

The Woodville Advocate.

JOS. J. CAVE, Editor.

WOODVILLE, MARCH 9, 1882.

PAY UP.

This week we intend issuing a large number of accounts for job work and advertising, which we hope will be speedily settled.

The Bill to legalize marriage with a deceased wife's sister passed its second reading in the House of Commons by a vote of 137 to 34.

A VERY desirable measure is to be effected during the present session of Parliament, in the abolition of the vexatious Bill Stamp.

We learn that the suit brought by Mr. Ashman to unseat his opponent in the recent Municipal Elections in this Township, came to an ignominious end last week.

It does seem odd that Legislation has to be resorted to to teach people what they shall do with a purchase. The Act now before the Legislature to prohibit passengers from selling unused tickets to "ticket scalpers" is certainly of that nature.

If our memory serves us right, it was the Mail and other Ministerial journals who said that the trip of the Governor-General to the North West was a purely private affair.
