

The Woodville Advocate.

JOS. J. CAVE, Editor.
WOODVILLE, JUNE, 1882.

Now that the election campaign has fairly begun would it not be well to place before the coming members, the following national requirements: 1st, Abolition of the useless and expensive institution, the Senate. 2nd, Reduction of representation. 3rd, Commercial independence for Canada, and last but not least, a strong resistance to everything tending to curtail our provincial rights.

The Great North-West Territory can no longer be designated the "Lone Land," it is now the scene of haste, bustle, enterprise and speculation. Now the territory is divided into four large districts, namely: Assiniboine, which contains 95,000; Saskatchewan, 114,000; Alberta, 100,000; and Arthabasca, 122,000 square miles. Exclusive of Manitoba, of Keewatin and British Columbia, these four provinces have a total of 431,000 square miles. Certainly room enough to satisfy the ambition of the most enthusiastic Canadian.

In his address to the electors of South Victoria, Mr. Wm. Needler explains to the Free and Independent that he is adverse to the Pacific Railway contract, also with the interference of the Dominion Government in Provincial legislation. He also condemns the refusal to ratify the boundary award, as also the Gerrymandering Bill. Now that he has told the voters what he condemns, it should be in order to inform them what he approves of, and what position he is prepared to take in the matter, it is very well to condemn, but we should suggest that his line of procedure should be placed before the electors.

Our worthy cotew, the Toronto Globe, is working, we believe, in the true interests of this province in its endeavour to place the "boundary question before the people. Ontario is the smallest Province in the Dominion, but is at the same time the most wealthy and populous, and for this reason has a right to a proper consideration as to her future. By the refusal to ratify the "boundary award" the Federal Parliament deprives this province of a large and valuable portion of her territory, and what will some day be a source of great revenue to her giving it to Manitoba. The question as to ownership cannot be doubted and the quibbles thrown in by the Dominion Government serve but to strengthen the position of the local administration. If our provincial authorities have the interests of the province at heart they will resolutely "go up and possess the land," and in so doing we are confident they will have the support of every true patriot, be he Grit or Tory.

RACKED BY INNUMERABLE PANGS, restless by day, sleepless at night, rising unrefreshed in the morning, without appetite, and pestered by varying and perplexing symptoms, the dyspeptic takes indeed a gloomy view of human existence. For him the zest of life seems gone. Heartburn, oppression at the pit of the stomach, and the attendant annoyances of constipation and biliousness, combine to render him wretchedly wretched, but there is, if he will but take advantage of it, a reliable source of relief from all this misery. NORTHROP & LYMAN'S VEGETABLE DISCOVERY DYSPEPTIC CURE AND BLOOD PURIFIER is, as its name imports, a botanic preparation, free from mineral poison, and an all-sufficient remedy for indigestion in its most obstinate form. It not only enriches the blood by enabling the digestive organs to convert the food received into nutriment, but depurates it by increasing the action of the bowels and kidneys, the natural outlets for its impurities. But while it relaxes the bowels, it never chas so violently and with pain, like a drastic cathartic. It aids, but never forces, Nature, invigorating as well as purifying and regulating the system. It thoroughly removes those diseased humors which tend to vitiate the blood, purifies the urinary secretion, and promotes a flow of healthy bile into the natural channel, besides expelling it from the circulation. Experience has proved that this standard medicine is a thorough remedy for dyspepsia, biliousness, costiveness, kidney complaints, scrofula, erysipelas, salt rheum, lumbago and all impurities of the blood. Price $1.00. Sample Bottle 10 cents. Ask for NORTHROP & LYMAN'S Vegetable Discovery and Dyspeptic Cure. The wrapper bears a fac-simile of their signature. Sold by all medicine dealers.

Nor the slightest affinity exists between the numberless cough mixtures with which the market is flooded and that successful preparation—Northrop & Lyman's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil and Hypophosphites of Lime and Soda. It stands alone, distinct, is like itself, and nothing else. It embodies the best results of advanced pharmaceutical science. It accomplishes positive, decisive results, effectually relieving coughs (when the lungs are not tuberculous or hopelessly affected), colds, laryngitis, and diseases of a scrofulous origin. While it does not cure Consumption, it is the most reliable means of defence against that dreaded scourge. The invigorating properties of the hypophosphites reimburse the system debilitated by the constant tear and wear of a cough, while the paroxysms rapidly diminish in violence, in consequence of the soothing emollient action of the cod liver oil upon the inflamed lung membrane. The phosphorus, lime and soda in combination with it, are all natural components in the construction of the bony edifice, which, in a state of decay, lacks a sufficiency of those elements. These the hypophosphites supply, increasing the nutritive properties of the blood, and building up and rehabilitating the tottering human structure with a degree of promptitude as astonishing as it is gratifying to the invalid. A perceptible gain in flesh as well as in strength is one of the consequences of using this standard preparation, which both time and experience have demonstrated to be fully worthy of the confidence reposed in it. Prepared by NORTHROP & LYMAN, Toronto and sold by all druggists.

THE SADDEST OF SAD SIGHTS—the grey hairs of age being brought with sorrow to the grave is now we are glad to think becoming rarer every year as the use of Cingalese Hair Restorer become more general. By its use the scanty locks of age once more resume their former color and the hair becomes thick and luxuriant as ever; with its aid we can now defy the change of years, resting assured that no Grey Hair at any age will come to sadden. Sold by all druggists at 50 cents per bottle.

The Port Perry Observer says: We are informed that our Fishery Inspector is taking proceedings against four of our worthy townsmen for a breach of the Fishery Regulations. The worst feature of the affair is that one of the offenders is a J. P.

A VERY enthusiastic political meeting was held here on Saturday, the 13th inst., in the Reform interest. Mr. A. P. Cockburn, M. P., of this place, was unanimously nominated the candidate to contest the Biding in the party interests. The meeting was representative one, many influential persons from all parts of the Riding being present. Mr. Cockburn is a very popular gentleman in this township and we expect to see him poll a large majority both in this municipality and Riding.—Beaverton Express.

A CURIOUS history is that of the lace worn by the Princess Beatrice at the Duke of Albany's marriage. The Princess herself found it, years ago, when in girlish curiosity she was rumaging among a quantity of castaway odds and ends in one of the Queen's apartments. On being cleaned and repaired it was found to be very old and very valuable, judges rating its worth as high as $150,000. It was recently presented to the Princess by the Queen.

A REAL NECESSITY.—No house should be without a bottle of Hagar's Yellow Oil, in case of accident. There is no preparation offered to suffering humanity that has made so many permanent cures, or relieved so much pain and misery. It is called by some the Good Samaritan, by others the Cure-all, and by the afflicted an Angel of Mercy.

"WHAT EVERY ONE SAYS MUST BE TRUE," and every one who has tested its merits speaks warmly in praise of Hagar's Peppor Balsam as a positive cure for all throat and lung complaints, coughs and colds, sore throat, bronchitis, and incipient consumption.
