Clark, Abbott, Leith and Prust. The program was very full, and between the songs and recitations the company moved their chairs aside and danced quadrilles. This combination of sweet music, intellectual manifestations and graceful motion resulted in or e of the most delightful meetings ever held in the country, and the Book Cub by its invention has obtained a place in the world's history. On Tuesday evening, though the weather was very wet and stormy, a large number assembled, and the chief vocalists were Mrs. Young, Mrs. Southby, Mr. Abbott, and Mr. Taman. Miss Read, Miss Prust, and Miss McMillan sang a trio with excellent effect. Miss Annie Hurd gave a capital recitation, roars of laughter. The evening was throughout one of great enjoyment, MILD SEASON .- The ice which had Tuesday and quickly disappeared was four inches of clear ice on the lake.
