LITTLE BRITAIN MEAT SHOP

The convenience of an up-to-date Butcher Shop in Little Britain is thoroughly appreciated by the public, hence my increasing trade.

No butcher shop in Ontario carries better meat than I do, while my prices are several cents lower per pound than is asked in Lindsay.

Leave your trade in the village and thus help to build it up.

I MAKE HARNESS

Other people talk about it. My Light and Heavy Sets look First Prize at the Lindsay Central Fair and farmers and horsemen that have dealt with me say the judges were right. I take pains to make GOOD HARNESS FROM GOOD STOCK.

I sell Blankets, Whips, Rugs, Combs, Circles and Saddles. LET ME DO YOUR REPAIRING.

E. B. DILLMAN
The Tailor, Little Britain.

There Is Nothing

Startling in making a suit of clothes to order for $14, $16 or $18, but there is everything startling when a suit at these prices compares favorably with the $18 suit of a Lindsay tailor. I can verify this broad assertion before you leave my store. I charge nothing for advice.

J. J. RICH,
The Tailor, Little Britain.

THE BEST GOODS ARE THE CHEAPEST

—I handle standard goods only.
—Canadian Steel Air Motor.
—Massey-Harris Implement.
—Full stock of Plows.
—Toronto Grain Grinders
—Buggies, Cutters, etc. of all descriptions.
—Give me a call.

W. E. YEREX, Little Britain

ROAD HORSES FEET

Require careful attention. HORSE-SHOEING is a specialty with me, and I have been very successful in this line. My customers are all pleased. If you have a horse that interferes, has flat feet, or is troubled with knee-biting bring him to me. I have cured others and perhaps can cure yours.

REPAIRS of all kind promptly attended to. Charges Moderate.

W. J. YEO,
General Blacksmith, Little Britain.

WE CAN SAVE YOU

Dollars in the purchase of your Furniture. Our stock is now very complete, and includes all lines carried by a First-Class FURNITURE STORE. See our Parlor, Dining-Room and Bed-Room Sets, Easy Chairs, Sofas, Lounges, etc. Prices right. Goods up-to-date. Bring your REPAIRING to us.

"I HAD NO IDEA"

That a job like that could be done outside the city is a remark frequently made in our shop, when customers see the class of work done in the way of MACHINE REPAIRING, ETC. If you have a job you thought you would have to take to Toronto bring it to The Little Britain Foundry and Machine Repair Shop.

THE HABIT OF BUYING AT WELDON'S

is a good habit. It is a rapidly growing habit with all Mariposa people. It is a habit by which hundreds save in their daily and monthly and yearly expenditures. It is a habit that becomes more fixed the older people become. And the broad reason is satisfaction. People are satisfied with WELDON'S merchandise. People are satisfied with Weldon's prices. People are satisfied with the ways of the store, its manners and methods.

BLACKWATER

ACCIDENT.—Mr. L. Stone of Canington, and who has been in the employ of the Grand Trunk railway as section man for a number of years happened with a very severe accident recently. He, with other men, were loading gravel on a car at Blackwater when the bank gave away covering him to the shoulders. He noticed the bank move and ran to get under the car, but was caught just as he passed under the car and was pinned against the rail with several tons of earth on top of him, only his head escaping. It took twenty minutes to dig him out. He was removed to his home at Canington, where, on examination it was found that he was suffering from a number of severe bruises on legs and body.

LIFFORD

HE STRIKES BACK.—In this age of advanced culture we are constantly aroused by the light of new discoveries and inventions, to which the great laborer of some human mind has led. For this we are ever on the alert, but inadvertently incidents occur to which we are not accustomed, and we are awakened to the great fact that we know not when an individual may discover that he is endowed with something more than the ordinary gifts of man. One of the latest and most remarkable discoveries in this direction seems to be the ability of a certain individual to transform himself. Such seems to be the gift with which the Lifford correspondent of a couple of weeks ago is endowed. He seems to imagine himself with phantasms. At one time he assumes the form of a fence inspector, and tests the merits of the instructor by driving ahead of him a mixed herd of horses, bulls, rabbits and hogs. Whether he might be considered as one of the latter the reader may judge for himself by the sarcastic and ignoring criticisms which he makes of everything and everybody whose thoughts and actions do not come within the circle of his bigoted intellect. Again, in the early hours of morning, he hovers over the stable-yards of our little burg and listens to the private disputes of a couple of individuals, which otherwise would never have been known to the outside world. Yet, in his understandings, has not heretofore been restrained. In this respect he reminds us very much of the school "bully" whose knuckles are always itching for trouble, yet because of an immature mind he is allowed to go unchecked until by his insatiable desire for and persistence in domineering insolence over innocents, he is at least denied the privilege of playing his little game, known by Aesop as "The Boys and the Frogs." He has now, methinks, reached the climax of this ambition, when as a sneak in a vacant corner, where he had an opportunity of hearing what went on at a certain "barquet" which, through his imaginative genius, has become falsely augmented and elaborated. He says well when he remarks that he had an "opportunity to hear," else we would have said his eyesight were bad, as several gentlemen he makes mention of were not present, and some were present he does not mention. Those of the former group are Messrs. J. Barry, A. Wilson, E. Staples and W. Halloran, while among those of the latter were Messrs. E. Atkinson and E. J. T. McNeill. He couples with the toast of the evening, "The Ladies," the names of Messrs. E. Staples and W. Halloran, who in fact were not present, but since the reply to this toast was made by another gentleman of the same profession as Mr. Staples and having the same Christian name, perhaps he became somewhat confused. Then he fails to report all of this speech, perhaps of his inefficiency to make use of his stenographic knowledge.

ORILLIA

BROKE HIS ARM IN FOUR PLACES.—Alf. McColl, who is well known in town as the travelling salesman for an oil firm, met with a serious accident while working in the hold of the tug Little near Waubausene on Wednesday, Nov. 2nd. In some unaccountable way he became entangled in the crank shaft. One of McColl's arms was broken in four places and one ear was split in two. He suffered so when being removed that his attendants found it necessary to give him a piece of wood to chew as a means of easing his mind's tension. The tug is owned by Mr. D. Thompson, Front-st., Orillia. The injured man has been removed to Toronto, his home.

MANSE GROVE—ELDON
Special to the Watchman.
PERSONALS.—Miss Annie Heaillip has returned home after spending two months with friends at Toronto, Niagara and Buffalo. Her many friends are pleased to have her in their midst again. Mrs. Wakelin of Canington, and her sister Mrs. Courtemanche of Norland, called on friends last week. Rev. D. D. McDonald spent last week in the city. Mr. Mathieson of Knox college, occupied the pulpit in the absence of the pastor, and preached a very impressive discourse. We bespeak for him a bright career in the ministry.

BARRIE

RATHER A PECULIAR CASE.—In August 1887 Mathew Dunlop, a farmer living in the township of Tossoronto, adopted a young girl and in consideration of work she was to do, agreed to train her properly and educate her. Mr. Dunlop died this summer leaving an estate of $5000. This girl claimed that the deceased gentleman had not fulfilled his part of the bargain and she sued the estate for wages. The case was tried by Sir W. R. Meredith in Barrie and he allowed the girl $500 damages. Her story of what work she had done on the farm was a most surprising one. She swore that she did much cradling and binding in harvest time, and one year had handled all the grain on the farm twice. She also had to do harrowing, pitched manure, took care of the stock in the winter, cut wood in the bush and teamed it to the house, washed and sheared the sheep in the spring and did all other kinds of nice work on the farm. We often hear old people talking about roughing it long ago but we would like to see the woman that can beat this girl's story.

PROTESTS HIS INNOCENCE.—D. B. Johnston, the optician sentenced to three years in Kingston penitentiary for rape, was taken to that institution last Tuesday by Sheriff Drury. The prisoner remained over night at police headquarters in Toronto and had an interview with his wife before leaving for the Limestone City. Johnston protests his innocence of the charge, but admits that he acted unwisely in taking the girl away from home and also in representing himself as being the owner of a house in Toronto worth $18,000 and having $5,000 in cash, when he had scarcely one cent to rub against another. He hopes, through the aid of his solicitor, T. C. Robinette, to prove his innocence, and the case will in all probability be presented to the minister of justice.

MUSKOKA

GOOD NEWS.—On Saturday morning the creditors of the Hunt banking estate, Bracebridge, were the recipients of a circular from the assignee, Sheriff Bettes, amounting a cheque for 20 per cent of the amount of their claim in the said estate. A large number of the creditors were, as a consequence, all smiles. The inspectors now give it as their opinion that the estate will yet yield another 30 per cent. This is good news to the many who had given up their deposits as lost money.

TORONTO

YOUNG CRIMINALS.—Juvenile crime is prevalent in the city. One day last week fourteen youngsters, ranging in ages from 8 to 16 years, appeared before Magistrate Kingsford charged with such serious crimes as arson, burglary, theft, and aggravated assault.

GLAD TO GO HOME.—Jas. Jacobs, aged 15, and Oswego youth, became enamored with the prattle of Lake Ontario wavelets and shipped on the coal schooner Clara Howe, on Wednesday night of last week. The Clara Howe headed for Toronto with a load of coal, and was caught in Thursday's storm. A thousand times during the trip Jacobs wished himself safely back home. He was very sick all night, and was an extremely meek runaway boy when Detective Cuddy arrested him at the boat. He was remanded to

MINDEN

A WHITE DEER.—A real four-footed white deer was shot this week near Allsaw, on the road leading to Haliburton. The lucky sportsman was Mr. Sylvester of Toronto, being one of a party of friends of Mr. James L. Brown, who have been on a visit to that gentlemen during the hunting season.

ELECTION OF ELDER.—The election of ruling elders in the Presbyterian church, Minden, on the 6th inst., resulted in the choice of Mr. Phillips, Mr. W. Smith, Mr. Mounsey and Mr. Z. B. Johnston for Minden congregation, and Mr. R. Hagg, Mr. Lewis, Mr. J. Taylor for Twelve Mile Lake church. Their ordination is announced for December.

TARRED.—Constable Stenden and Mr. Robt. Howard of Bracebridge went to the lake on Monday with warrants for the arrest of several men who are said to be guilty of tarring from head to foot a female who resides near Bala. They appear to have lacked the feathers, but the offence, if the facts are reported, will be none the less serious. This will likely be a case at the district court.

TOO GRABBY.—The old story of the monkey imprisoned by its own greed when it could not withdraw its paw from a jar because of the large number of nuts enclosed in its grasp, had its counterpart at Gravenhurst on Saturday. A calf o
