OUR NEIGHBORS.

Interesting Jottings From Other Places

Cambridge.

Mr. Alexander Montgomery has gone to the shanties.....Misses Mary McArthur and Mary Jane Montgomery, who have been home for their holidays have returned to Lindsay High School.....Miss Stewart of Orangeville has been here visiting friends and acquaintances.....Mr. John McArthur was elected trustee in the place of Mr. Geo. Sutor who resigned the position he so successfully fulfilled for the last nine years.....Our population is steadily increasing.—Mrs. Frank Geddy of a son.

Mara.

The voting for Councillors in the Township of Mara resulted as follows:—Broomfield, 181; Bruce, 151; Doyle, 117; Graham, 178; Mangan, 215; McKay, 125. Bruce, Graham and Mangan being the highest, were declared elected.

Oshawa.

Our toboggan slide which was opened only a short time ago is giving great amusement to our young people.....Our town papers are complaining of the dearth of meat here.....Thirty-two pounds is a pretty good weight for a turkey and this was the weight of a gift bird presented to Mr. E. B. Morgan, by the County of Oxford Fat Stock Association.

Omema.

Mr. A. Feir's saw and shingle mill together with a lot of shingles was destroyed by fire on Thursday night of last week. Loss $5,000.....We are to have the Fifteenth Annual Races of the Omema Driving Club on the Pigeon River Tuesday and Wednesday the 25th and 26th inst.....Our local Politicians of the Conservative stripe are highly elated over the victory in the Victoria's. In West Victoria the victory is a very hollow one, however, and gives no indication of the adoption of the views of the party by the electors of that Riding. The result would have been quite as marked in the other direction had a Reform farmer been a candidate of that party. We are pleased to see this independence among Reformers, it will teach a lesson of great value. The cry of "too many legal men" in the House has been followed up in this instance by a vote for the man and not the party.....Our High School averaged in attendance last session twenty-three scholars; two teachers were employed.

Lindsay.

The Salvation Army came in for severe handling here on New Year's Night. It appears they turned out to play in the New Year and while on the march they were all run into the cells and left there till morning without being allowed bail. The people are highly indignant at the outrage which is at once a disgrace to the town of Lindsay. Whatever points of objection may be found in their mode of worship such high handed proceedings in the name of the law should be discontinued. [Omitted from our last.]

Sunderland.

Mr. W. J. Shannon, of this village moved to Blackwater last week where he opened the first store in that dismal looking town. If Mr. Shannon expects to grow up with the place he has the best possible chance. Shannon is a good fellow, however, and we wish him every success.....Commander Cheyne's Lecture was not a success very few being present.....Mr. Neil McPhadden is preparing to open his fine new store. He has already moved the stock from his old stand into the new building.....The people of the village are highly indignant at the trumped up charge of bribery preferred against Mr. J. Summerville our worthy miller, while on a visit to Uxbridge, of course the magistrates dismissed the case but we understand the end has not been reached as yet.....We have lost two of our old citizens during the week, Mr. Thos. Porrit, father of our townsman, Mr. R. E. Porrit, who died in Thorah at the advanced age of 80 years, also Mrs. Fair, of Wick, who died on Sunday last at the age of 83 years.

Beaverton.

The Methodist Church here has scored a point for the excellence of the Christmas entertainment presented to the public this year in the charming Cantata, "The Frost King." The plot of the play if we may call it such gives among other scenes a realistic picture of Santa Claus and his two dwarf attendants filling the stockings of good little boys and girls. It took immensely among the children. The cantata was performed in the Town Hall.....A Salvation Army Wedding took place here last week the contracting parties being Divisional Officer, Wm. Burchett, of Barrie Division and Captain Dora Burdon, lately arrived from England. The ceremony was performed at the barracks by Rev. W. H. Barnes, of Christ Church. After the ceremony a collection was taken up as a bridal present when $13 was received.....A young fellow named Muchelston was sent up for trial for stealing a quantity of cakes which had been left in the Town Hall after a Church Festival.....The Band gave a promenade concert in the Town Hall last Tuesday. A large crowd was present.

Gravenhurst.

It will now be in order for our new municipal council, a majority of whom are temperance men, to take some steps to control the liquor traffic of the town. We have at least six places selling liquor without let or hindrance; they pay no license, nor contribute anything to either the municipal or provincial treasury. The Scott Act so far as this town is concerned is a dead letter. It is recorded in the archives of the County that such an act is in force in the County of Simcoe, but we are constrained to say that in Gravenhurst, we have practically free trade in liquor; it is not at all an unusual thing to see one or other of our hotel keepers taking from the Railway Depot a load of whiskey and beer barrels to their respective houses, and this supply is daily dealt out to all who desire it; there is, no doubt, some caution used in disposing of it, but there is abundant proof almost every day on our streets to show that even those most addicted to intoxication find no difficulty in getting all they want. If nothing else can be done the adoption of a by-law (such as introduced by Mr. Cockburn last year) would be of some benefit. We assume that each member of the council is quite as anxious as we are to promote the moral and general welfare of the town, and we trust they will try to inaugurate a better state of things. In this connection they may depend upon receiving the hearty support of a large majority of the ratepayers.—"Banner."

Cannington.

The "Gleaner" last week casts up the horoscope for the year 1887 and sees great prosperity booming up for us during the seasons. In reference to the marked progress of the past year it tells that for a village of about 1,200 inhabitants, the progress "has been very marked indeed, about fifteen hundred dollars having been spent almost wholly in the erection and improvement of private dwellings. It further goes to state that "this sum does not include the new passenger station and warehouse now being built by the G. T. R. Co." We should say it would not and farther, building must be mighty cheap if all the fine buildings we see as the result of the past year were built for $1,500. We suspect the amount should have been $15,000 which would indicate an excellent year's work.....The commodious Manso erected by the Presbyterians adjoining the church is now occupied by the pastor Rev. J. B. McLaren, the house warming took place last week.....The Gould Oyster Supper seems to have caused considerable comment it being thought somewhat of a slight to his many supporters elsewhere to have singled out this place only for his favor.....Mr. J. T. May was elected Master of our village Orange Lodge. Mr. May is becoming quite a distinguished Society man.....Mr. A. J. Smith of this village is more than distinguishing himself in "Checker" playing. The contest between himself and Mr. Oriol of Lindsay for $50.00 was won by him by one game. This is the second match between them each player winning one.....The Rev. Dr. Cochrane, of Brantford lectures in Knox Church on Wednesday evening next on "Scotland's Hero Martyrs" this is the same lecture delivered at Beaverton some time ago, and was much appreciated.....The cantata "Flower Queen" is to be reproduced on Friday evening next the 13th in the Town Hall.....Our new village Council is as follows:—Reeve, Wm. McPherson, Councillors, Joseph Merrifield, Adam Dobson, jr., Dr. Hart, and C. Brandon.
