Woodville Local News.

Our subscription list is increasing very favourably. We do not pay canvassers and we are pleased to know our paper is accepted on its merits. THE ADVOCATE from now to Jan. 1885 for 25 cents.

MR. ALEX. RODGERS who has been sick and confined to his bed for some time is around once more.

A COMPLAINT has been lodged with the Reeve demanding the removal of the old weigh scale from the main street. This is correct. The scale is a delapidated and unsightly object and should have been removed long ago.

To catch the full effect of the advantages conferred on us by incorporation, it is only necessary to stroll King street some fine evening. Delapidated sidewalks and a forest of weeds are the decorations on our streets. Surely the council might employ a man to remove these unsightly objects or instruct the pathmasters to have it done.

Harness during summer is apt to be neglected and to be worn very rapidly by heat, rains and perspiration from the horse. It is also injured by the ammonia freely given off from the stables even with the greatest care. A little glycerine mixed with the oil used in blacking will keep the harness flexible much better than the oil alone. Most preparations for oiling harness contain glycerine, and owe to it most of their value.

MR. JOHN SCOTT, one of Woodville's most reliable dry goods merchants, has decided to remove his stock to his premises at Zephyr which he lately purchased there. Mr. Scott has established a good business and his action in leaving causes not only feelings of regret, but also of wonder amongst the citizens.—Uxbridge Guardian.

We have been frequently asked for a receipt such as the following which we clip from the columns of a contemporary:—Lime slacked with a solution of salt in water, and then properly thinned with skim milk from which all the cream has been taken, makes permanent whitewash for outdoor work: and it is said, renders the wood incombustible. It is an excellent wash for preserving wood, and for all purposes.

THE Voter's List Court for Mariposa will be held at Oakwood, on September the 22nd.

We would direct attention to the advertisement of Pickering College in another column. This institution being equipped in the best possible manner, must commend itself to the public of this locality. It being near home should also have its influence on those desirous of sending sons or daughters to college.

One of the firm of Neelands & Pentland, Dentists, Lindsay, will be at the Eldon House, Woodville, on Tuesday, Sept. 9th, Peck's Bad Boy, on Friday evening in "Spencer Hall," Woodville. Come and enjoy a good laugh.

ELDON Fall Show has been placed for Monday, October 6th, instead of Friday, Sept. 26th.

Fire in Parkdale.

A Stranger in Woodville Placed Under Arrest.

FIRE broke out in a stable owed by Mr. John T. Shewell, in rear of Gwynne-avenue, Parkdale, on Saturday afternoon. Mr. Hugh MacMath, who was one of the first to arrive at the fire, saw a man about twelve feet from the building, walking south, and asked him what he was doing there. He answered roughly, and as he would give no explanation of his presence there, Mr. MacMath had him arrested. The fire had spread to a woodshed, about ten feet from the stable, but was extinguished at this point and confined to the stable, which was destroyed. The loss, including a cutter, which was burned, was about $300; no insurance. In the evening the supposed incendiary was tried before Mr. Wingfield, J. P. He gave his name as George Anderson, Woodville, and pleaded not guilty. Eliza Bennett, a girl eight years of age, said she saw the prisoner in the hayloft before the fire, and that he ran out when he saw the blaze. The case was adjourned until Tuesday night. The prisoner is a respectable looking man, and a total stranger in the village. It is possible that a charge of trespass may be substituted for the grave accusation.

[Who is George Anderson and what Woodville does he hail from? There are three or four such places in the Dominion with as many more in the U. S. Woodville as a name is acquiring an unenviable reputation and we shall shortly favor a change of name.—Ed.]

Beaverton Local News.

It is hoped that the G. T. R., will furnish somewhat better accommodation for the shipment of cattle from Beaverton. At present the service is entirely inadequate.

COUNTLESS trees were destroyed in this section by the recent storms.

We dare to assert that no establishment in this county can compare with that of Mr. James Cameron, in its stove exhibit. Mr. C. has lately received his fall consignment and it would almost do justice to a foundry both in extent and variety, an agent of one of our leading foundries informed us that Mr. Cameron carries the largest stock in this line which he has met north of Toronto. This is saying much for the enterprise of our neighbour, and we would ask our farmer friends to show their appreciation by a visit to his show room, not necessarily to purchase, but to realize the justice of our remarks. Mr. Cameron will be pleased to show visitors around.

THE EXPRESS has now been in existence upwards of three years and in that time we have done our best to further the interests of the community in which we have worked. We have been decidedly successful in this and we ask all citizens of Beaverton and Thorah to extend to us a helping hand. We do this with the hope of making the EXPRESS even more powerful for good than heretofore. Our interests are with the people of these municipalities and not with the building up of some far off town or city, whose only object is to secure your dollars and let your interests take care of themselves. Subscribe for THE BEAVERTON EXPRESS and show yourself loyal to your local enterprises.

PORT PERRY people are displaying great energy in the way of rebuilding the village. What was a few weeks ago a desolate looking place is to-day a very hive of industry. The side streets of the burned portion have been covered with temporary wooden buildings, in which business is carried on, and which will be cleared away as soon as the permanent buildings on Queen St., are finished. Queen St., is a busy place, and the business premises are fast arising "phoenix like" from their ashes. The buildings are of brick, and of a substantial character. In a short time the village will be decked out in a gayer dress than ever.

SERVICE will be held (D. V.) in the Orange Hall, on Sunday evening next at the usual hour. Mr. W. L. Faulkner, will preach.

ATTENTION has several times been called to the unnecessary ringing of the town bell. It has almost developed into a custom with drunken rowdies of the neighbourhood whenever they come to town to ring the bell. This should be put down with a strong hand. Our citizens now do not know what the ringing of the bell may mean and some day we may find this annoyance the source of severe loss.

DUCK shooting will soon commence.
THORAH Fall Show will be held this year on October 7th.

REV. MR. GILLIES of Eldon, preached in St. Andrew's Church on Sabbath last.

THE excursion to Midland on Tuesday last was attended by quite a number of our citizens.

A NUMBER of cases of petty thieving are reported in the village. This, however, has now become so common that but little notice is taken. It would be well if an endeavour were made in some case in which suspicion is well grounded to discover the sneak. The north side of the river appears to be the seat of operations.

AN alarm of fire was sounded on Saturday night last. On enquiry it was found that a lantern had exploded in the stable of the "Hamilton House." It was quickly put out, however.

CAPTAIN CUTBERTSON was in town from the lakes for a few days during the week.

A SPECIAL meeting of the Thorah Township Council will be held on Saturday next, at 5 p. m.

A DIRECTORS' meeting of the Thorah Agricultural Society will be held on Saturday evening next.

THE Bijou Comedy and Dramatic Co. R. H. Baird, in "Nip and Tuck," will show in Alexandria Hall, on Saturday evening next. The company come with a good reputation.

Tickets issued from Beaverton to London, England, only $19.00. John McKinnon, agent Allan Line.

Born.
On the 22nd inst., the wife of Mr. Angus McLean, Beaverton, of a daughter.
