LAY off your overcoat, or you won't feel it when you go out," said the landlord of a western inn to a guest who was sitting by the fire. "That's what I am afraid of," returned the man.
"The last time I was here I laid off my overcoat. I didn't feel it when I went out, and I have not felt it since."

Two oldest inhabitants, who are always remembering something, discuss the weather.—"Yes, sir," says one,
"for real unadulterated cold weather gave me the winter of 1826-7. The rivers were all frozen solid, and the fish in 'em, and I recollect that I chopped out an eel and used him for a walking-stick. Of course I stood it up against the door outside whenever I went into the house."

Just opened out at McIntyre & Prior's a choice stock of Furs. Call and see them.
"Sir," said a fierce lawyer, "do you, on your solemn oath, swear that this is not your handwriting?" "I reckon not," was the cool reply. "Does it resemble your writing?" "Yes, sir, I think it don't." "Do you swear that it don't resemble your writing?"
"Well, I do, old heat." "You take your solemn oath that this writing does not resemble yours in a single letter?"
"Y e-es, sir." "Now, how do you know?" "Cause I can't write."

A YOUNG gentleman happening to sit at church in a pew adjoining one which a young lady occupied for whom he conceived a sudden passion, was desirous of entering into a courtship on the spot. The emergency of the case suggested the following plan: he politely handed his fair neighbor a Bible open with a pin stuck in the following text—second epistle of John, verse fifth—"And now, I beseech thee, lady, not as though I wrote a new commandment unto thee, but that which we had in the beginning, that we love one another." She returned it, pointing to the second chapter of Ruth, verse tenth—"Then she fell on her face and bowed herself to the ground and said unto him, why have I found grace in thine eyes, seeing that I am a stranger?" He returned the book, opening to the thirteenth verse of the third Epistle of John—"Having many things to write unto you, I would not write with paper and ink, but I trust to come unto you and speak face to face." From this interview a marriage took place.

A "LUNATIC" THIEF.
The Steal of a P.E.I. Asylum Official
He Escapes.
A telegram from St. John, N.B., as Mr. Mulligan, Supervisor of the Provincial Lunatic Asylum, has been found guilty of stealing. He appropriated to his own use supplies purchased for the asylum, and has falsified his accounts.
Investigation into his conduct entered by the trustees has resulted in some remarkable and unexpected discoveries.
The extent to which Mulligan has robbed employers is not yet known. Finding he could no longer conceal his dishonest practices, the late Supervisor considered prudent to leave Charlottetown. To him in his flight from the officers of justice he took the horse belonging to the institution and a valuable saddle owned by Blanchard. A warrant was issued for arrest, but he escaped by the North Light.

NAPOLEON III.
Disturbed in His Grave—A Woman Hates.
A Paris cablegram says: There is a reason to believe that an attempt to kill the bodies of Napoleon III. and the Empress has just been discovered at Cherbourg. Mr. Howard Vincent has sent several special detectives from London to watch the imperial mortuary chapel, hopes are entertained that the person who has planned the attempt will shortly be discovered.

VICTORIA ROAD.
A meeting of the members of the North Victoria E. D. Agricultural Society is called for on Wednesday, January 18th, at 1 o'clock for the purpose of electing officers and directors, and other business.

The O'Banyoun Troupe gave a concert here on Monday evening which was largely attended from the surrounding country.
A new mail carrier has been placed on the road between Bexley P. O. and Victoria Road.

At the last meeting of the electors of S. S.
No. 3 Bexley, Mr. Geo. Brentnall was re-elected trustee, Mr. Wm. Alton, Auditor, and Mark Sears, Sec.-Treasurer.

ARGYLE.
From Our Own Correspondent.
OPENED. School re-opened on the 3rd inst.

ENGAGED.—We understand that Mr. W.
Williamson, of this place, has been engaged as teacher by the trustees of a Thorah school.

VISIT.—Mr. D. McDougall paid a visit to our school on Thursday last.

BOLSOVER.
From our own Correspondent.
JUBILEE SINGERS.—The O'Banyoun troupe of Negroes paid us a visit last week, and gave a grand musical entertainment in the Methodist church. The church was well filled. They took in about $20.
Shingle mill under repair now but will soon be in full blast again.—Good sleighing now and business rushing.

Holloway's Ointment and Pills.—Old Wounds, Sores, and Ulcers.—Daily experience confirms the fact which has triumphed over opposition for thirty years—viz., that no means are known equal to Holloway's remedies for curing bad legs, sores, wounds, diseases of the skin, erysipelas, abscesses, burns, scalds, and, in truth, all cases where the skin is broken. To cure these intrinsically quickly is of primary importance, as the compulsory confinement indoors weakens the general health. The ready means of cure are found in Holloway's Ointment and Pills, which heal the sores and expel their cause. In the very worst cases the Ointment has succeeded in effecting a perfect cure, after every other means has failed of giving any relief. Desperate cases best display its virtues.

Ladies' Buttoned and Laced Boots $1 per pair—McIntyre & Prior's "I'd just like to see you," said a blind man to a policeman who told him he would lock him up if he didn't move on.
