OUR thanks are tendered to Mrs. A. Rodgers for a fine sample of Gooseberries left with us on Tuesday. They are very large and smooth. English varieties we believe. Gooseberries rank among the most delicious of the small fruits and it is surprising that more attention is not paid to their cultivation.

McIntyre & Prior have a large stock of Boots & Shoes which must be sold to make room for their fall stock. Come and secure Bargains.

Stock of Groceries now complete. New Teas, New Sugar. Lowest prices at H. Wilson's.

We would notify the villagers that the Commissioners will be around this afternoon with a subscription list, for the purpose of collecting subscriptions for the building of sidewalks in the village. It is thought that voluntary subscriptions for this object will save expense and will fall more equally upon the villagers than the assessment principle. New sidewalks are badly needed and it is not necessary for us to present the necessity of liberal contributions. As it is for the benefit of the entire community every person is expected to contribute. It is deemed expedient that the work should be prosecuted without delay as the old sidewalk has fallen into such a state of dilapidation as to render it decidedly unsafe. No subscription therefore will be accepted unless accompanied by the cash.

BRECHIN.

From Our Own Correspondent.

The sum of $500 is being expended on the road between Bolsover and Mud Lake. This is laudable, it being one of the most important roads in the township. A similar amount was expended on the same road last year, but not with the best satisfaction. The work done so far this year is very creditable to those engaged at it.

The "bear" is still a source of annoyance to nocturnal pedestrians. Cannot something be done to cut short his perambulations. Come boys, load up your old muskets!

ISLAY.

From Our Own Correspondent.

The most of the farmers around here are done haying, and are now busily engaged in reaping fall wheat and barley. There is great prospect of a bountiful harvest this year.

The Orangemen celebrated the 12th at Cobocok, where quite a number of the brethren met. A large number of spectators were present.

Mr. John Daniel, Reeve of Fenelon, is completing one of the finest barns in the township, probably in the county. On the day of raising framers from a distance made their appearance as spectators, it being in their estimation impossible to get the building together without altering some of the timber. However, the building went up without any alteration, everything in its own place and fitting completely. We would judge from observing Mr. Daniel's plans that he is a man of good construction and that Messrs. Franklin & Dewel are men who thoroughly understand their business in regard to mechanism and framing.

BOLSOVER.

From our own Correspondent.

The crops are looking splendid in this neighborhood, and fall wheat in appearance would give an average of thirty bushels per acre. On the Portage Road it looks fine, but there will be no fifty bushels per acre as predicted by a local wiseacre.

Mrs. McIntyre, of Portage Road, was attacked by a ram last week, but escaped with a slight bruise on the leg.

Mr. Jno. G. Campbell of Kirkfield, is dangerously ill from injuries received at the raising of a barn at Moses Mitchell's, near Grass River Bridge, Portage Road.

The 12th of July was quite a success in Bolsover.

Wheat and barley in this vicinity are badly in need of rain. Late crops are suffering, and may be short.

GLENARM.

From Our Own Correspondent.

While working on the stable of the Presbyterian manse, Donald Brown fell on the edge of a board, breaking three of his ribs, but under skilful treatment he is able to be about again.

Mr. John Campbell, an enterprising farmer of Maple Hill, has purchased a self-binding reaping machine, and expects to do a good business with it. If the machine works well, there is no doubt but there will be quite a number sold here next season.

Mr. Dinean Tolmie, superintendent of No. 9 Sunday School, visited our school last Sabbath and expressed himself as being highly pleased with the progress of the school during the past quarter. He intends visiting in the neighborhood of Hartley next week. [The above was unavoidably crowded out last week.—Ed.]
