THE candidates for the Reeveship, etc., cannot do better than announce their platform by a liberal use of these columns. This is thrown out as a suggestion. Like our brother Holcaygeon, we believe public feeling and our own goes out to the happy candidate who leads the van in the rush for newspaper notoriety at ten cents per line. No cardwood accepted.

We are asked to speak a word in behalf of a new aspirant to public favor in the Temperance field the "War Notes" published by the Business publishing company of Montreal. We will do so, we value any medium aspiring to throw conviction and light on the path of the unfortunate and this, certainly War Notes endeavours to do. Its aim is the adoption of total prohibition for Canada and we heartily wish it God Speed.

Beaverton Local News.

MR. W. A. SHERWOOD intends opening a Studio in Orillia next week. His card in another column states that his time will be divided between Beaverton and that place.

An interesting assault case was before Mr. G. F. Bruce, J. P., on Tuesday, in which the "Judge" figured as plaintiff. Some parties took forcible possession of his domicile one night last week and on the "Judge" objecting, he was rather severely handled, anyway too unceremoniously for the usual dignity of His Honor who lodged an information which resulted in the intruders being summarily summoned before the Bench. With what results we have not heard.

A LILLIPUTIAN PONY.—When Mr. W. H. Simpson returned from Beaverton last week, he brought home with him a unite of a pony that soon became the center of a crowd of admirers. It is a stallion, less than twelve hands high, of a beautiful dark bay color, with jet black legs, main and tail, and "as pretty as a picture." It is said to be an Indian pony, and to have been caught wild on the prairies; but some judges of horseflesh are of the opinion to which we incline, that the symmetrical little fellow has a strong dash of civilized blood in his veins. For so small an animal he is very fast, having come at a square trot from Beaverton to the Falls, a distance of twenty-eight miles, in but a little over three hours, and that too, after a drive of fifteen miles in the morning. How much Mr. Simpson paid for him we do not know, but he says he will not sell him for less than $150.—Feston Falls Gazette.
