

Local Matters.

Don't fail to hear Hamilton Corbett, To Night. Spencer Hall.

Call and see Rod. Campbell's new stock of Boots and Shoes, cheap for cash.

Two of our young bloods engaged in a jamboree at the "Queen's" the other evening. One of them sports a black eye now.

Personal.—We are glad to see Mr. L. Maybee around again, having almost entirely recovered from his recent severe illness.

The Sons of Temperance from Cannington visited the Good Templars of this place, last Friday evening, and spent a real happy time.

The crows arrived last week, and are already laying out the country in districts with a view to colonization and the propagation of the species.

House-cleaning is in the near future and the average husband is making preparations for a visit to "his sisters and his consins and his aunts."

Serenade.—Mr. John Crocker was serenaded by the band, on Tuesday evening, prior to his leaving for the old country. A pleasant time was spent at the residence of Mr. Bick. We wish Jack a safe and pleasant voyage.

Bunaway.—On Saturday last, Mr. Tremear left his team standing untied in front of McIntyre's hotel, at the Junction, as the eleven o'clock train was coming in. The horses took fright at the engine and ran away, doing considerable damage to the cutter and harness before they were stopped.

We have received a letter from Sandringham, but as the correspondent failed to send his name we have to withhold it. We have frequently to suppress correspondence from the neglect of writers to furnish their names. We must have the names of all correspondents before inserting their letters, not for publication but as a guarantee of good faith.

Rowdyism.—A young man named McMillan, from near Argyle, on Monday evening last, under the combined influence of corn juice and St. Patrick's day, made things lively for a while in the "Eldon House." However he squared up to one of the boys once too often, and got his nose scratched and his head knocked through a window sash. But even that did not satisfy him, and he prowled around for some time looking for somebody to thrash. As usual there were no arrests made.

Call to the Rev. Mr. Ross.—At the meeting held in the Presbyterian Church on Tuesday last, it was resolved to again extend a call to the Rev. Mr. Ross, of Pictou, N. S. This time the call is, as it should have been in the first place, unanimous. The congregation offer a stipend of $1,000, a manse and valuable glebe, and to defray all the expenses of removing Mr. Ross's family to Woodville. Unless very weighty reasons exist in the mind of Mr. Ross, for remaining in his present charge, it will be difficult to understand how he can decline this second invitation.

Our Lock-up.—The question that is agitating our mind at present is—For what purpose was the Woodville lock-up built? We were given to understand by Constable Morrison, that as soon as the lock-up was finished every man who got drunk and kicked up a row in our village would be immediately clapped into the stone house. Yet there is scarcely a week passes without one or more of those characters making themselves heard, and so far the lock-up has never been used. Last Monday there was a fellow kicking up a row in the "Eldon House," Constable Morrison was present, trying to "uphold the majesty of the law," but for some reason he signally failed, and the fellow was allowed to carry on till the proprietor of the house was forced to put him out. We are told that the key of the lock-up is lost, but of course we can't vouch for the truth of the statement.

Hamilton Corbett.—The Woodville Brass Band have been to considerable expense in securing this talented vocalist to give one of his entertainments in Spencer Hall, to night. Our exchanges are teeming with laudatory notices of Mr. Corbett's singing. We have space only for one, from the Whitby Chronicle—"Mr. Hamilton Corbett appeared at Hopkins' Hall on Monday evening and delighted a very appreciative audience with his Scottish songs. He also sang some English and Irish melodies, including 'The Wearing of the Green,' 'The Minstrel Boy' and the 'Village Blacksmith,' in which his singing was equally effective. Mr. Corbett surpasses even our old favourite Kennedy in his particular line, and that is saying that he cannot be excelled as a Scottish vocalist. His "two hours entertainments" was one of the greatest treats with which a Whitby audience has ever been favored." Remember Thursday evening (to-night), in Spencer Hall, at 7:30. Admission, 25 cents.

WHAT THEY SAY OF IT! A FEW FACTS FOR THE PEOPLE.—There are but few preparations of medicines which have withstood the impartial judgement of the people for any great length of time. One of these is Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil. Read the following and be convinced:—Thomas Robinson, Farnham Centre, P. Q., writes, "I have been afflicted with rheumatism for the last ten years, and have tried many remedies without any relief, until I tried Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil and since then have had no attack of it. I would recommend it to all."—J. H. Earl, Hotel Keeper West Shefford, P. Q., writes, "I have been troubled with liver complaint for several years, and have tried different medicines with little or no benefit, until I tried Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil, which gave me immediate relief, and I would say that I have used it since with the best effect. No one should be without it. I have tried it on my horses in case of cuts, wounds, etc., and think it is equally as good for horse as for man."—A. Maybee, Merchant, Warkworth, writes, "I have sold some hundreds of bottles of Electric Oil, and it is pronounced by the public, 'one of the best medicines they have ever used; it has done wonders in healing and relieving pain, sore throats, etc. and is worthy of the greatest confidence.'"—Joseph Rusan, Township Percy, writes, "I was persuaded to try Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil for a lame knee which troubled me for three or four years, and I never found anything like it for curing lameness. It is a great public benefit."

BEWARE OF IMITATIONS.—Ask for Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil. See that the signature of S. N. Thomas is on the wrapper, and the names of Northrop & Lyman are blown in the bottle, and Take no other. Sold by all medicine dealers. Price 25 cents. NORTHROP & LYMAN, Toronto, Ont., Proprietors for the Dominion.
