MANILLA.

SPECIAL TO THE WATCHMAN.

I.O.O.F. ENTERTAINMENT.—The Odd-fellows of this village propose giving a grand concert in their new hall on New Year's night Jan. 1st. Mr. Sim Fax of London, Ont., Canada's greatest vocalist and dramatic reciter has been engaged and will be assisted by Miss Trengloss Stevenson of Guelph, the famous "Queen of song." These artists have been greeted with crowded houses in all parts of Canada and the United States, and a rich treat is in store for those who attend. Grand Master W. H. Hoyle will deliver an address, and recitations will be given by Mr. C. E. Kelly. Admission 25c. reserved seats 35c; children 15c. Concert commences at 8 o'clock.

FRANKLIN.

SPECIAL TO THE WATCHMAN.

THE ROADS in these parts are very bad and business is quiet. The farmers had only properly started for their winter's work.

SOCIAL.—Court Manvers Independent Order of Foresters held a grand social on the 12th in the Orange hall, Bethany. Dr. C. H. Brererton ably filled the chair. Addresses were given by the Rev. Alex. McGillivray of Toronto, P.H.C.R., and Bro. Douglas of Cavanville, and the chairman, Bro. George McCartney gave a humorous reading entitled "The Scotchman and his bicycle," which was very interesting and caused a great deal of amusement. Altogether a nice evening was spent, when the company broke up, giving a vote of thanks to the ladies for their bountiful spread and the singing of "God Save the Queen."

DUNSFORD.

SPECIAL TO THE WATCHMAN.

THE ENTERTAINMENT given by the pupils of S.S. No. 2, Verulam, was a decided success in all respects. The schoolhouse was full in spite of the inclement weather and everybody went away well pleased with their evening's outing.

OBITUARY.—It is with sad feelings that we chronicle the demise of Samuel Jackson of Lindsay, who was interred in the Presbyterian cemetery on Sunday last, Rev. Mr. MacMillan of Lindsay, officiating. The last sad rites were performed by the A.P. and A.M. of which deceased was a member.

here last Wednesday for Cobcock where he is taking charge of a drug store. We wish him success. Miss Aggie Woollard of Raymond, returned home to spend her Christmas holidays.

TEA.—The annual tea and entertainment will be held in St. John's Sunday school, December 31st. A good time is expected. Come along and have a good time.

NORTH MANVERS

SPECIAL TO THE WATCHMAN.

CLOVER THRESHING.—The people of this vicinity are busy threshing their clover at present, which is not turning out as well as expected. Faureur and Colvin are the threshers and they give good satisfaction.

BUYING.—Mr. Frank Gordon passed through here one day last week and picked up quite a large amount of stock. The people do not feel inclined to feed much stock this winter as feed is scarce in this section of the country.

VISITING.—Mrs. Robert Mills of Brandon, Manitoba, is visiting friends in this part. Mr. Joseph Mills of Lifford, is visiting friends here.

SOUTH EMILY.

SPECIAL TO THE WATCHMAN.

PERSONAL.—Miss M. McLean of Toronto, is visiting her brother-in-law, Mr. J. B. Hayes. Miss Mitchell is visiting her brother in Cranmah township. Miss Jane Coulter is now living with Mr. Wm. Adams.

REMOVALS.—Mr. A. Jones has decided to cease farming and has removed to Omeme. Mr. D. Rowan will soon remove to the same hamlet. No ELECTION is expected this year.

The present council has done very satisfactory—but a few must have a ballot and turn them out.

ADVICE.—At the present time it seems that a man, whether he has proved very capable of doing the business must step out. This teaches officers to be careless, but I might venture to say, careful about their own pockets. Let us have no election. Save the cost and thereby lower the taxes.

GLENARM.

SPECIAL TO THE WATCHMAN.

BIRTHS.—Mr. and Mrs. S. Nicholson are rejoicing over the addition of a son to their family.

ACCIDENT.—Our village blacksmith had the misfortune to have a red hot flake of iron strike him in the eye, fortunately not completely injuring the sight, but causing very severe suffering for some time.

MILL NOTES.—Messrs. Cameron and Nicholson's steam grain crusher is a great success. Try them and be convinced.

VISITING.—We hope the tonic of Maple leaves will prove so effectual to the "Lovely Vines" that the reading public will receive no more reports of their Sodomistic deeds in future.

CHURCH NOTES.—The anniversary services in connection with the Presbyterian church were conducted by Rev. Mr. MacMillan of Lindsay, assisted by the pastor, Rev. Mr. McDonald. The building was filled at each service. Mr. MacMillan is an able, earnest preacher, and we will be glad to see him often. The annual meeting of the congregation will be held on Dec. 24th, when a full attendance of the members is requested.

MUD TURTLE LAKE.

SPECIAL TO THE WATCHMAN.

ACCIDENT.—Mr. G. H. Runny happened with a serious accident on Monday last, when one of his horses kicked him in the face and breast, result of which has confined him to his bed. We hope he will be around again in a few days, as it is rumored he is a candidate for councilman this year. With our united efforts he will be elected.

PERSONAL.—Mr. R. Windrum is spending his vacation under the parental roof. The ladies are glad to see Bob. Mr. R. McBride is visiting friends in the vicinity of Minden. Tom is a jovial fellow, and has friends wherever he goes.

REORGANIZING.—The Mud Turtle debating society is about to reorganize, under the leadership of Mr. B. Richmond, who has returned from the North-west.

HOOKE BY A COW.—Mr. M. Fountain had one of his colts hooked by a cow the other day, which necessitated the removal of part of the covering of the bowels. Under the skillful treatment of Dr. Sneller the colt is fast recovering.

A BUSINESS TRIP.—Mr. R. Runny was in Fenelon Falls on Monday with a load of hogs for Mr. H. Austin. Bob seems to enjoy a trip to the Falls; of course he only goes on business.

VALENTIA.

SPECIAL TO THE WATCHMAN.

INTRODUCTORY.—I am sitting down in the back kitchen (my ink got frozen last night so I had to bring it in here to get it thawed out) trying to write you these few lines, to let you know that the people in Valentia are living yet, although every thing is very quiet. Wood cutting is the order of the day.

RECOVERING.—I am pleased to state that Miss Lena Scott is recovering from her recent illness.

LEAVING.—I regret to learn that Mr. John Frise will leave us in a short time, John is commencing to look very sad.

ENGAGED.—The cheese-maker has been engaged here for another year, as Mr. Stillman has resigned. We are not sure if he made the big cheese that was at the Worlds Fair or not, but he can make one just as big and good. We wish him success.

RE-ENGAGED.—Miss Ida Mark is re-engaged as teacher for 1896.

DEAR OLD SANTA CLAUS.—I promised the boys I would write to you and tell you what they wanted in their stocking for New Year's and I thought I would put it

THE NET THAT DRAWS

It has been our aim for years past to offer clothing unapproachable in material, style and finish—clothing which would fit the wearer, would be scarcely distinguishable from "to order" goods, in appearance and wear, would appear to both the classes and the masses,

QUALITY and CHEAPNESS

To make and maintain a reputation. Have we succeeded?

Looking back a little while and comparing sales, then and now, there cannot be a doubt of it. Had our clothing been poor and dowdy, ill made and ill finished, ill shaped, ill looking—had it been such stuff that a buyer once bit, would give us a wide berth ever after, then failure, dire failure, must have ensued speedily. But what is the case? Heavier production, much bigger sales, continuous customers, evident satisfaction, a business equal to that of any other establishment outside of the large clothing establishments in the large cities. Don't that look uncommonly like success? Without wishing to be boastful, we may fairly be considered the Popular Clothiers of the City and District.

Just now, however, we want more particularly to mention two or three special lines, suitable to the season:—

Men's Overcoats, Men's Pea Jackets, Men's Suits, Boy's Overcoats and Suits.

In these our range of choice has possibly one fault—there is perhaps too much to choose from, but the quality, cut, finish and appearance is beyond question. As for price, if we can't give as good an article for ONE FOURTH LESS than any other stores, don't believe us hereafter. Practically, however, we have no competitors in either quality or price. That has been demonstrated over and over again. Our Goods Sell Themselves on Sight. We have no "swaps"; dissatisfaction unknown.

GOUGH BROS.,

The Wonderful Cheap Men,

Lindsay and Peterboro.

IN THE WATCHMAN as I was sure you would get it before any other paper, and you would believe it, too, for THE WATCHMAN never fabricates, John Frise says he wants a life-sized portrait of Sir Walter Scott. Thomas Sugget wants a life-sized portrait of the Mark Comic company; Thos. Carpenter wants a nice bunch of roses; Jos. Hobbs would like a return ticket to Zion; Frank Thompson would like an invitation to dine with the Swain; and, oh, I was nearly forgetting J. B. Emmerson, would like a stuffed porcupine; William Sugget wants a quarter of venison. Now I am sure I have told you what every one would like, and hope you won't disappoint them. If there should happen to be holes in any of the boy's stockings just leave the presents on the back stove lid. Good bye.—[Snow Snobs.

PLEASANT POINT—FENELON.

SPECIAL TO THE WATCHMAN.

EXAMINATION.—The public school No. 7, Fenelon, held their examination this year in the afternoon of Thursday, Dec. 19th. The teacher, Mr. McFadyen, and scholars were very much encouraged by the large attendance of parents and friends. After a very careful examination of from two to three hours, there was a short intermission, during which time preparations were being made for a short, but interesting program, which continued until darkness veiled the scene. The parents and children then separated for their several homes well satisfied with the results of the examination.

CONCERT.—The entertainment which was to be held on the evening of the 20th, in the schoolroom, took place in accordance with the appointment and proved to be a complete success. The meeting was called to order at 7.30 and Mr. J. Kennedy, Sen., was appointed chairman. The first half of the program was conducted by the pupils of the public school, and the excellent way in which it was rendered aroused the admiration of all the beholders. The second part of the program was rendered chiefly by the senior members of the Sabbath school. It consisted of choice recitations, speeches, instrumental, clubwinging, songs, dialogues, tableaux, etc. The program from first to last was all that could be desired. The careful selection and arrangement of the different prizes, the perfect preparation of the different selections, the beautifully decorated building, the able management of the whole entertainment; and the excellent program from first to last, reflects great credit on those who so earnestly strived to make it a success. By 11.30 p.m. the chairman announced to the sorrow of all, the last piece "Good Night Ladies," and after all had finished their "little talk" and big praises, they quietly separated for home.

PERSONAL.—Mr. and Mrs. Fred Myres, who have been away on a trip to Cleveland, Ohio, are back among us again, after an enjoyable visit to some friends in that city. Mr. John R. Hay, and Mr. Bruce Greer are home from the city to spend their vacation under their respective parental roofs. Mr. and Mrs. J. Wallace are at present visiting friends down around the old homestead.

OAKWOOD.

SPECIAL TO THE WATCHMAN.

A TIME TO BUY.—No better time than the present can be found to buy harness, and no better place than from E. PROUSE, Oakwood. He makes it a rule never to allow any out the best made harness to leave his shop, and by this means has built up a very large trade in Mariposa and surrounding townships. If you want well made, reliable farm harness or a set of nobby single harness, or anything pertaining to a horse's outfit—ropes, covers, bridles, whips, etc.—PROUSE is the man you want to see. Also a number of handsome fur coats.—E.T.F.

RETURNED.—John Chidley, son of Mr. James Chidley, who resides about two miles south of this village, arrived home from North Dakota last week. He has been in the west for the past four years farming and has done well. There are quite a large number of Victoria county people in Dakota, all doing well and quite content. Among these are the Littlejohns, near Glasston, formerly of Mariposa; the McConnells, formerly of Verulam, parents of Mrs. Wm. Simpson of Lindsay; Mr. Arch. Sinclair, brother of Mr. Donald Sinclair, of Lindsay, and at one time a resident of Salem, Mariposa; the Booths, formerly of Verulam; Mr. Duncan Spence and Duncan Campbell, both well-known former residents of Eldon; and many others. Mr. Chidley will return again in March.

I.O.O.F. CONCERT.—A grand concert under the auspices of the Oddfellows will be given at Manilla on New Year's night, Jan. 1st. Sim Fax, of London, Miss Trengloss Stevenson, of Guelph, will take part. It will be the treat of the season, and you should not miss it.

HOW TO CHOOSE A WIFE.—Here is Public School Inspector McBrien's method of choosing a wife:—"Instead of practicing too much chair pressing, just ask your sweet heart to go for a walk, and walk her 12 miles, over a rocky country, then if she don't puff but breathe easily, pop the question." Say, boys, here's your chance to test your fair ones trot 'em out to Lindsay and back some moonlight night, and if they don't puff or blow (about it) and are up at 6 the next morning and have the family washing out by 9, and are not a bit tired, you are quite safe in popping the question. But whether you are accepted is another question.

HYMNAL.—A quiet wedding took place here on the 18th inst., when Mrs. Weldon and Mr. Sanderson were joined together by the Rev. S. McAuley. The interesting ceremony was witnessed by a select number of personal friends. The happy, though not youthful couple, will cast in their lot with the citizens of Oakwood, where Mrs. Weldon has resided under that name for a quarter of a century.

C.O.C.F.—The following are the officers for the ensuing year: Chief councillor, Wm. Lowmabrough; vice-councillor, Jno. Weldon; recorder, G. B. Rennie; treasurer, A. O. Hogg; prelate, Chas. Thomas; marshal, Malon Weldon; warden, J. W. Mark; guard, Thos. Puley; sentry, Nicholas Hill; representative, P. S. Mark; alternate, A. O. Hogg; med. exam., Dr. Chambers; past councillors, P. S. Mark, R. P. Butler, (Toronto), Joseph Coad, (Manitoba), A. O. Hogg. This society continues to increase in membership and popularity. Its membership here is now over 60.

I.O.F.—The following are the officers for the ensuing year: Chief ranger, Wm. Short; vice chief, Chas. Perrin; recording secretary, D. A. Anderson; financial secretary, G. B. Rennie; treasurer, W. Arksey; chaplain; Thos. Rich; senior woodward, Jno. Perry; junior woodward, Geo. Wilson; senior beadle, Orson Weldon; junior beadle, A. Harding; court deputy, Chas. Perrin.

PROSTRATED FOR TWO YEARS WITH LIVER COMPLAINT.

Restored to Perfect Health by South American Nervine was Mr. W. J. Hill, of Bracebridge, Ont.

When men and women can be got away from simply temporizing with disease there will be less disease in the world. The immediate matter it is natural, is to relieve the present trouble. But how often is it forgotten that any cure that is only skin deep, if we may use the expression, cannot be lasting. It will certainly turn up again. This was the case with Mr. W. J. Hill, the well-known bailiff of Bracebridge, Ont. He had suffered from severe liver trouble and nervous prostration for nearly three years. During this time he doctored to no end, and occasionally secured a little temporary relief. But the old trouble would come back again after the charm of the cure-alls had been exhausted.

He entered upon the use of South American Nervine, with little hope that it would be any better than other medicines he had taken. But he soon discovered the mistake. Where doctors had said that he must die, this medicine gave him life. He persevered with it, and to-day is in possession of robust health. The secret is this: South American Nervine treats with the nerve centres, from which flows the life blood that keeps the system in perfect health. When these nerve centres are kept healthy, neither liver complaint nor other troubles will worry one. Mr. Hill's cure was lasting for this reason. Anyone who uses Nervine will experience same results.—Sold by A. Higinbotham, druggist, Lindsay.
