(Continued from second page).

clared he could not go to Lynnton, the place was full of work-people. He did not like Scotland, and was as homeless as a Boultbee, of London, have returned from a wealthy young peer with several estates trip to Manitoba. They report to the could well be. I allowed him to bewilder Free Press as follows: himself with confused excuses and blun- Many of the principal wholesale houses

" Next to you, Ronald, I love Lionel Dacre; of Oshawa; King & Brown, of Toronto; his frank, proud, fearless disposition has a Harris, Son & Co., of Brantford; John Watgreat charm for me. He is certainly like son, of Ayr; Gurney, Russell & Co., of and false, just as she does!"

and I love my sweet Lilly just as well."

now?" said Lady Earle. replied. "I am not given to strong ex- exclusive of buildings.

theirs." sion. They can go to her, if you will."

cannot bear the thought of it. Surely they lous rents. During our stay mas."

loves her children so dearly."

years?

could not; and he said to himself again, the Portage has greatly increased the value "In the hour of death !- I will forgive her of farming lands in the neighborhood. then."

> To be continued. Baby Mine.

Baby mine, with the grave, grave face Where did you get that royal calm, Too staid for joy, too still for grace? I bend as I kiss your pink, soft palm; Are you the first of a nobler race, Baby mine?

You come from the region of long ago, And gazing awhile where the seraphs dwell Has given your face a glory and glow— Of that brighter land have you aught to tell? I seem to have known it—I more would know Baby mine.

Your calm, blue eyes have a far-off reach, Look at me now with those wond'rous eyes. Why are we doomed to the gift of speech While you are silent, and sweet, and wise? You have much to learn-you have more to teach Baby mine.

ANOTHER MYSTERY.

A Young Woman Spirited Away in Ottawa.

then turned off into the woods; nothing their is known or suspected in connection revolver will not go off, he retires to the woods, and subsequently the outrage goes on. Now the detectives have found a woman's hat, a cotton dress and a petticoat on the line traversed by the vehicle. act of foul play had been committed, of der, an outrage scarcely less brutal.

A Girl Masquerading in Men's Attire.

A despatch from Kingston dated last Monday night says: On Saturday a young Rochester girl named Pearl Reed received a sentence at the Police Court of two years in the Mercer Home for drunkenness, disorderly conduct, masquerading in men's clothing and vagrancy. This morning Mr. J. McIntyre entered an appeal from the decision of the Magistrate in the case. It will be held, for one thing, that there has Kingston.

vacant in England by the deaths of two them. clergymen who were formerly members of the House of Commons. One of these gentlemen was not ordained until he was 60, and, of course, merely took orders to however, the contrary was the case; the get the income. In the case of a living, now split into three, of extraordinary value, were small, realized an average of nearly an army officer came home from India, $1,000 apiece. qualified for orders, and duly passed into possession of $35,000 a year. There would be a tremendous ado were such proceedings for Canada, an inquiry at the office of the Marquis of Lorne) and Miss Gertrude powers, and very small about those of the being expected of the clergy than was expected thirty years ago. The Hon. Mr. Grimstone, who lately died, was probably the last ex-M. P. divine in his country.

Prof. C. F. Fraser, of Halifax, N. S., a short time since received from his brother, made of buffalo skin, curiously ornamented with beads, etc., and significantly made in a shape to represent a headless man. Sitwars as a souvenir.

THE GREAT NORTHWEST

Messrs. George M. Gunn and John

ders, and then asked him to join us at and manufacturers of Ontario and Quebec Earlescourt. He almost 'jumped for joy,' either have representatives or branch ware as the children say. He will follow us in | houses in Winnipeg, among whom are a week or ten days. Lionel will come with Messrs. Turner & Co., of Hamilton; Fogerty & Bro., of Montreal; John Campbell, "I am very pleased," said Lady Earle. of London; the Oshawa Cabinet Company, Beatrice. How he detests everything mean | Dundas, and many others, all of whom appear to be doing a rushing business. "Yes," said Ronald, gravely, "I am Auction sales of real estate are very proud of my children. There is no taint numerous, and the amount of property of untruth or deceit there, mother-they changing hands daily is something enorare worthy of their race. I consider Bea- mous. To give you an idea of the value of trice the noblest girl I have ever known; real estate in that city—on the day we arrived there a property having a frontage few hours. "You would not like to part with them of 117 feet on Main street was sold for $95,200, and on the following Monday "I would sooner part with my life," he another lot changed hands at $725 per foot, pressions, mother, but even you could Leaving Winnipeg on Tuesday, we pronever guess how my life is bound up in | ceeded to Portage la Prairie-68 miles west on the C. P. R .- now the west ter-"Then let me say one word, Ronald," minus of that line. The Portage is prettily said his mother-" remember Dora loves situated on the bank of the Assiniboine probably never been equalled by any musithem as dearly and deeply as you do. Just River, and in the midst of the finest agrithink for a moment what it has cost her to cultural country one can imagine. It has give them up to you? She must see them now a population of about 1,500, and is soon, with your full consent and permis- rapidly increasing, no less than 160 houses "You are right, mother," he said, after and mills, hotels and warehouses are going Gore Mutual Insurance company. a few minutes. "They are Dora's chil- up in all directions. Business warehouses dren, and she ought to see them; but they and stores particularly are in great must not return to that farm-house-I demand and command almost fabucan meet on neutral ground-at your house, the Portage we were the guests of say, or in London; and let it be at Christ- our old townsman, Dr. Hagarty, now one of the largest landed proprietors in the "It had better be in London," said Lady country, by whom and his good wife we M.P., was a winner of a gold medal at her happy until the time arrives-she surrounding country, where we called upon a number of farmers formerly from Ontario, And again a softened thought of Dora who all speak in glowing terms of the consented to hold a reception at Newhad left it but yesterday, the pretty vine- on any consideration, preferring even the from the Mayor and Corporation. shaded room where Dora used to sit nursing | winters there to these of Ontario. The the little ones. He remembered her sweet farms there range in size from 320 to 640 patience, her never-failing, gentle love. and even 1,000 acres each, and not a few Had he done right to wound that sad heart farmers have now from 100 to 300 acres in afresh by taking those children from her? wheat, all looking magnificent, and promis-Was it a just and fitting reward for the ing from 40 to 45 bushels to the acre, which watchful love and care of those lonely will be marketed at the Portage at from 70c to 90c per bushel, being at present worth He would fain have pardoned her, but he | 90c. The C. P. Railway now running into Farms that could have been bought a year ago for $10 per acre, now bring from $15 to $20, and are steadily increasing in value.

Antiquity of the Pentateuch.

In his recent discourse on the Robertson Smith case, in Edinburgh, the Rev. Baldwin Brown said: "I have never seen anything in the way of the advanced criticism which ever tempted me to believe that the substance of the Book of Deuteronomy was the work of a late age of Jewish history. I hold that the book must have been written by a man familiar with desert experiences, and for a people fresh from desert wanderings and Egyptian life. The whole atmosphere of the book-and that it is next to impossible for the most skilful manufacture to imitate—breathes of the desert and of Egypt. After the Jews had been brought into contact with the great she entered one of the main avenues leading strongest traces of the influence which the commence in September. to Rideau Hall, laughing and chatting, and Oriental civilization had exercised on imaginations, an which it would have been simply until a team impossible for a writer of those days gallant but ill-fated General Montgomery, day, and they shall prosper that love her. TRY IT. If your merchant has not get it, he with two men and a female shricking to suppress. I believe firmly that the who fell before Quebec on the last night of "murder!" is seen (by a policeman) rapidly advanced criticism will return to the belief the year 1775, has been transferred to the the statement of the speaker that pulpit driven along the highway. The policeman that the books of the Pentateuch were sub- Livingstone family, residing on the Hudson oratory and power was on the decrease, stantially the works of the age which River, N.Y., the general having married witnessed the wanderings, with large interpolations possibly, which it will be the work of the learned and reverent critic to trace. But did we need the reassurance, we might find it in the manner in which critics At present it looks as if some diabolical of the very highest eminence, who distri- Paul Railroad and started down a grade of bute with sublime uncertainty this passage | eighty feet to the mile. A locomotive went which a woman is the victim-if not mur- in an ancient document to one writer, or in pursuit and made a brisk chase, but one age, and that to another, wrangle over gravity proved too much for steam, and house fly has only just embarked upon his the distribution; and while professing that the runaway cars were soon thundering midsummer career. Now he winks at us the indications are indisputable, take along at the rate of sixty miles an hour. from behind the cubes of cut sugar, or precisely opposite views of what they A telegram was sent forward to clear the flings himself in playful gymnastics upon mean." Commenting on Mr. Brown's track, but it could not be obeyed quick the ebon raspberry. Already he begins to discourse Dr. Peter Bayne writes: "We enough by one train of cars, from which skate on the butter dish and lave his fore should, we confess, have liked a rather the occupants escaped just in time to avoid foot in the inkstand; he will presently warmer and bolder appreciation of pro- death in one of the most violent collisions infest the cream pot and plunge madly into gressive Biblical science, as exemplified in that ever happened. Professor Smith's lectures, than we meet with in Mr. Brown's sermon."

been a misinterpretation of the law, in sor, where the Royal Horse Guards hold wonderful agglomeration of human beings consequence of which she suffered punish- their church parade, were somewhat ment. Pearl Reed is now in jail, dressed astounded, not to say scandalized, recently, the world, and to the fame of its physicians as persons usually are when incarcerated in | to see the rest of the congregation stand up | attracting patients there from all quarters, this place. Her luxuriant hair has been when the Prince and Princess of Wales and shorn. She refuses to give her proper name, other members of the Royal family entered | reflects great credit on the authorities. not even to the Inspector of Jails. She | the sacred building-an acknowledgment of don't want her folks in Rochester to know | State supremacy which the extreme High of the disgraceful conclusion of her trip to Church do not brook. But outsiders were privilege of gathering the wool scratched greatly pleased when the Prince appeared off the sheep's backs on the stones, hedges in full uniform at the church door at the and bushes; this wool they then spin and Three valuable livings have lately become head of his fine regiment and marched with knit into stockings, selling them at 121

The sale of Queen Victoria's yearlings knitted by a person in a season. has of late years generally brought forward a very inferior lot of animals. This year, yearlings, although the majority of them

Concerning the rumored approaching truly liberal spirit." departure of H. R. H. the Princess Louise by the statement that no application had been made for her accommodation on any of the vessels of that line.

Dean Swift, hearing of a carpenter's falling through a scaffolding of a house which he was engaged in repairing, remarked his work promptly.

heat and suffocation.

Personal. The Garfield fund has now reached $151,000.

Rev. Edward Harrington, Canon of Exeter, is dead.

Dr. O'Donovan is the Daily News correspondent imprisoned at Merv.

Rev. J. Odery, of Glanford, has been called to Europe by family affliction, and will probably be away three months.

Rev. Mr. Lowry, of Brantford, and family intend to leave that city about the 3rd of August, and to make Toronto the place of their future residence. Mrs. Isaac Burpee fell at Fredericton on to St. John yesterday morning.

Mrs. Shields, wife of Mr. John Shields, on contract "B," C. P. R., died at Rat Portage on Wednesday afternoon of an affection of the brain after an illness of a

The Ven. Archdeacon Lauder writes to say that he is rapidly improving, and that there is no foundation for the alarming despatches sent to the press from Ottawa.

Sir Julius Benedict on June 29th gave at St. James' Hall, London, his forty-sixth annual concert—an experience that has

John Simons has been for three years on the Northwest Mounted Police, but is now recreating in Galt. He is a son of T. M. having been built there since last January, Simons, for many years manager of the > Hon. S. C. Wood and Dr. O'Reilly, Deputy-Inspector of Prisons and Asylums, were at Fort William on the 9th instant. The Treasurer is expected to return to Toronto in a week or ten days.

Miss Costigan, daughter of John Costigan, and it was much admired.

Justin McCarthy is the most remarkable looking man of 50 I ever saw. Looks 35 and well-preserved at that. Small man; rich lightish brown hair ; full sandy beard -spectacles; exceedingly trim and neatly cut features and general make-up.

Prof. Robertson Smith has, it is stated, intimated his intention not to enter a pulpit till the General Assembly's decision in his case has been reversed. Two of his

M.P., to accept the hospitalities of Government House during part of his stay at parties I refer to as any other person Fredericton, N.B. The courteous invitation will no doubt be complied with. Mr. J. F. Bryan and Mrs. Bryan (Miss Helen Blythe) returned from the east yesterday, after an extended tour. They played in Montreal, Brockville, Napanee and other places to good houses, and had a pleasant trip home per steamer Passport.

Samuel Moore, son of John Moore, a Blair farmer, was working a horse hay rake, when the animal kicked him with great force. The unfortunate lad died soon after. He was a brother of the Messrs. Moore, of the Novelty Carriage Works, Galt.

Captain Rankin, of the ill-fated Victoria, Oriental despotism, all the imagery would has been offered a position as pilot in the have been in quite another key had the service of the Merchants' Line, running book been written in those days. Then between Detroit and Montreal. It is not The world and the churches' money has Ottawa is in no way behind other places the Jews had entirely lost sight of Egypt known whether he will be able to accept, as and has a mystery; it is a young woman and the desert; and the acknowledged the assizes at which he is to be tried in who is in the case, too. With a young man literature of their later days bears the connection with the Victoria disaster

It appears that through the instrumeninfluence tality of His Excellency the Governor-General the sword which belonged to the Sensation is the thing, it is the order of the into that family.

> Fourteen heavy-laden freight cars broke away from a train on the Chicago & St.

For the first eleven weeks of the last quarter the mortality in Dublin averaged 26.4 per 1,000, against 20.3 in London and The worshippers in the church at Wind- 21.1 in Edinburgh. Having regard to the in London, to its being the greatest port in the extraordinary low average death rate

At Connemara, in the west of Ireland, the old women of the vicinity are given the cents a pair. As many as 200 pairs are

In conversation yesterday the Archbishop of Canterbury said the last audible words rations with the help of Sir Beaumont, has L. C. BENTON, ST. THOMAS, ONT of Dean Stanley were: "I have labored re-established the somewhat damaged amidst many frailties and much weakness to make Westminster Abbey the great There were there a Dutch Boer-one of centre of religious and national life in a assisted at the ceremony.

Mr. J. A. Fraser, a member of the Mounted that he liked to see a mechanic go through kindness from all the graduates of Queen's. The subscriptions to the endowment A sealed car on the Canada Southern scheme were quite large, and the promise Railway at St. Thomas recently was found is that several thousand dollars will come ting Bull presented him with the match to contain a tramp who, had he remained from Eastern Ontario. The Principal will safe, which he had carried through the much longer a prisoner, would have died of leave shortly for Goderich, from thence he been unearthed in Mr. Trapeznikoff's mine goes to Manitoba.

THE STORY OF AN ACTOR.

Arrest of an English Actor in New York—Sentenced to Blackwell's Island-His Sad Story Brings Friends to His Relief-Gains His Release.

The story of the English actor Fairchild, comforts of a steerage passage in a crowded in the laughter which followed. steamer. He then went to Montreal, and, pointment met him. He had been living each time cooling their feet in water. at restaurants for fifteen cents per day for two weeks, and then was pennyless. He but thought that if he was disguised to represent an aged man and sang some nice drop a few pennies in his hat. He related how the disguise was a success at first, occasion of his arrest he came nearly being determined that nobody else shall do so. injured by the angry mob who perceived the deception. He said he had only eaten a crust since Monday. When he received a sentence of six months on Blackwell's Island the prisoner broke down completely, and sobbed bitterly. Yesterday, on reading his story in the

The very anticipation of it will make daily took us for long drives through the work was a portrait in crayon of her father, his release, and their purpose was accomplished. Letters offering situations, fre-His Excellency the Governor-General has quently accompanied by pecuniary aid had been pouring in all day from outside came to her husband. Of course she loved country, and not one of whom did not market, next Thursday, while on his way points, and various benevolent gentlemen them. The little villa at Florence rose express an opinion that it was far ahead of north. He will arrive at Newmarket at of the city have not been backward in before him; he saw vividly, as though he Ontario, and that he would not return here 1.30, and will receive and reply to addresses attempts to forward the interests of the unfortunate actor.

London Minister who Denounce Pulpit Sensationalism.

Rev. J. H. Robinson (a well-known

MODERN PREACHING.

Methodist clergyman) delivered an address on the pulpit at the meeting of the Ministerial Association, London, yesterday. In the course of his remarks he said : How, principal lay supporters have left the preaching come to pass? I answer this preaching to my Machine Mr. Blake has been requested by Lieut .- judgment, while at the same time I Governor Wilmot, through Mr. Pickard, entertain as high an opinion of the piety, fervor and usefulness of the can do. I believe that some worthy so-called revivalist, together with some worthy ladies who go about the country lecturing, have had much to do with the deterioration of genuine pulpit eloquence. They have told anecdotes—laughable stories—and have dealt largely in caricatures. They have ransacked family relations to find the pathos of deep human sympathies; they have gathered tragedies | none but from the slums of our towns and mirthprovoking incidents furnished by extensive travels and a wide acquaintance with mankind. They have made us laugh and cry by turns; on our knees one moment and the next ready to dance the polka from excitement and mirth. The world's applause has preceded and followed them. been showered upon them and the voice within us has said "Go thou and do likewise." Get up a lecture, or a "most eloquent" sermon, as the papers call it; get yourself advertised and fairly going in the serio-comic way, and your fortune is made.

> Several of the members demurred from can get it for you. and contended that never had the pulpit greater power than at the present day.

Rev. Dr. Evans said that the Rev. Dr. Wild's sermons were composed of "arrant nonsense."

Amusements of the House Fly.

We are at the middle of July, but the the soup. Later on he pervades everywhere. One experienced flyin a bed chamber will do the business of several muezzins. though he wakes the sleepers to anything but prayer; and a family that keeps a fly will have no use for an alarm clock. Then, with the coming of dawn's roseate hues, the suddenly awakened head of the family will wildly fling his hand across his nose and say things he will be sorry for, while the fluttering bird that woke him sits on the pillow taking a dry wash and musing over the utter depravity of mankind. For the next six weeks at least we may be sure that to Mr. Mallock's earnest question, " Is life worth living?" the human family will unanimously respond, "Not in fly time,"

Lady Florence Dixie, who, when last heard of, was in the camp at Bennett's section of Canada. Send postal card with ad Drift, camping out, and cooking her own dress for descriptive circular. reputation of her countrymen for shooting. the four told off to guard the Boer leaders attending the Royal Commission. This Lord Colin Campbell (brother of the Boer talked very big about his shooting Blood were married yesterday. The English. Lady Florence challenged him, Princess Louise and the Duke of Argyll therefore, to a trial of skill. The match were present. The Bishop of Kentucky was arranged. The Boer shot with a Principal Grant has returned to Kingston from his eastern tour. He has been very successful, and has met with great kindness from all the graduates of Queen's.

The subscriptions to the endowment of Kingston Principal Grant has returned to Kingston Winchester, at bottles placed at a distance of 200 yards. To the delight of all the onlookers, Lady Florence hit her bottles one after the other as if they were elephants, and moderate salary will be paid. Address with references, Drawer 2591, Toronto. and with the conviction that if all Englishmen can't shoot, some English women can.

in Siberia.

British and Foreign Notes.

The Duke of Cambridge, while at the dinner of the London cabmen, the other day, received a somewhat equivocal compliment. One of the cabmen, in responding to the toast of the evening, described as told in the New York police court on the joy which he felt at the first sight of Tuesday, was heartrending. He recounted the Duke. His Royal Highness, said cabby, how he had left his wife and four children had a presence and an appearance which, in London to settle affairs and started for had he not known who he was, would have America in the steerage of the steamer induced him to think that he was a cabman Sardinian. On June 30th he landed at of thirty years' standing. The Duke looked Quebec, after having endured all the dis- glum for a moment, and then joined heartily

What is known as "treading the fire " Tuesday, and sprained her foot so badly that accompanied by Mr. Sparrow, Manager of was performed at Bangalore, India, reshe is quite unable to use it. She returned the Theatre Royal of that city, journeyed cently, in honor of some pagan deity. A toward New York to find employ pit, a foot deep, six feet broad, and thirty ment. He had just $10 and long, was dug. Some five or six cartloads about twenty letters of recommendation of wood were thrown into the pit and set to prominent men. He put up at the Astor fire to. As soon as the wood was reduced Place Hotel, met with disappointment on to living coals of fire the whole was spread every hand, and finally called on the Eng- out and the fire flattened to the surface of lish Consul, who said he could do nothing, the pit. The votaries of Thurmarah (the but sent him to the St. George's Society. name of the deity) then ran over the bed This was the last hope, but here too disap- of fire the whole length five or six times,

Miss Proudfut is one of the loveliest girls in Southern Kansas, and a year ago was was too proud to sing on the street without the recipient of much admiring attention a disguise, and could not ask for a penny, from the opposite sex; but now there is a disposition on the part of the young men to stay away from her. The change is songs upon the streets some persons might caused by the fact that threee of her suitors have received gunshot wounds while in her company. It is not known who the assassin saying with tears, " I would not have done is, but he is supposed to be somebody who, this had I not been starving." But on the being unable to secure the prize himself, is

The Prince and Princess of Wales opened a new infirmary for the sick poor of Marylebone parish, at Notting Hill, on Wednesday week. The building has been erected by the Board of Guardians at a cost of £113,-000, to accommodate about 760 sick persons. Helena. "I will write to Dora, and tell were most hospitably entertained, and who Notre Dame Convent, Ottawa. Among her morning papers, influential persons sought the district to the Distric the district to the Prince and Princess of Wales as they drove through the streets was enthusiastic. This is said to be the first instance in which the opening of a poor-law institution has been honored by the presence of Royalty.

> There is but one way to cure baldness, and that is by using Carboline, a deodorized extract of petroleum, the natural hair grower. As recently improved, it is the only dressing for the hair that cultured people will use.

ARDINE!

THE VERY BES

IN THE WORLD,

Is manufactured by

McCOLL BROS. & Co., TORONTO

And for sale by dealers. Ask your merchant for Lardine and take no other.

This oil under the severest test and most active competition was at the Toronto Industrial Exhibition awarded the highest prize; also the GOLD MEDAL at the Provincial Exhibition, Hamilton, and the highest award at the Dominion Exhibition, Ottawa, the silver medal. Farmers and all who use Agricultural machin ery, will save money and machinery by using LARDINE.

ASK FOR

COUGHS, COLDS, ASTHMA WHOOPING-COUGH, CROUP.

This old established remedy can be with confi JOHN. W. BICKLE

(Formerly T. Bickle & Son). Hamilton, Ontario. Proprietor.

NORTHERN PACIFIC RAILROAD LANDS. FORTUNES FOR FARMERS. 50,000 Farms. 6,000,000 Acres. Best Wheat Land, Rich Meadow, Choice Timber, Farming, Stock Raising, Dairying, Fuel and Water in Abundance. $2.50 per acre and upward. One-sixth cash and five annual payments. Reduced Fare and Freight to settlers. Write for "Publications No. 63." Geo. Dew, Travelling Agent, 72 Yonge st., Toronto. R. M. Newport, General Land Agent, St. Paul, Minn.

WISCONSINI 500,000 Acres LALLY

MINNESQTA.

ON THE LINE OF THE

WISCONSIN CENTRAL R. R. For full particulars, which wil be sent

> address CHARLES L. COLBY,

Land Commissioner Milwaukee, Wi

AGENTS WANTED

By sending 35 cents money, with age, height, color of eyes and hair, you will receive by return mail a correct picture of your future hus band or wife, with name and date of YOURSELF | marriage. Address W. FOX Box 3, Fultonville, N. Y.

GENTS WANTED. - LUCRA-TIVE, respectable employment for teach-

GENTS WANTED FOR Moore's universal assistant and complete A nugget of gold weighing 58 pounds has been unearthed in Mr. Trapeznikoff's mine facts; best subscription book in the market to day; exclusive territory; circulars free. J g ROBERTSON & BROS., Whitby.