

Woodville, Local News.

LORENVILLE has now a tailor. 45° below zero at Winnipeg on Sunday last. Mr. Wm. Ayers, of Mariposa, conducted services in the Methodist church here on Sabbath evening last. VERY cold week.—On Sunday and Monday the mercury dropped to 8° and 20° below zero, accompanied by a piercing wind. The local train ran off the track near Markham on Monday evening last. It did not arrive until late. Mr. Gilbert Gillespie, we learn, has started business in Brechin as harness maker. Brechin is now well provided in this line, enjoying two shops. Selling Off.—You can buy Overcoats from $4.00 upwards, at McIntyre & Prior's, Woodville. To effect a clearance—balance of Fancy Wool, China and Glassware will be offered at cost.—A. C. Campbell, Woodville. Bargains in Men's Ulster Overcoats, Ladies' Mantles, &c., at H. Wilson's, Woodville. A CASE of disgusting meanness transpired here on Tuesday last, in which two young men, who we had heretofore thought honorable, and whose names for the sake of their respected parents we suppress, successfully played the roll of "beats" and swindlers. After having made numerous heavy purchases from several of our citizens on the strength of their good names, they determined to leave for the States or Manitoba, and consequently on Tuesday morning they boarded the train here along with one of the unfortunate creditors, who, we learn, was emphatically given to understand that nothing would be paid for. It is a pity that such cases could not be treated to the same degree of consideration they so gratefully mete out to others. If they received their just deserts, a lengthened term in the House of Correction should be awarded them, which might possibly instil a more vigorous respect for the rights of others in the future. Selling Off.—You can buy 4 lbs. of good Tea for $1.00, at McIntyre & Prior's. Opened this day a fresh stock of Teas, extra value, at A. C. Campbell's, Woodville. Satisfaction guaranteed in Razors and Pocket Knives at Gunn's, Woodville. Witherow's Scriptural Baptism for sale at J. C. Gilchrist's, Woodville. A MAGISTRATE'S COURT was held here on Friday last, on the case of one Forest Gilman, arrested at the instance of Mr. Angus Ferguson, of 6th Con. Eldon, for the theft of $15.00. It appears that the prisoner had been engaged by Mr. Ferguson to work for him, and that shortly after a chest in which the money was held was found behind the wood-pile broken open and the money gone. Suspicion pointed to Gilman, and he was watched. On Thursday he was sent to attend a threshing at Mr. Donald Jackson's, but instead of going as directed, he made his way to Lindsay. This aroused further suspicion, and Mr. Ferguson telegraphed to the constable there and the boy was arrested. On being brought here the money was found stowed in the lining of his hat. The boy who was committed to jail to await trial, was retained at the Northern hotel and some "friend" it seems liberated him during the absence of the constable. He then made his way to the Junction where he was again taken. The youth evidently did not comprehend the gravity of his position, in fact, we are of the opinion that he is far from sane. Strange to say a registered letter was awaiting him here containing twenty dollars to take him to his home in Massachusetts. Had the prisoner been at all sharp he could easily have escaped. It would be well if those who let the prisoner free were taught that in endeavouring to defeat the ends of justice, they are placing themselves in a fair way to also occupy a cell in the County "jug."

To The Public

In returning my sincere thanks for the liberal patronage extended to me during the past year, I would respectfully intimate that I have recently visited the markets in order to provide myself with the best materials procurable for the next season's trade. I have purchased the largest and without doubt the best stock I have ever handled, and I am satisfied that it cannot be beaten in the County. My ordered work has been before the public for some years and its increase is the best criterion as to its quality I can offer. My new stock of Boots and Shoes is without exception the best and largest I have ever placed before the public and I can do so with perfect confidence as to its quality and excellence. The entire stock was picked by myself from the shelves of the best wholesale houses in the Dominion. I have also purchased a fine lot of Trunks, Valises, Satchels &c., which are of a special quality in manufacture and correspondingly cheap.
