From Our Correspondent.

We regret to record the death of Mrs. Dugald McEachern, living east of here, and who some time ago became ill with dropsy, and on Thursday, 15th passed away. Decease was highly respected by all who knew her. Her remains were followed by a large concourse of sorrowing friends and acquaintances to the Eldon cemetery, where she was interred. The bereaved husband and family have the sympathy of the entire community. Mr. John A. McEachern who resides north of here, lost a valuable mare and foal last Sunday.

Mr. Malcolm McEachern is seriously ill at present and slight hopes are entertained of his recovery.

Mr. Andrews, of the firm of Andrews & McArthur met with a painful accident while fishing on Monday evening last, slipping off a damp log and straining his leg.

Maple Hill.

MR. ALEXANDER McNABB was united in the holy bonds of matrimony on the 1st inst. his partner is Miss Betsy Gilchrist of Glenarm we wish them long life and prosperity.

Miss McLeod of Bexley, is visiting her old neighbors, and friends.

THERE were no less than six lights seen on the lake one night last week. We understand there are many out every night. We would like to know what the Inspector means by allowing such, or is he only paid to look after the North Bay.

THE fall wheat is looking much better than farmers at first expected. If nothing further happens it a fair crop may be expected. MR. ANGUS has purchased a new boat.

Lorneville.

From Our Correspondent.

Mr. Wm. McLeod, who resides a short distance from here was surprised to find one of his best milk cows dead in his barn-yard one morning last week.

Mr. Neil Smith, 5th Con., lost a valuable 4 years old mare and foal last Sunday.

Rev. Mr. Gillies preached an able sermon last Sunday from the words "is there no balm in Gilead, is there no physician there." There will be preaching on Sabbath next at the usual hour.

Messrs. Wm. and Hugh Cameron passed through here last Wednesday week, with their second large herd of cattle to their Ranch in Carden, over 100 head we are informed. They purchased nearly all in Emily Township. We wish them success.

Mr. Hugh Grant, east of here lost a valuable cow last Friday, by being run over by a passing train going north and was instantly killed.

Mr. Hugh McKay, General Agent for the London Mutual, Uxbridge, has been in this section last week, insuring all expired policies and and undermining our local agents.

We had a brief visit last week from our friend, Mr. Norman McKay, son of Rev. A. McKay, late minister of Eldon congregation, his many friends will be glad to hear that he has begun his course in Queen's College, Kingston, in view of the ministry.

Mr. Donald K. Campbell has rented the commodious residence of Donald McDonald's 5th Con., at $100 per annum.

Farmers are all doing seedling in this locality and are preparing the land for potatoes and turnips.

Health is a duty. Disease a crime. Use Dr. Henry Baxter's Mandrake Bitters and be cured of all biliousness or liver trouble. 25 cents will buy a large bottle.

The Greatest Healing Compound is a preparation of carbolic acid, vaseline and cerate called McGregor & Parke's Carbolic Cerate. It will cure any sore, cut, burn or bruise when all other preparations fail. Call at J. C. Gilchrist's Drug Store, Woodville, and get a package. Twenty-five cents is all it costs.

No other preparation so concentrates and combines blood-purifying, vitalizing, enriching and invigorating qualities as Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Quality should be considered when making comparisons.
