stumps that had supported the bulwark; so of course I followed.

'She's laden with gold, Jack, for a sovereign,' he says, in a whisper.

'Then why has not somebody been before and got it out of her?' I says.

'Afraid of the spirits, my lad,' he said, laughingly.

'Bill what's that?' I says, with my mouth turing all dry, and a horrible shuddering feeling creeping over me.

'What's what, stupid!' he says. 'Nothing. You ain't afraid of ghosts, are you? Jack, Jack, look!' he says directly after; and he caught me by the arm with a strong grip, as he pointed to where the star cabin must have been.

He saw it now as plainly as I did, that there was a curious dull light shining out from that part of the ship, and as we looked this seemed to make plain the whole of the after part only in a dim strange way, and instead of looking decayed there was the tall pop-deck all plain, with its great tiller and big lanterns round the bulwarks, all of them burning, while grouped around, standing, sitting, lying, or hanging over the bulwarks, were about twenty swarthy-looking fellows with black hair and hands.

They were all armed with long swords, and one fellow, who had a feather in his cap had on a sort of puffed breeches, and a steel thing all over his breast, while his mustaches were long and pointed, and he kept on drawing them out with one hand, while with the other he nursed a very large thin sword across his lap.

I was puzzled at first to make out what he was sitting on, but I saw directly that it was a long bright brass cannon, and that four more of his companions were sitting on big brass guns, only these pointed out of the sides, while the one the black-mustached fellow sat on was a long gun, right in the centre of the deck.

It seemed so curious, too, that whatever the strange light fell, the deck looked sound and there were ropes coiled up, though where we stood all was rotten as so much tinder.

We stood there as if turned to stone, and as for me I felt a cold strange chill running down my back; while as for moving, I could not have stirred to save my life.

'It's fancy, Bill,' I says at last; and as I spoke one of the black-looking fellows rolled a little keg up to the one who was sitting on the brass gun, took out the head, and put in his hand to bring it out full of great pieces of bright, shining gold.

The man on the gun nodded and stroked his mustache, and the other looked on, while the man with the keg put the head it again, and rolled it to a hole in the deck, down where he seemed to hand it to some one else.

'Tain't fancy, Jack,' says Bill, hoarsely to me just then. 'Those are some of the old Spaniards who—'

He stopped short, and we two stood holding tightly by each other's arms, as a strange sighing wind swept by us; and there, where we had seen the group of figures only a moment before, there was nothing left but the same faint glare as we had seen at first.

It is stated that the effort to induce Newfoundland to enter the confederation will assume a definite shape before very long.

A proclamation of the Ameer has been found, dated some time back, in which he asserts that his war against the British is a "holy one." Several Afghan soldiers in the British ranks have been severely punished and one hanged for treachery.

THE distress prevailing among the industrial classes in England and Scotland is said to be greater than has ever before been known there. Reports from Birmingham, Sheffield, Stockton, Edinburgh, Glasgow, Dundee, Manchester, Bristol, and many other places give a most appalling idea of the extent of the destitution and misery to which the unfortunate poor of those places are reduced. At Sheffield no less than 2,000 children and 3,000 adults received aid last week.

NOTICE TO FARMERS.

The undersigned begs to intimate that he has bought Mr. N. B. CAMPBELL'S Business in Woodville, and intends carrying on the same line of business in the Store formerly occupied by Mr. Campbell.

Having made favourable arrangements with the leading manufacturers of Farming Implements in Ontario, he is prepared to supply all kinds of Implements of the best quality and as cheap as the cheapest.

He would call special attention to the combined SEED DRILL made by the Masson Manufacturing Co., Oshawa, (for which he is Sole Agent here.) This Drill possesses all the qualities of a first-class Drill and Broad-Cast Seeder, and can be changed from the one to the other while in motion. It is placed in the market this season so cheap that it is within the reach of all intending purchasers. Call and examine before buying.

All kinds of REPAIRS kept constantly on hand which he will sell cheap for cash.

He trusts that by strict attention to business and square dealing to merit the farmers' confidence and receive a large share of their patronage.

HUGH McMILLAN

Uxbridge Organ Manufacturing Company,

UXBRIDGE, ONTARIO,

STYLE H.

Has just been introduced for the FALL TRADE. The whole construction has been got up with care and special attention has been given to the Durability of the instrument, and its capacity for clearness and Beauty of Tone.

The Drawings have been made by our designer who has a wide-spread reputation in the United States and Canada for his taste in Organ Building.

The Organ is of Solid Black Walnut, with heavy Hand Carved Trusses. The ends and Front Panels are raised and finished with French Walnut Stock, highly polished. It has beautiful Lamp Stands placed in a convenient and safe position for use.

There is a high Fancy Back attached, made and finished in harmony with the case, with a neat Vase Stand that adds very materially to the beauty of the same.

The Fall Board is the most simple and convenient of any in use. Any child can open and close it with ease. When open it forms a neat and convenient Rack for Music. These Falls are placed so that they cannot interfere with the musical qualities of the Organ.

Our designer has given great attention to the parts that have to be removed for the purpose of cleaning dust from the reeds or boards, which can be got at without removing a screw or nail.

He has also given special attention to the Bellows capacity, which he has left roomy and large, allowing free space for working the pedals, which attachment is put on with the greatest care for Strength and Durability.

The Action Work has been improved, wherever improvements have been found to be an advantage.

We still hold our Wide Spread Reputation for the power and Clear Smooth Tone of the instrument. The number of sales we make and the reputation we have for first-class Organs amongst our customers throughout Canada and England is a sufficient guarantee.

By close attention to business,—selling only to Safe customers,—Selecting First-class class Stock at cash prices,—using Economy in every particular,—having a great variety of Wood Working Machinery adapted purely to our work,—and thoroughly competent Hands, enables us to give better value than ever before to our customers.

We have now made arrangements to furnish a well-made Music Stool with every Organ
