

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

FAILED.—Wm. Henry.
AUDITORS' REPORT.—Township of Eldon.
SPECIAL MEETING.—John McTaggart.

Local Matters.

Therap Council proceedings will appear next week.
Read the Eldon Auditor's report in this week's issue.

To a newspaper man three lines of a news item is worth a barrel of poetry.
The parties who promised to supply us with wood are requested to do so at once.

The roads are almost impassable, and everything is at a standstill in this section of the country.

The new way to prevent bleeding at the nose is to keep your nose out of other people's business.

The Good Templars intend holding a neck-tie social next Friday evening, 19th inst. Particulars next week.

Lost.—On the evening of the 9th inst., between the junction and Woodville, an Odd Fellows' Blank Chart. Please leave at this office.

On Monday, as the "Eldon House" bus was leaving the Nipissing Station, one of the hind axles broke, letting the passengers down. Fortunately, no one was hurt.

Trotting.—Mr. Arch. McCorquodale's trotter, "Extra" won three prizes at the Fenelon Fall races last week, being second in the green Race, second in the named Race, and third in the 2:35 trot.

An exchange says if a young man wants to see his name in the paper he had better get married. He will never enjoy his death notice. Young men of this village, try the experiment. We will notice it.

Get your Garden Seeds at Gunn's Medical Hall, Woodville. They have just received a large assortment of fresh seeds.

Beecher's idea that there is no hell is bad for newspaper publishers, as so many subscribers may now utterly refuse to pay up if they have the most remote suspicion that Beecher knows what he is talking about.

The Bolsover Dramatic Club give another entertainment in that place on Tuesday, the 16th inst., when they will present "Ben Bolt's Sloop." They are thinking of coming to Woodville at an early date, and we bespeak for them a good crowd.

Two entertainments are billed for Kirkfield. One, a concert for raising funds to lay a sidewalk to the railway station, to take place on Friday, 12th inst., and another, a soiree, under the auspices of the Presbyterian Church, on Wednesday, 17th inst.

"Will advertising pay?" is a very old question, which has always been answered in the affirmative; but the question sometimes asked in the newspaper office is, "Will the man who advertises pay?" This is not always answered in the affirmative.

One of our citizens got on a "jovial" on Friday evening, and amused himself breaking glass in Mr. Millar's office, and Mrs. Morison's store door. However, on coming to himself next morning, and being told of his misdeeds, he quickly repaired the damage.

The person who takes a paper nearly a year, reads it every week, and then evades the issue of payment on the flimsy quibble that he never subscribed for it, might own all the railroads and steamboats in the country, and it wouldn't make a man of him.

Don't tell a man you sweat. It is vulgar. Inform him that you are being deprived of the saline and oleaginous fluids of your material substance through the excretories of your pellucid cuticle, with a sensible condensation of moisture, upon the superficial exterior.

A splendid item about a man getting kicked all to pieces by a horse, the other day, was utterly spoiled by the carefulness of the man himself, who climbed in the hayloft, and stayed there until the horse stopped kicking. And yet a cold world may blame the reporter for this.

Printing and Publishing.—A young lady explained to her inamorato the distinction between printing and publishing, and at the conclusion of her remarks, by way of illustration, she said: "You may print a kiss on my cheek, but you must not publish it."

Spring.—Sweet Spring will soon be here. The green grass will soon sprout; the keno player and the lambkin will gamble; the turtle dove will turtle to his mate; the young man's fancy will lightly turn to thoughts of love; the bumble bee will bumble his first bumble; the festive yellow jacket and the small boys will renew relations; straw hats will come out; so will ulsters, white pants, strawberry festivals, boils and campaign papers, and the Spring Poet will mount the editorial stair with cheerful face and ten pounds of manuscript. Spring is at hand.

Bag-pipes.—Our village was treated to a musical feast, on Monday afternoon and evening, by a person playing on the delicious instrument mentioned above. That his efforts were fully appreciated was amply attested by the interesting procession which he headed.

A lady writes to this office inquiring if "paragraphers ever go to heaven?" Good land, woman, they never go anywhere. They don't get a chance. They just sit around and do good, and count their money, and subscribe to charitable enterprises. We don't know whether any of them "ever go" to heaven or not.

Gaelic Sermon.—At Knox Church, Toronto, on Sunday last, an eloquent and impressive sermon was preached by Mr. Macleod, of Knox College, from the text, Psalm xliii, 3:—O cuir a mach do sholus agus t'fhirinn? Seoladh iadsan mi, thugadh iad mi chum do shleibh naomhsan, agus chum do phailiuna.

Venner has at last acknowledged that his weather predictions have not been verified, and has "taken a back seat." He now laughs at the idea of an early spring, says we will have six or eight weeks cold weather yet, and that we are only about half way through the winter. We hope this, like his other predictions, will prove false.

A man was seen coming out of a newspaper office with one eye gouged out, and his nose spread out over his face like a piece of raw beef, and one of his ears chewed off. To an officer who interviewed him he replied: "I didn't like an article that 'peared in the paper last week, and I went in to see the man who writ it. He was there, stranger."

The regular sittings of the first Division Court was held in the Town Hall, on Monday. There was a very large crowd in town, the largest, in fact, that has ever attended Court in Woodville since the Courts were divided. Owing to the densely packed crowd in the hall, and his own ill health, the judge was compelled to adjourn the Court twice during the day.

Business Changes.—Messrs. McGimie Bros. have purchased the Woodville Lumber Yard from D. B. McNabb & Co., and will hereafter carry on the business..... We understand Mr. Arch. McCorquodale has purchased the butchering business from our old friend, Mr. G. C. Smith, who leaves shortly for Chatham, where he intends to go farming..... Messrs. A. C. Campbell & Co. have suspended business for the present.

One More Unfortunate.—A fearful example of the direful effects of the "flowing bowl" was brought to our notice on Monday evening last. An unfortunate man, who, for some time back, has been drinking very heavily, suddenly took the idea that the best way to end his troubles was to hang himself. Acting on this impulse he proceeded to the bush with that intention, but, fortunately, his strange actions had attracted attention, and he was followed and brought back. Nature will not tolerate such excesses long without visiting retribution upon the unfortunate individual.

Mr. Crabb, station agent at Victoria Road, has resigned his position on the Nipissing railway and has accepted a similar position at Erin, on the Elora branch of the Credit Valley railway. Mr. Merrifield, agent at Cobocouk, has been removed to Victoria Road and is to take charge of Kirkfield as well. Half of his time is to be spent at each place, with headquarters at Victoria Road. Mr. Law, formerly of Kirkfield, has been removed to Cobocouk. Mr. Adams, of Woodville, is to have charge of Argyle, Eldon, and Portage Road stations. These places he will have to visit nearly every day. The road north of the junction is in an excellent state of repair, and a great many new ties have lately been put in. The farmers supply the ties at 14c each, and are allowed 7c each for culls.

Presbytery of Lindsay.—This Presbytery held an adjourned meeting at Woodville on Tuesday, March 9th. There was a fair attendance of members. The prayer of the congregation of Uxbridge to be separated from Leaskdale, and to retain the whole of the services of their Pastor, Rev. E. Cockburn, was, after all parties interested had been heard, granted. The Rev. Mr. Smith, of Quaker Hill, was appointed to exchange pulpits with the Rev. Mr. Cockburn, on 21st inst., and declare the Leaskdale congregation vacant. A petition from parties at and around Zephyr adhering to the Presbyterian Church, praying for a supply of preaching, was granted, and Zephyr was accordingly erected into a Mission Station, and connected with Leaskdale. These stations are to be supplied by a student during the summer months. Mr. Cockburn was appointed Moderator of the Leaskdale session. The Leaskdale Elders were appointed Assessors with Uxbridge session. The report from Kirkfield session and managers was favorable—they promising that all arrears in stipend will be paid shortly. The Records of Beaver-ton session were examined, and attested as carefully and correctly kept. The call to Rev. D. McDonald, of Cambray, from Alvinston and Napier, in the Presbytery of London, was read with accompanying papers. The call was numerously signed, and was most cordial and unanimous. The Rev. Mr. Hestie represented the London Presbytery, and ably pressed the interests of the congregations calling. The Commissioners from Glenarm and Cambray urged strong reasons for the retention of their pastor, breathing sentiments of the warmest affection for their minister, and appreciation of his services. Mr. McDonald after hearing all parties, considered it his duty to remain in his present field of labor. The call was accordingly laid aside, and the Clerk instructed to send extracts of minutes to the London Presbytery. The interim act regarding the reception of ministers from other Churches, was adopted.

The Great Shoshonees Remedy and Pills.

The success that these medicines have met with since their introduction to the public some years ago, proves plainly to the most skeptical that they are medicines that perform what they are advertised to do. The virtues of these medicines have been well tested, and have withstood their trial in a most satisfactory manner. For diseases of the Blood, Liver, Lungs, &c., they are unsurpassed. We have testimonials of miraculous cures of these diseases, and of many others. If any one is afflicted, let him try a bottle of the remedy and a box of Pills. No injurious effects will follow their use to the most delicate person, as they are purely vegetable, there being no mineral matter in them. The cost is small, while the advantages derived from their use will doubly repay you for your expense and trouble.

Try these great remedies and be convinced that they are no humbug. No one who has tried the Shoshonees Pills has pronounced an unfavorable opinion of them; no family where they have been used will be without them. Full information may be had on all particulars touching the use, and the experience of those who have used them, by securing the Treatise or the Circular from your druggist free. Price of the Remedy in pint bottles, $1; Pills 25 cents a box. Sold by all medicine dealers.
