FENELON FALLS. MORE POLES.—On Tuesday two or three of Howry & Son's employees commenced digging holes for posts (of which there will be thirteen) to carry electric light and telephone wires from the red mill to the residences of Mr. Howry and Mr. Swan, which are opposite each other a short distance north of the business portion of the main street. The rows of poles, leaning in different directions and at irregular distances apart, greatly disfiguring our main thoroughfare, just as the walls of race and slide and sluiceway greatly impair the beauty of the Falls; but they are all indications of progress and prosperity, and their hideousness is chiefly borne in consideration of their utility. A RESIDENT LAWYER.—On our first page will be found the professional card of Mr. F. A. McDiarmid, solicitor, conveyancer, etc., who has decided to try whether Fenelon Falls will not support a resident lawyer, as it did years ago before the closing of the mills caused the season of depression from which we are just beginning to emerge. Mr. McDiarmid is really a barrister, having passed his final examination, but there are no regular law firms to be passed through before he can practice as such. We wish him success, partly because we think he will deserve it and partly because the presence of a lawyer in the village will be both a benefit and a convenience.—Gazette.

HARTLEY. Special to the Watchman. FAREWELL ADDRESS.—On Saturday evening, Nov. 3rd, last, the members of Hartley association Patrons of Industry, met at the residence of Mr. Robt. Campbell and presented him with the following address: To Mr. Robt. Campbell, Secretary of the Patrons of Industry for the County of Victoria:—

DEAR BROTHER.—A few of your many brother patrons and friends in this vicinity learning that the time of your departure from amongst us is nigh at hand, meet with you this evening to express in a slight degree our hearty appreciation of your faithful and devoted service in our lodge. With great pleasure we recall the fidelity and diligence which you have attended to your duties, the interest you have shown for the success of every undertaking and the efforts put forth by you at all times for the promotion of the farmers' interests. You have at all times proved yourself a noble patron in our ranks, and by your consistency have set a worthy example to the rest of your brethren, to stand faithful to the order of which we all are members. Therefore we wish to use this occasion as an earnest plea in a great favor to have the privilege of giving expression of our respect and good will by asking your acceptance of this Beaver Cap as a slight remembrance of our Hartley fellow patrons. Further, we wish you success in your new undertaking, that you may long be spared to a life of usefulness, and that you may always in the future as in the past, have a warm recess in your heart to be firm to and advocate "Farmers' Rights." Signed on behalf of the Hartley lodge.

GR. GEORGE VANSTONE, Pres., BRO. JOHN C. CAMPBELL, Rec. Sec. Mr. Campbell thought completely taken by surprise, replied in a grateful manner thanking all for so kind and a reception.

MANILLA. Special to the Watchman. MOVED.—Mr. John Ande who for several years has worked the farm owned by Mrs. James Coone has moved to Darlington. Mr. Ande was an exceptionally good neighbor and a very active worker in the Methodist church where he will be greatly missed. Before taking his departure his many friends surprised him by presenting him and Mrs. Ande with beautiful addresses, expressing their regrets at their leaving the section and wishing them God speed in their remaining life work. As a lasting memorial of their appreciation of Mr. Ande as a teacher and superintendent of the Sabbath school, they presented him with a magnificent arm chair. May the blessing of God attend them in their new sphere, in our earnest wish.

HUNTER'S RETURN.—Mr. Robert Stevens and Mr. Levi Moshier, who have been north on a deer hunt succeeded in laying four of the antlered beauties low. Mr. Wm. Carter and Mr. John Wright are on a similar mission. Will declares that if he can't catch a deer he is going to set his cap for a deer. May success crown you as it is high time some of you old bachelors were shuffling the coil of single blessedness.

KIRKFIELD. Special to the Watchman.

OPEN LODGE.—Camp Ossain No. 142 S. O. S. of Kirkfield intend holding an open lodge on Thursday Nov. 15th from 7.30 p.m. A fine programme of songs, readings, recitations, etc., is being prepared. A number of brethren from neighboring lodges are expected to be present. After 8.30 p.m.—a closed lodge will be held.

CUREW BELL.—All children under the age of sixteen are not allowed to be on the streets after 7.30 p.m. The children are not in favor of the new law, but the villagers are delighted with the act and doubt it will be vigorously enforced, as no hope it will.

FRANKLIN. Special to the Watchman.

GRAIN MOVING.—Grain is coming into this market freely but the prices are so low for all kinds of grain that it is not worth drawing.

NOTES.—Most of the turnips are all housed and are a very good crop. The cheese factory closed on Friday after a very satisfactory seasons business.

PERSONAL.—Mr. C. Chittick of Lindsay gave this place a flying visit a short time ago on business. He is a live man.

SICKNESS.—Miss Hattie Pritchard is very ill at present, but it is hoped she will soon be all right again, under careful treatment.

SOUTH EMILY. Special to the Watchman.

PERSONALS.—Mrs. E. Sherridan was visiting friends in Lindsay during the past week. Mr. W. H. Laidly of Toronto, formerly a leading farmer in Ops is visiting his old acquaintances in this vicinity. Mrs. Shields of Norwood is the guest of Mr. W. S. Graham.

CHANGES.—Mr. Thos. Bowan has leased his farm to Mr. Sweeney. We much regret the departure of Thos., as he was very accommodating in drawing milk. Mr. D. Callaghan has removed to the Orange Line. The trustees of Labanon church have made great improvements on their new building. New chimneys were constructed, a coat of paint applied to the exterior and exterior and the roof shingled.

AGRICULTURAL.—South Emily has always been noted as a grain producing locality. Time changes, now nearly every farmer has from 20 to 40 pigs and also sends 8 or 10 cows to the successful factory at Mt. Pleasant. Roots are so plentiful that people have been gathering them for the past two weeks. Fowl, fruit, and clover are deserving much attention. Is this Mr. Editor, not a step in the right direction?

NOT LAW ABIDING.—A very bold bound entered the dining room of a very venable gentleman immediately after breakfast while the inmates were at daily prayers. It tried to draw some victuals with his paw, from the table but finally overturned the table smashing every piece of china. In Mr. Pleasant's same animal stole a roast of beef from a table in the absence of the cook, a few days before the former occurrence. Why not notify the north village and collect the search gang.

(Owing to the extensive correspondence the Watchman is gaining much fame in this vicinity.

VALENTIA. Special to the Watchman.

THANKSGIVING.—Thanksgiving day will be right royally celebrated here on the 22nd of Nov. by a fowl dinner under the auspices of the Methodist church. An energetic committee have the matter in hand and are sparing no pains to make the dinner a success. We understand Mr. Shorey president of the Bay of Quinte conference has consented to be present and deliver an address, also several other leading divines will be present. Another leading feature of the program will be in the fact that Mr. Hobbs has consented to be present with his travelling troop of songsters which will render choice selections, vocal and instrumental. A cordial invitation is extended to all to be present and participate in the evening's enjoyment.

PERSONALS.—Mr. and Mrs. Roberts of Port Huron have for this past week been visiting friends here. Miss Lena Scott has returned home from Toronto after seven weeks visit with friends. We understand she purposes going back in a few weeks. Miss N. Swain, of Cavan is at present the guest of her cousin, Miss Madge Swain. Mrs. S. Irwin and Mrs. E. Pogue, of Lindsay, have for the past few days been visiting Mrs. Carpenter and friends. Among the many visitors on Sunday we noticed Dr. Naysmith and Mr. T. Hannah of Janoville.

JANETVILLE. Special to the Watchman.

CREDIT SALE.—We learn that Mr. Jno. Peel, of No. 24, in the 9th concession of Cartwright, has decided to retire from farming and purposes selling off all his farm stock, implements, etc., on Thursday, November 15th, commencing at one o'clock sharp. Mr. Thos. Swain will wield the hammer and everything will be sold without reserve.

GLANDINE. Special to the Watchman.

LITERARY.—The regular meeting of our literary society was held on Nov. 2nd at 7.30 p.m. The minutes of last meeting were read and adopted, and after discussing business of interest to the society the programme opened, which was as follows:—Reading, Mr. Thomas Prouse; recitation, Mr. J. Davidson; song, glee club; recitation, Mr. S. Davidson; reading, Mr. F. Webster; song, glee club; debate, subject, "Resolved that the pen is mightier than the sword." For the affirmative, Messrs. W. Davidson, Geo. Davidson and W. B. Johnston. For the negative, Messrs. J. Sennett, A. E. Silverwood and S. A. Davidson. The music and elocution numbers were excellently well rendered, while the debate created a great deal of enthusiasm, the decision being given in favor of the affirmative. Our meetings have aroused considerable latent talent in this vicinity and we believe Glandine possesses in the near future many brilliant stars in the constellation of literary fame. In behalf of the society we extend a very cordial invitation to every one to attend our meetings held every Friday at 7.30 p.m.

PERSONAL.—Mr. C. Casselman, of the Lindsay collegiate institute, spent Saturday and Sunday here, the guest of Mr. Lesley Webster. Mrs. Henderson, of Mount Pleasant, also paid a short visit to friends in this locality.

"They Made Their Sneak."

In an up-town dance house the world has grown cold with the approach of November's chilling winds. On Friday evening last the prospects were particularly bright, no less than eight of the "finest" being presented. It is true that none of the sterner sex had yet made their appearance, but any fears on this score were laid at rest when in stepped four stirring representatives of the east end. It was a case at once of "Let the dance go on, and the joy be unconfined," and "Danny" struck up with the enlivening strains of the "Irish washerwoman," and in vision contemplated the third change when he would have collected the shilling five cents per couple. "First four forward and back, balance and swing your partners," went along merrily for the first and second changes, after enjoying which the four stalwarts came boldly forward to the musician, made a very low bow, and then fled slowly outside, not even being accompanied by slow music, leaving the ladies standing upon the floor equally amazed with the proprietor at their great nerve. "Danny" drew the bow across the violin in one long, mournful dirge, and then spake thus: "I'll hang you on the wall, and go to work in the morning."

Judge Dugas says 'They Block the Wheels of Justice.'

Montreal, Nov. 5.—Judge Dugas said that the Ontario magistrates, or at least some of them, were doing and had done all in their power to stop the course of the law as administered by the authorities of Montreal. The case which had brought Judge Dugas to a boiling-over point was that of Arthur Scotte, who was accused of stealing two loads of hay. It seems that Scotte left Montreal and went to Ottawa. High Constable Bissonnette telegraphed to Ottawa for his detention. When Bissonnette arrived at Ottawa for his man he was informed by Magistrate O'Gara that as he considered that there was no case against the prisoner he would not countersign the warrant. Judge Dugas said that if this had been the first instance of this kind he would think nothing of it, but that it was a common occurrence and a matter to be brought to the public notice. The judge also said that unofficially he had been informed that the matter had gone so far that magistrates had stated in the presence of Justice MacMahon of Ottawa that their clients could not obtain justice before the courts of the Province of Quebec. It was also stated by the judges of the Province of Ontario that this was occasioned by the presence of French judges on the bench in the Province of Quebec.

JAPS STILL MARCHING ON.

Their Onward Advance is Still Unchecked.

CHINESE FEAR TO MEET THEM.

Fled Precipitately, Throwing Away Arms and Ammunition—The Chinese Will Not Defend Their Forts and Their Plucky Little Opponents Advance With Out Receiving Any Check.

London, Nov. 5.—The Central News has this despatch, dated at Kulienchao on Nov. 3: "After the capture of Kulienchao on the 26th, the Japanese headquarters were moved from Wi-Ju to this point. Two columns chased the Chinese to Sato and attacked Andong. The Chinese fled without fighting, throwing away arms and drums in the flight. "Gen. Tatum started for Fong Wong on the 31st. The garrison made no show of fight, but fled to the main body as soon as the Japanese approached. The principal generals are proceeding with their troops toward Moukden. "The inhabitants of Haichiao and Takoshan complain bitterly of the violence of the Chinese soldiers, from whom they suffered constantly during the occupation. They are very friendly toward the Japanese. At present the Japanese are taking no prisoners. Three hundred Chinese bodies were found after the capture of Kulienchao, many of them having died of wounds received in previous battles. "By the capture of Fong Wong, Andong and two more abandoned batteries, the Japanese came in possession of 55 cannon, 20,000 rounds of ammunition, 1500 muskets and 2,000,000 cartridges, besides an enormous quantity of miscellaneous supplies. "Marshal Yamagata has ordered that all labor and supplies be paid for as soon as obtained by the Japanese, consequently the inhabitants of the country volunteer their services and gladly provide the commissariat with any needed provisions. Marshal Yamagata has established an office of civil administration in Andong, and has placed in charge Col. Komura, Secretary of the Japanese Legation in Korea. He has issued a proclamation promising protection to the people and ordering them to pay this year's taxes to Col. Kamouria. "From Tokyo the Central News hears, under to-day's date, that the Government is expecting soon to receive reports from Gen. Oyama and his army, although as yet no news of decisive operations at Port Arthur has been received. From Shanghai the Central News hears that several European war ships are cruising near Port Arthur, waiting the expected battle. It is reported in Shanghai that the Japanese fleet will go into mourning for the czar.

TOO MUCH MOTHER-IN-LAW.

It Brings a Cousin of Commodore Vanderbilt Into Trouble. New York, Nov. 5.—Col. Vanderbilt Allen, a nephew of the late Commodore Vanderbilt, had an encounter with a made a lively social scandal, and is causing no end of excitement among the good people of Millford, Pa. More than that, it cost the colonel a bad quarter of an hour, or rather, a number of them in the Millford jail, and a round fine, imposed about a week or so ago, and here is the story of it: Col. Allen came to Millford about four years ago, and after bringing to an end divorce proceedings with his second wife he married Miss Edith Mott of Millford. The bride was 22 and the groom 27.

They lived in a handsome residence on a trip to Italy was taken, when he sold out. While in Italy two daughters were born, only to die shortly afterwards. Letters were written to the one's mother-in-law, Mrs. Lizzie Mott of Millford, to set up an establishment for them as they were coming home, which was done. Col. Allen and his wife arrived, accompanied by an Italian, who shortly left, claiming that the mother-in-law was starving her. The mother-in-law was starving her. The mother-in-law was starving her. The mother-in-law was starving her. The mother-in-law was starving her.

He left the house he sought to raise a session of his family portraits and medals of honor he had won while serving as major in the Egyptian army. His mother-in-law objected. He was worsted the colonel, and he was sent to the remainder in pastures. He was employed by him $50 for housekeeping. In the meantime mother-in-law Mott has gone to Ellenville, N.Y., where she has a daughter living, to escape being served with legal papers.
