An old brick building, known as the Old Quaker Meeting House, at Newcastle, Pa., which Penn is said to have occupied, is in course of demolition.

The administration of the Bucharest Tramway Society are at present employing oxen instead of horses, the former being a decidedly cheaper means of locomotion.

upon unmarried ladies who have passed in 1860 arrested Constance Emile Kent has made love and repeated his calls. finding the absence of her nightgown from a neighboring saloon he learned of the drawn up in the avenue. The church was Meanwhile he has stolen what he could suspicious and insisting that she had taken find, and the ladies, fearing ridicule, have it from the wash-basket while she had sent not complained, until one, more plucky the maid who was carrying it for a glass of than the rest, now hands the rascal over to water. The girl was set at liberty, and the police.

And notwithstanding all this, the spoiled Constance Kent, who had joined him. prisoners work for crime," etc.

stantinople, is a mill worked by a stream flowing from the sea. An Englishman discovered that the water always ran one way and built a mill which has made his forultimately went, and, among other experilost.

you herewith the pamphlet sent, informing desired her husband's death, ness' time."

Charles B. Heim, of Baltimore, died June 10th. Fearing grave robbers, his mother and wife had his remains deposited chased any antimony. She died not long in the Baltimore Cemetery vault, the number of the permit being 665. On Mon. day they went to the vault to remove the body for burial in the ground, when they found that coffin No. 665 was not the coffin in which Mr. Heim's body was placed, and prolonged search failed to discover it. All the graves dug since June 10th are to be opened. The keeper thinks he must have got the coffins mixed.

While all the world nowadays knows of the torpedo, invented and named by Fulton, as a machine to blow up ships, comparatively few know that it takes its name is found in the Mediterranean, the Bay of maybe it is only a gentle request for sub-Biscay and the southern English and Irish scriptions past due. Some business men, extraordinary powers to benumb a big these blissful fellows know that when a loves to lie in sand, in which it will bury tion with the editor? He is used to it. It belief, the number of suicides in London eats meat and all other "indelicacies" of suicides from 1875 to 1878 was 450 per a man; likes his friends as any other man, means of supporting it usually hang themselves, while those who commit suicide from shame, remorse or unrequitted affection, take poison or use firearms. The proporis as four to one.

achieved by the German arms in 1870-71 and in many instances a rapid growth, the 60,000,000 roubles, and other department has been lately set up in Berlin. In 1816 following census districts have less popula- expenditures 40,000,000 roubles. It is three pieces of ordnance—two mortars and a heavy gun—captured by the Germans North Leeds and Grenville, Frontenac, amounts to $2,450,000,000. There is also during the campaigns of 1813-15, were placed within an iron railing on a small mound opposite the Zeughans or arsenal in | Perth and Essex in Ontario; Iberville, view to reducing the amount of this secret the Prussian capital, as a memento of the Vercheres, Laprairie, Napierville, Chateau- debt, the Government is 1859 seized upon glorious issue of the war. The gun, how. guay, Soulanges, Joliette, L'Assomption all deposits in the banks and all moneys ever, although taken from the French, was and Laval in Quebec, and Sunbury, New belonging to churches and charities. Afterreally an old German piece, having been for Brunswick. many years one of the treasures of the A Port Huron (Mich.) despatch says their contents sold by the Minister of town of Lubeck, and having only fallen into Edward Fetto, fireman on the tug Prince Finance. The Treasury till holds all this the hands of the French when they seized Alfred, lost his life on Saturday morning by property, giving notes br it bearing low the latter place. Consequently it has now | the blowing out of a plug that was driven in a | interest. been removed, and in its place an historical damaged flue of her boiler. He was of the Napoleonic dynasty, on the 4th of | where his remains will be taken. September, 1870, it was rechristened "La

Conduct is the great profession. Be-What a man does tells us what he is.

THREE CELEBRITIES

Connected with the Kent, Staunton and

Brave Murders. The last English mails contain announcements of the deaths of three persons intimately connected with the three most sensational crimes that have agitated London during the last twenty years. A difficulty arose a few days ago between afternoon, of Miss Cavendish-Bentinck with Ex-Inspector Jonathan Whicher, who died at the age of 77, was one of the first staff of detectives organ-A scoundrel of Paris has been calling | ized in London in 1843. It was he who 30, and after referring them to his aunt for the murder of her infant step-brother, adversary. When Drulshagen returned during the ceremony, and were afterward Whicher shared with her father the A Professor Rapp, of Cincinnati, defend- popular opprobrium of the hour; indeed ing himself against his wife in the Divorce his dismissal was urged in the Commons, Court, says: "To show what a miser I but the Home Secretary stood by him, and was, I bought my wife a gold watch, a gold when three years later he retired it was shoot any man that came near him. A young white llama, trimmed with coffee-colored chain, gold bracelets, gold ear-ring, gold with full rank and pension. Whicher was breastpin, four gold rings, a fine piano, four subsequently sent to Russia to reorganize silk dresses, twenty-four sets of under- the detective force, and figured in the early wear, and sent her to the College of Music." stages of the Tichborne case. In 1865, and petted one did not "care a rap" for Anglican sisterhood, confessed her crime and justified Whicher's theory; she was con-Mr. Gover, a London milliner, was lately demned to death on her confession, but we fined $94.50 for employing workpeople after | believe released on Dr. Bucknill's report that 4 on Saturday, which is against the law she would go mad in confinement, though if there. Three of the workers pleaded that Dr. Bucknil had communicated to the they were on piecework, and thought they authorities the facts, indicating motive and were entitled to go on. The justice said long preparation, which recently he revealed moned, one to attend Reagan and the hot day. Over the seats of the bride and chime to chime; work, work, work, as Kent's confession, but insisted that she had Rhodes were sentenced to death in 1877 tion of the paim below the thumb. for starving Louis' wife to death. The tune. He tried hard to find where the verdict was returned at 11 o'clock of a cold water, which disappears into the earth, and foggy night, but the adjacent streets were crowded and it was hailed with ments with that end, poured oil on its triumphant yells, while Mr. Justice surface, but its course remains a mystery. Hawkins in passing sentence called the prisoners' offence "a crime so dark and There were thirty-six British and foreign | hideous that in all the records of crime it wrecks, of which eight were British, one would be difficult to find its parallel.' being a steamer, reported during the past Just two weeks later Alice Rhodes was week, making a total of 906 for the present given a free pardon and the sentences of year, or an increase of 228 as compared the others were commuted. It may be with the corresponding period of last year. | doubted whether under less exciting cir-The approximate value of property lost cumstances the prisoners would not have was £3,500,000, including British £1,000,- been acquitted, or at worst convicted of the girls are all dying after him. 000. Four vessels were lost off the coasts lower grade of homicide. The third death of the United Kingdom, and twenty-one was that of the father of Mr. Charles Turoff Sweden and Norway. Sixty lives were ner Bravo, who died so mysteriously by poisoning with antimony. He had married Prince Bismarck objects to the new a dashing widow, Mrs. Florence Ricardo, fashion of printing German books in Latin who had maintained irregular relations characters, as appears from the following with Dr. Gully before her second marriage. letter to a well-known publishing house in There was no evidence that these had Leipsic: "With reference to the letter been renewed, that the Bravos were directed to Prince Bismarck, I beg to return unhappy, that the wife should have charged double price. you at the same time that it is contrary to that the husband had contemplated rule to lay before the Chancellor any work suicide. His dying declaration was that foe. or works written in the German language he had poisoned himself, but with laudawith Latin characters, because the perusal num, a drug he could not have taken. of such would take too much of His High- Offers of large rewards never produced any testimony as to the person by whom the decanter of Burgundy had been poisoned, or to show that Mrs. Bravo had ever purago of alcoholic excesses, leaving Dr. Gully a large sum of money and her jewels. Curiously enough, when the elder Mr. Bravo's wine cellar was disposed of two years ago some sherry was found in which antimony had been placed, and it came out that the younger gentleman had secretly ordered some anti-dipsomaniac powders for his wife, which were composed of antimony. But no definite clue to the Bravo mystery has ever been discovered.

Stop My Paper.

from a fish of marvellous electrical pro- world who is under the impression that if perties, which was anatomized by the he "stops his paper" he will thus get even las and went off with a worse one just way-bill for two boxes of baggage which sufficient to keep the head out of water in famous surgeon John Hunter. The torpedo with the editor for some supposed injury—because he didn't take his umbrella with him. her husband had sent on, but instead of case an inexperienced swimmer should lose waters. The ancients employed it as a or rather men in some business, are labortherapeutic agent. It is believed to use its | ing under the same apparition. Why, don't enemy or to capture a smaller fish. It man "cuts" his paper it causes no commoitself by flapping its extremities, throwing | is only a proof that his paper is appreciated. the sand over its back. Tread on it then Aside from that, an editor is very like and you will lie prone in a moment. It is an ordinary man. He eats, he drinks, sometimes sold for food in French markets. he wears clothes (when he can get perienced a spasmodic growth just before Some curious statistics of suicide are them-they may not be the finest, Christmas or the picnic season. published in a German paper, from which but he wears them all the same), he it appears that, contrary to the general wears a hat, he eats vegetables, eats bread, there is plenty more in the cupboard when is relatively much less than in the other | the season (sometimes eats crow). No, the company. European capitals. In Leipzig, the "Chim- editor does not go barefooted (unless he borazo of suicide," as it is called by a has to). Paradoxically speaking, he is a German professor, the average number of man like any other man; has feelings like million inhabitants; in Paris it was 400, and as a rule is not less charitable than her mourning becoming. in Vienna 285, in Berlin 280 and in London other men. Now, "stop my paper," man, only 85 per million. Another popular don't think to hurt our feelings by paying out seeming to watch every word she notion, that suicides are more frequent in up and quitting. This is a very large utters. November than in other months, is also world, friend, and there are some very incorrect, the greatest number of suicides large people in it. If we discover that we occurring in May, June and July. Those can't get along without you, why then we who are tired of life or are destitute of the | will sell out and quit the business .- Topeka Commonwealth.

THE CENSUS.—The decrease or nearly stationary character of population in the tion of men to women who commit suicide rural districts, as shown by the census, is expected that the budget for 1882 will be the subject of remarks. While the cities 100,000,000 roubles less than for 1881, the Another memorial of the successes and towns generally show a considerable, War Office expenditure being diminished tion than in 1871: Glengarry, Dundas, known that the national debt of Russia Lennox, East Hastings, Peel, Niagara, a secret debt of which there is no public North Wentworth, North Waterloo, South record. To meet the interest, and with a Dean Stanley received his early education before he went to Rugby, at Seaforth Vicarage, near Liverpool, under the late at the Missionary Conference it was stated Sweden. It is a curious circumstance that The queen—the little sweetheart herself.— Rev. W. Lawson. Among his fellow pupils that the women thus far ad raised $4,500,- warm Italy should have within a fraction Syracuse Standard. Clubs-The old man's living, and Sir Richard Cross.

A WOMAN'S TONGUE

Causes a Terrible Tragedy in Detroit-A Dispute About a Flower Pot Results in Murder.

Two families named respectively Drul. shagen and Reagan occupy together a tenement house, 114 Lafayette street, Detroit. Truth) witnessed the marriage, on Saturday the families about a flower pot, which was Lord Glamis, eldest son of the Earl of finally secured by the Reagans. The Strathmore, which was celebrated by spewomen met on Tuesday night, exchanged cial license. The bridegroom is in the many uncomplimentary epithets, but Second Life Guards, and the non commisneither offered physical violence to her sioned officers of his troop lined the aisle terms in which Mrs. Reagan had addressed crowded with friends and relatives, among found the Reagan's door locked, but he Kerr. The bride arrived a little after 1 bullet pierced his breast, inflicting a serious lace. Her wreath of orange blossoms was flourishing his revolver and threatened to jewellery. The eight bridesmaids wore saying, "You won't shoot me," grappled colored feathers. Broad white moire with him. A scuffle ensued in which Mc. sashes were arranged over the dresses. Cormick tried to get possession of the The bride's bouquet consisted entirely of McCormick then took the revolver and village school girls, dressed in white, gave it to Officer Gup. Drs. Kuhn, strewed the bride's path with flowers as Richards and Gilmartin were summoned she left the church. The wedding breakfast

A Liberal Reward Will be Given

To the woman who, upon trying on a new bonnet, never mentioned that her hair wasn't fixed.

To the writer for the press who never said that his contribution was dashed off. To the person, age or sex immaterial, who, when relating an accident of which he or she was a witness, did not lay particular stress upon what "I did" or what 'I said."

To the young man who doesn't think the

To the young woman who wouldn't choose an ice cream to a substantial meal. To the same young woman who never for "just a bite."

sidered the possibilities of a second nearly two weeks ago and have since been peculiar pleasure in helping the ladies off Detroit at 4 o'clock. He has not since enough for you?"

without the bones. To the dealer who invariably puts the We occasionally meet a man in this biggest strawberries at the bottom of the box.

> To the small boy who never whistled. To the small boy who never sighed to be a hunter, an Indian fighter or a pirate.

tell a wealthy patient that nothing ails him. with feelings of unmingled grief. To the boy of 18 who does not know more property from her mother-in-law.

than his parents. To the Sunday school that has not ex-

To the housekeeper who hasn't said pressing the last slice of cake on her

To the amateur farmer who never drew the long bow when dilating upon his agricultural achievements. To the widow who does not like to have

To the school teacher who can talk with-

To the politician who never sought the place that seemed to seek him. To our English fellow-citizen who does not think things are done better at 'ome.

To the horse-jockey who never did any funny business."

The Novoe Vremia (Russia) says it is wards all the pawnshops were seized, and was raised this year.

A MARRIAGE AND A MYSTERY

Wedding of Miss Cavendish-Bentinck and the Earl of Strathmore's Eldest Son-The Secret of Glamis Castle.

The small and old-fashioned church in the little village of Petersham (says London if the bills before Parliament are not coun-Mrs. Drulshagen, and seizing a revolver he whom were the Duke of Portland, Major ran downstairs swearing vengeance. He General Burnaby and General Lord Mark burst it open and fired at Reagan. The o'clock, in the customary white satin and wound. Drulshagen then started upstairs composed of real flowers. She wore no man named McCormick ran up stairs, and lace; and white chip hats, with cream have to borrow the money in order to weapon. While thus engaged the revolver white flowers. Those of the bridesmaids went off, the bullet hitting Drulshagen were composed of pink roses and stephaunder the right eye and entering his brain. notis. It was a pretty wedding. Some to attend Drulshagen, and pronounced his was served in a large marquee behind the wound fatal. Two priests were also sum- house, a delightful arrangement on such a "No." The Act was passed to obviate in his Lumleian lecture, she would probably other Drulshagen. The latter was prepared bridegroom hung a large bell composed apply for false teeth, and he finds the cause "Work, work, from weary chime to have been executed. It is noteworthy that for death according to the rites of the entirely of roses of every color, and when chime; work, work, from weary the "popular element" never accepted Miss Catholic Church. Reagan will recover, but the cake was cut the bell was swung. Drulshagen at 1 o'clock yesterday morning | This marriage recalls to memory the mysbeen tortured into insanity by the was sinking rapidly. McCormick was also terious chamber that is said to exist in in the meshing, causing it to fit the figure At Argostoli, or Cephalonia, where Lord Ritualists, or else that she had confessed slightly wounded during the struggle, his Glamis Castle. What is contained in this as closely as the silk webbing used to last Dufferin lately touched on his way to Con-stantinople, is a mill worked by a stream that of Patrick Llewellyn Staunton, who by the ball that entered Drulshagen's brain with it is known alone to the head of the __Ma with his wife, his brother Louis and Alice or by the hammer striking the fleshy por- family, his eldest son and the factor of the estate. That there is a closed chamber is unquestionable; it has no window, and it is reached through a hole in the ceiling. Equally unquestionably is it that there is a secret connected with it. For my part, adds Mr. Labouchere, I consider that a mystery like this, which has been handed down from father to son for many generations, ought to be made public in order to gratify curiosity which may fairly be said to be legitimate. Were I Lady Glamis my husband would have little peace until he confided the secret to me.

LEFT PENNILESS.

Sad Story by a Deserted Wife.

A care-worn, plainly dressed woman, retired to the cupboard upon reaching home with two children clinging to her dress, approached Mr. Healy, G. T. R. policeman, To the woman over 30 who never had an | in the Union depot, at Toronto, on Wednesday afternoon, and asked him, "Have you To the storekeeper who never said, "As seen anything of my husband?" Mr. it is you, I will call it so and so," and then | Healy, who was not acquainted with her, replied in the negative, and the poor To the schoolboy who does not at times woman, with tears trickling down her is!" petulantly exclaimed the Hopedale look upon the schoolmaster as his mortal cheeks, told the following story: "My girl after a struggle with the aforesaid name is Mrs. Forbes, and these (pointing | Sniggins at "Copenhagen." "He nearly To the young lady graduate who would to the children) are mine. We were burned not rather have a white satin dress than out at the Woodbridge fire, and being left for his smother?" asked the other miss, high class honors at the graduation exercises. penniless my husband decided to come to naively. To the married man who never con- Toronto to seek work. We arrived in the city boarding at the house of Mr. Johnson, To the married woman who does not King street west. My husband told me on sometimes wonder how she ever came to Tuesday to pack up our effects, as he had decided to go to Detroit, where he said To the clergyman who doesn't feel just work was plentiful. We came down yesa little proud of the tears he calls up at a terday, and my husband excused himself, saying that he would be back in a few To the car conductor who does not take minutes, as a special train was leaving for returned, and I don't know what to do." To the man who never inquired, "Is this Mr. Healy told Mrs. Forbes to sit quietly hot enough for you?" or "Is this cold in the waiting-room and he would make inquiries about her husband. He learned To the butcher who weighs his meat that Forbes had purchased a ticket and a bathing suit the other day which struck had left for Chicago by the 3.30 Great me as at once pretty and sensible. Round Western express. Mr. Healy then told the the neck it had a little cork apparatus, not deserted one what he had learned. Mrs. unlike a small bolster, cleverly concealed in To the man who ever exchanged umbrel- Forbes produced from her pocket-book a one of the ruffs so much wern, and quite the way-bill being marked Detroit, as she her balance." anticipated, it bore the mark of "Bolton," reason for her husband's strange conduct, To the undertaker who hears of death left by the T. G. & B. express for Bolton yesterday afternoon to try and recover the Advice to the Thirsty.

An always thirsty but very temperate man exhorts as follows:

the same thing, and it may be mentioned hate it, because they could not, under any in his 'Story of Mont Blanc.' 'When I circumstances, hate dancing; but they arrived at the Grands Mulets I took a small | would infinitely prefer that, to their minds, square of chocolate and wrapped it round enchanting exercise by any other light, be most refreshing and invigorating.' Snow torches. Daylight is merciless to flushed is not portable, but chocolate is, and has cheeks, crushed flowers and torn dresses." the merit of not blowing up when heated, like the ammonia that anglers carry about | ing through post offices has been devised. with them to cure the midge bites.

drink to takers of exercise. I can bear the hand stamp, and each time the stamper credibly informed that Devonshire mowers stamp is opened, the number of letters day, and I can perfectly believe it. " Never touch spirits under any circumstances. Dozens of lemons can be easily carried about, and with soda or plain water, or even that ghastly compound ginger-beer, a squeeze of a lemon is worth a king's ransom. There are two pre-eminent drinks for quenching thirst equal in merit but a matter of taste to the drinkers-barley water scientifically made, and milk. prefer the former. But if young ladies would drink the latter balls, for instance, in lieu of doubtful champagne, they would speedily discover a great difference, morally and physically. And if every lock-keeper on the Thames were to keep a dairy and a 'coo' or two on the premises, thirsty oarsmen would make gles very nicely with fine sugar and a little his fortune in a few years."

The morning attire introduced from Germany has nearly 400,000 shoemakers French gun has been mounted. This latter engaged in putting a fire in when the plug Russia by the Princess o Wales fits like a and cobblers, or nearly 90 to every 10,000 piece was many years in the fortress of flew out and the hot water scalded him glove to the person, produces the effect of her population. This is a larger propor- met your sweetheart. The left bower-Mont St. Valerien, and bore the name of about the head and breast so that he died when worn of a jet cuiras, and its glitter- tion than in any country except Italy and The one where you meet your other sweet-"La Belle Josephine," until, after the fall in a few moments. His home was Detroit, ing blackness is extremely becoming to England. Italy takes the lead of all. heart.—Earl Marble. The little joker both figure and complexin. It costs about Then come, in the order named, England Your sweetheart's bad little brother .-A despatch from Chauauqua says that Denmark, France, the United States and raises you.—Terre Haute Saturday Night. havior is the perpetual revealing of us. were Mr. Gladstone, now patron of the 000 for missionary work, which $800,000 of 100 cobblers to 10,000 of the population, wedding present.—Rochester Express. Diaand cold Sweden less than 18.

TEA TABLE GOSSIP.

-At a recent State ball at Buckingham Palace there was not a single lady present without a crinolette.

-" You handle the truth quite carelessly," is the latest and more refined style of calling a man a liar.

-Ladies at Saratoga are said to bet heavily on horse races. Ladies always were prominent as betters-of men.

-Guitteau claims to be a tragedian because he played the leading role in the Presidential tragedy at Washington. -Mrs. Partington asks very indignantly terfeit, why should there be such a difficulty in passing them? -On the panel under the letter receiver of the general post-office, Dublin, these words are printed: " Post here letters too late for next mail." -There is many a man who threatens to cut off his son with a shilling who would accomplish the threat. -The past winter in Iceland has been the severest known there since 1690, and there was much suffering in consequence among the inhabitants.

-The town of Milton is likely to get into a lawsuit over a fire engine which they bought from Blackwood, of Toronto, and which is alleged to be worthless.

-A dentist says that of people under 30 more young ladies than young gentlemen in the fact that young ladies chew caramels.

-A new "Jersey" is imported made of chenille network, with a fine rubber

-Matthew Henry says: "That which is won ill will never wear well," but the times are so out of joint that we don't care whether things wear well or not so we have plenty of them.

-The revival of hoopskirts has come in time to make the goats smile. They expect soon to resume their old article of diet when the hoops become old and are thrown into open lots.

-" What is the greatest charge on record?" asked the professor of history, and the absent-minded student answered: "Seventeen dollars for hack hire for self and girl for two hours."

-Another dory has started across the Atlantic. The experiment has become so common as to lose its novelty, and the crew's chief chance of securing publicity is that of appearing in an obituary notice. -Du Marier has a barber saying,

"You're very bald, sir. Have you tried our tonic lotion?" And the bald headed patient in the chair replies, "Oh, yes. But that's not what's made all my hair fall off." -" What a rough fellow that Sniggins smothered me!" "And did you kiss him

-" Hello! Uncle Mose, hello!" cried Jim Webster, as he hurried down Mary street, trying to overtake the old man. "Be keerful, Jeames, be keerful how you undress yo'self to me; I ain't no telephone," replied the indignant deacon.

-London Fun: "Pastor-'Yes, Mrs. Brown. Taking into consideration the fact that the Smiths hardly ever pay their pew rents, it is strangely bad taste on their part to sing so loudly, and throw such unction into their prayers.' Mrs. Brown-'Quite too terribly shocking!'"

-A writer in London Life says: "I saw

-Du Maurier (at a smoking concert) and was addressed to Forbes' mother, who | " Herr Professor-' You haf a bleasing To the doctor who has the hardihood to lives there. Mrs. Forbes, who can give no foice, my young vrent. Pot you ton't brotuce it in a lechidimate vay.' Our Tenor- Perhaps if I did it would no longer please.' Herr Professor-' Ach ! Vat of dat? Bleasure is not effery ding. You should alvays brotuce your foice in a lechidimate vay, vedder it kifs bleasure or

-London Truth: " Dancing by daylight "Here is a good authority-Albert Smith. is not looked on with approval by the per-You may possibly have heard him state formers. Men hate it. Girls don't quite with snow and swallowed it, and found it it gas, candles, stars, moon, electricity or -A new method of counting letters pass-A small counter, similar to an engine "Also avoid cider. Delicious but fatal counter, is placed in the head or handle of testimony to the fact that the more you presses it upon a letter it is registered drink of it the more you want to. I am on the counter. At the close of the day the and reapers can drink five or six gallons a stamped read off and registered, and the counter set ready for the next day's work.

-Edward Peacock, writing of early Scotland, speaks of the extraordinary prejudice that because our forefathers lived in houses not more commodious, perhaps, than modern stables they were therefore barbarians. "It is," says he, "not in novels alone that we find men characterized as savages because they do not use forks atdinner."

-A few years ago, when Dio Lewis was the rage, he said that people who ate many tomatoes would lose their teeth. There are many people who are fond of a raw tomato, but who cannot eat one with oil and vinegar. The acid of the tomato minsalt, and is said not to be disagreeable in small quantities to people who suffer from indigestion.

-The right bower-The one where you and Wales, Germany, Belgium, Ireland, Baton. The jack-The father's boot that monds—Your present to the happy one.