 1st. No deer can be killed in the water, and the license fee for residents of the Dominion is $2. Only two deer can be killed by any one person.

—Lost.—Between Lindsay and Janetville on Saturday night, a valise containing suit of clothes, coats, cuffs, etc. Finder will be suitably rewarded by leaving valise at THE WATCHMAN office.

—The excursion from Midland to Port Hope on Saturday last was well attended, there being nine coaches well filled when the train passed through Lindsay at 11:20. Many joined the excursion at this point.

—The annual meeting of the Children's Aid Society will be held on or about the 15th inst. The proceedings will be varied by a program of music, etc., and short addresses by several leading citizens. Particulars later on.

—The secretary, Mrs. E. E. Sharpe, has handed in for publication a long list of contributions to the Home for the Aged, but owing to pressure of other matter we are unable to publish it. The members of the board, however, extend hearty thanks to all contributors.

—The steamer Crandella has been placed in dry dock at Bobcaygeon, where she will have her timbers strengthened and generally overhauled in readiness for another season's business. Mr. Frank Crandell will superintend the work, which will occupy a couple of weeks.

—Owing to the frequent recurrence of runaways and hair-breadth escapes in Ops recently, caused by the many glaring signs posted by some of our merchants at conspicuous points along the route, the municipal council has ordered that all signs be removed from the public highways of Ops forthwith. A hint to the wise is sufficient.

—We understand that Mr. Leslie McD. Coulter, now attending Toronto University, has joined the ranks of the benefactors. He has taken up his abode in New York some time ago, but his friends in Ops were only made public last week. The fair bride is Miss W. R. Greene, a former resident of Fenelon Falls, and well known in Lindsay. Their many friends in town and at the Falls will extend congratulations.

—The family of Mr. John J. McMahon, G. T. R. engineer, have the sympathy of many friends in their sad bereavement. The funeral will be held on Saturday, at 10 o'clock, at the residence of Mrs. McMahon, 150 Main Street. The deceased was a well known resident of the Falls and will be missed by all who knew him.

—A fire broke out in the Central prison at Toronto on Monday afternoon, and before it was subdued the broom factory was gutted, very serious injury done to the cordage factory, the conservatory wrecked and several piles of lumber reduced to ashes, making, in all, an estimated loss of $80,000. This is the second fire at the prison within a few months.

—A breach of promise case is looming up from Ops for the assize court next month. The complainant is a young woman who has been left by a wealthy merchant and lover after about ten or a dozen years of and-on courtship, with a positive engagement of marriage at some time or other. The defendant is a well-to-do farmer on the soil, who recently plucked another flower from the garden of feminine humanity. It is said that $2,000 will be claimed for wounded affections and blasted hopes.

—The thrashing of oats at Seward Armstrong's on Lindsay-st. was done on Monday afternoon of this week, and in the evening, when the moon arose and the stars twinkled over the landscape, the Queen's Own fire and drum band put in an appearance and broke the stillness of the night air with sweet music. The funeral taking place on Saturday, in program, and aroused all the dogs in the neighborhood. The members of the band were royally entertained before leaving for home.

—A tramp, who is described as about 25 years of age, clean shaven, short and stout, and wearing a light grey suit, attempted to outrage the 17-year-old daughter of Mr. J. A. Barron, a well-to-do farmer residing near Newbury, Ont., on Tuesday while the young lady was on her way to the Ward's-ville high school. He was the proper way to spell Barron, and thick, but fortunately her screams attracted a passing rig, the occupant of which came to her rescue. The villain, a well-known character in Ops, was taken by about 20 determined men, who had they succeeded in catching him would have strung him up to the nearest tree.

—Monday afternoon Mr. Jas. Cain, cattle-buyer was driving into town on Durham-st. west, when he was met by Mr. Arthur Storey on his bicycle carrying an empty honey can. Cain was riding forward on the dashboard, which broke under his weight, and he fell heavily to the ground, alighting on his head. He sustained several bruises and many friends were fortunately escaped serious injuries. For a time it looked as if the young man, empty honey can, bicycle and all, would be taken to the morgue. Although the damage being done.

—We clip the following from the Brantford Expositor: "Large numbers attend the Presbyterian church now to hear the Rev. Mr. Anderson, who is returning to his charge after a long absence, which was occasioned by ill health. Mr. Anderson is now in fine health and spirits, and his congregation and many friends are glad to see and hear him again. The members of his church and congregation are recently presented with a fine ring, the gift of Mr. Anderson, in token of their regard for his comfort and health." Mr. Anderson is an old Mariposa boy, and brother of Mr. D. R. Anderson, barrister of the town. His many former friends throughout the district will learn with pleasure of his prosperity and increasing popularity in his field of labor.

—While the Royal Humane Society medals are being awarded to deserving persons in this section Miss Lotta Burrows, the fifteen-year-old daughter of Dr. Burrows of this town, should not be forgotten. King-st. grocery was the scene of a daring which deserves recognition although little was said about the matter at the time at the request of the young heroine. While in the bath at Sturgeon Point, along with some other girls, a young daughter of Dr. Powers of Port Hope, who was visiting at the resort, got beyond her depth and was rapidly drowning. The crisis became frightened and rushed away calling for help, with the exception of Miss Burrows, who bravely plunged to her rescue. Although unable to swim, she went down into the lake beyond her own depth, seized her drowning companion and brought her safely to shore. Both were in a shocking one with cold and breath in water. Miss Burrows' escape from drowning was about as narrow as that of the party rescued, as the shore is a shelving one with a quick drop where the old shore used to be before the dam at Bobcaygeon was built.

—The Sporting World.

—In a race that was witnessed by fully 65,000 people at the Illinois State fair grounds on Saturday last Star Fontner not only maintained his reputation as king of pacers by defeating Joe Patchen, but he also lowered the world's pacing record in a race by half a second, making the mile in 2.00 1/2.

—Change of Time.

The steamer E. J. ion commenced her single trips on Friday last, and for the balance of the season will run the following time-table: Leave Bobcaygeon at 8 a.m., arriving in Lindsay at 10.30 a.m.; returning will leave Lindsay at 3 p.m., arriving at Bobcaygeon

Bravery Recognized.

On Tuesday afternoon, at 4.30, a large number of leading citizens, including many ladies, gathered at the residence of Mr. Wm. McDonnell, Pelee-st., to witness the presentation of the Royal Humane Society's medal to Miss Violet McDonnell-Coulter, for conspicuous bravery in rescuing Master Herbert Beggs, the five-year-old son of Mr. J. B. Beggs, from drowning in the Scugog river at the wharf on August 26th last. The presentation was made in the large dining-room, the chair being occupied by Mayor Smyth, who read the following letter:

HAMILTON, Sept. 17th, 1897.

To his Worship the Mayor of Lindsay:

DEAR SIR,—I send you to-day by registered mail the medal of this Association, which has been unanimously awarded by the Investigating Governors to Violet McDonnell-Coulter of Lindsay for presence of mind and conspicuous bravery in rescuing Herbert Beggs from drowning in the Scugog river 26th August, 1897.

I have respectfully to ask that you will on behalf of the Royal Canadian Humane Association present the medal to the brave lady in a public manner, and be good enough to send me a copy of newspaper containing an account of proceedings, to be filed with my records. Kindly acknowledge receipt.—Yours sincerely,
ADAM BROWN, President.

After referring in eulogistic terms to the coolness and bravery displayed by Miss Coulter in making the rescue, his worship handed the medal—a handsome bronze one—to Master Herbert, who pinned it on the breast of his rescuer, and was rewarded with a kiss. Short, pithy addresses were then made by Mr. Deacon, Judge Dean, County Crown Attorney Devlin, H. O'Leary, J. C. J. H. Sotheran, Dr. Burrows, J. B. Knowlson, Robert Ross, manager Dominion Bank, J. A. Paddon, Mayor Barron, Montreal, Sam. Britton and others. Refreshments were then served, and a half hour very pleasantly spent, after which the affair was brought to a close.
