THE EXCURSION.—Owing to the fact that the excursion to midland lasted only two days nearly all that were expected here from south and eastern points failed to come, and much disappointment is felt. Mr. McCauley of Oakwood preached two eloquent sermons to very large congregations, and on Monday evening after a beautiful repast of fellowship and other good things, which were served in the school room, the Rev. E. Roberts of Onemee addressed a large audience on "His trip across the Atlantic and what he saw in the old land." His lecture was very interesting yet profitable, and was greatly enjoyed by all present. The proceeds of the tea and lecture amounted to $80.

As he got all his lumber burnt in the recent fire he has decided to cut the remainder of his logs which are lying in Cameron lake.

NAVIGATION.—The river traffic of the Trent Valley canal is gradually decreasing as the season closes. The Beaver passed down on Friday with three coals loaded with hardwood. On Friday evening last the steamer Dawn carried an excursion to Lindsay. EDEN-MARIPOSA.

Special to the Watchman. ACCIDENT.—On Saturday, Oct. 1st, Alexander, youngest son of Mr. N. Gillies, met with what might have proven a fatal accident. He and his brother Hector, whose duty it is to draw their father's milk to the Mariposa cheese factory, after having returned home in the morning were driving to a somewhat lively speed from house to barn, when Alexander in some way fell off, alighting on his face on the ground striking his nose a stunning blow. The cover of a tin fell also and striking him on the back of the head, inflicted a wound. He was taken to the house where everything possible was done to stop the flow of blood, but without avail. Dr. Ray was summoned, who on arriving found that a vein had been cut. After working for some time the bleeding was stopped, wound dressed, and Alex., who is a bright, winning lad of ten summers, will soon be among his schoolmates again.

REUICING.—On Saturday last the home of Mr. T. Ferguson was an abode of overjoy, when a bouncing baby boy arrived at the household. Tom is the happiest papa in The Glen to-day. PERSONALS.—Mrs. A. Currie and children left on Tuesday of this week for their annual Nelson, B.C., after spending a pleasant summer with her brother, Mr. A. McRabb, and other friends, who all join in wishing her a safe and pleasant journey homeward. Miss K. Murchison has returned to the city after spending the summer with her aunt, Mrs. D. Ferguson. Mr. and Mrs. P. Cameron of The Fort, Bexley, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. N. Gillies a few days recently, having attended the Oakwood fair before returning. We understand our worthy S.S. supt., Mr. W. C. James, intends giving up tanning and taking up the work of an Evangelist. We truly think the Good Spirit is in the Garden of Eden, as this is our second Sunday school mission. Mr. Robt. Rogers, whose memory still lingers in the breast of the people, left several years ago, and now has a tenant, Mr. James, goes and does likewise. May every success crown his efforts. The young man approached the elderly capitalist with a confident air. "Sir," he said, "I love your daughter. I ask you for her hand." "You want my daughter?" he snarled. "Well, you'll get my foot." And he made a sudden advance on the youth. The latter did not quail. On the contrary, he leaped in the air. He waved his arms. He yelled: "Kill him, kill him! Robber, robber!" He jumped at the old man, who trembled and shrunk back. He covered before the savage onslaught. "Kill him, kill him!" roared the youth. "I'll reverse my season!" "For it appears that this young man had in some way learned the fact that in his early years the aged capitalist was a baseball umpire.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

COMMERCIAL.

Gradually prices are declining at the Western cattle yards in spite of the fact that offerings are not so liberal. Offerings Tuesday were only 36 carloads, including 316 sheep and lambs, 1,700 hogs, 20 calves and 10 milch cows and springers. There was not much life on the market. The run of cattle was the lightest since May 1. Not very many export cattle came in and not many are wanted. Trade was quiet in butchers' stock, but there was a good demand for stockers and feeders to go to Buffalo. The sheep market is dull and prices ruled low. Following are the prices paid:—
