

Woodville Local News.

The Midland Free Press notes the arrival of the first batch of spring poetry. There is an awful death in store for the poet who aspires to a corner of this paper.

Good Sugar weather. Easter will soon be here.

McIntyre & Prior Woodville, have the largest stock of Prints and general Dry Goods in town.

C. D. WARE, Dentist, will be in Sunderland, on the 1st of each month, Woodville, 2nd, 3rd and 4th and Cannington, 5th and 6th. Rest of time in Uxbridge.

The snow has now about all gone and farmers are casting about for their spring tools.

The roads are now in a frightful condition, in many places being completely submerged by water.

Save money and leave your order, for any kind of watch at Gunns, Woodville.

We would suggest to our villagers the desirability of securing their shade trees early, so that planting may be general when commenced.

Satisfaction guaranteed in Razors and Pocket knives, at Gunns, Woodville.

Our village sidewalks are now showing the want of an overseeing spirit. We hope the coming council will attack this matter with vigor, as the said sidewalks are a disgrace to any community, especially the portion fronting the ADVOCATE office.

An invasion by the Salvation Army is threatened. We would suggest that a forced march be made on Beaverton before the mosquito season opens.

New Boots and Shoes, new Hats and Caps to arrive in a few days at McIntyre and Prior's Woodville.

Mr. COOPER, formerly of the Warder was in town on Saturday and called on us. Mr. Cooper is inspector for the Dominion government in the administration of the McCarthy Act. This measure will ultimately produce much dispute, the Inspectors we learn generally advise the taking out of licenses under both acts, while a recent act of the Dominion government suspends all prosecutions.

McIntyre & Prior's Woodville, is the spot to buy cheap Sugars and Teas, special prices in quantities.

Another warning, but one which like the multitude of its predecessors will pass unheeded by those who should most carefully heed it, is given in the case of the unfortunate man, Duncan Gilchrist, who from the effects of a stroke of apoplexy induced by strong drink passed into eternity on Tuesday last at Lorneville. Duncan was well known here and when sober was an intelligent and well read man. The fatal habit, however, overcame him and the result adds one more victim to the monstrous legal iniquity now so rampant over the land.

Special value in Gents' White Dress and Regatta Shirts. Soft and stiff Felt Hats latest style at H. Wilson's Woodville.

The nomination for village councillors will occur on Monday, April 7th.

An Auction sale of Farm Stock and Implements will take place at Lot 18, 8th Con. Eldon, on Friday March 23th, 1884. Arch. Campbell, Auctioneer.

QUENTAL, the horsebuyer will be in town on Saturday, those having good horses for sale should govern themselves accordingly.

A supply of Jewellery always on hand at Gunns' Woodville.

Our Millinery department will open about the first week in April. Miss Hartley Milliner.

Lorneville.

From Our Correspondent.

SOLD HIS FARM.—John McEachern west of here sold his 100 acre farm to Donald McEachern 5th Con., for the sum of $5000 cash. We are informed that Mr. McEachern bought a residence in Woodville where he will move shortly. We wish him health, happiness and long life in his new home.

AGENCY.—Neil S. Smith a former resident of this section and now a general agent at Brechin for the G. Singer sewing machine Company of New York, visited this section last week with machines and reports five sales in one trip.

DOTS.—What we would like to see, another grain buyer at the junction—Higher prices paid for grain—Lorneville incorporated—Some lady set her cap for that bachelor on the hill and get a copy of the ADVOCATE for one year.

NOTES.—Mr. Willie Lyons who left here two years ago has returned home, he says Eldon is the best place.—Mr. J. C. Smith East of here sold in one day last week 175 bus. of white Russian seed wheat to the farmers in this section, not so bad for one day.

WOOD.—The farmers in this vicinity are now busy getting out their summer supply of wood.

Salt Rheum Cured.
