OUR NEIGHBORS.

Interesting Jottings From Other Places

Cannington.

The Races here last week were quite successful both as to numbers and financial results. Some good horses were here and excellent time was made. Our fine track was generally admired by the horseman.

The Fall Exhibition extending over three days is the next feature of interest in our social routine. A big effort is being made this year to have this show far in advance of last year, good and all as it was.

Constable McBain put a summary stop to the pool selling "racket" on the race grounds on Thursday. One fellow was "jugged," the other made good his escape.

Brechin.

Extensive bush fires are raging all round us, one on the north is now within a mile of the village and with a change of wind might easily become dangerous.

Our Fall Show is to take place on October 6th and every effort is being made to make it the best yet held.

Cattle and Sheep buyers were in town on Monday last and purchased a large number of the latter animals.

The new Store being prepared for Mr. D. M. Smith is now being painted and it is expected will be ready for occupation next week. This store is now the best in Brechin both as to position and size and Mr. Smith will no doubt be largely the gainer by his removal. He is now in Toronto purchasing his new Fall Stock and expects to be in good running order in the new store by Fall Show day.

Salsover.

A very distressing case of scalding and by which the infant son of Mr. J. N. Horton met its death occurred last week. It appears Mrs. Horton had been washing and had taken a large boiler of clothes from the fire into the yard leaving the little one playing in the kitchen. She had taken the clothes from the boiler and was engaged hanging them to dry when a shriek was heard and turning she saw the little one falling into the boiling liquid. Prompt measures were taken for its relief but after lingering for some hours death relieved the sufferer from further pain. The family have the sincere sympathy of the community in their affliction.

Terrible bush fires are raging all about this vicinity.

We observe the Sheriff's notices of sale of the belongings of Mrs. Lucy Young of this place, in payment we suppose of Scott Act fines not yet paid.

Glenarm

On Sabbath the 28th ult. the Rev. A. Henderson of Cambray and Oakwood, occupied the pulpit of the Presbyterian Church here at the hour of 5:30 p. m. and delivered an eloquent sermon to a large and attentive audience. He is an able expounder of the truth. On Sabbath last the Rev. J. R. Scott of Cambray, preached in the forenoon at 11 o'clock. He gave an able discourse in English. The Rev. D. McDonald pastor, is expected (D. V.) to occupy the pulpit next Sabbath himself after an absence of several months on a visit to friends in Scotland.

The Presbyterian Sabbath School in connection with the Presbyterian church of this place, held a successful picnic at the beautiful landing on Balsam Lake known as Birch Point, on Friday last. The young folks enjoyed themselves immensely during the afternoon.

Mrs. Malcolm McFadyen, of Soya, is visiting friends here.

Mr. Thomas Ferguson and Mrs. Ferguson, of North Mariposa are also visiting their friends in this section.

Children Cry for

Eldon Station.

It is our sad duty this week to chronicle the death of Mrs. Archibald Campbell, of Eldon Station, who died on Friday the 26th ult., at the early age of 25 years, after a lingering illness of months' duration. Her funeral took place the following day. The remains were conveyed to their last resting place in the Eldon Cemetery. The bereaved husband and children have the sympathy of the whole community in their hour of bereavement.

Let Us Shout.

"How Are The Mighty Fallen."

If we did not know the people of Orillia to be the most conceited and unblushing blowhards under the sun, we would hesitate somewhat before rubbing this matter in so freely. But unfortunately this proclivity on the part of our neighbors always rouse our feelings and we are never so happy as when flatly pointing out their little failings. We have some handsome little yachts on this side of the lake and during the summer have had several neat races. The last one held here brought one of the boats from Orillia which, however, obtained no place in the race. A short time ago some Orillia enthusiasts just to show Barrie and Beaverton yachtsmen, you know, what stuff they had in Orillia, decided to hold a yacht race, and by way of compliment invite over those fellows from Barrie and Beaverton. Of course they wouldn't come. It could not be expected that places so far off from city tastes and pretensions as Barrie and Beaverton would participate, however, the Beaverton fleet did not so reason and consequently prepared to contest the race, and of course to win it. Friday was a "dirty day" on the lake, and no doubt our Orillia commodore with the knowing wink and vigorous hitch to the pants peculiar to the nautical lights of that town set it down that neither Beaverton or Barrie would show up. After a long struggle with the elements, however, four of Beaverton's fleet anchored off Orillia much to the delight of the knowing ones, who, of course, saw nothing else for it but a further addition to Orillia's greatness. How could it be otherwise? Had we not the "Carlew" and the "Greywing," and also the "Skipper," etc., all good boats and true, built in Orillia, enough in itself, by the way, to ensure complete success. Besides, to put tubs like those from Beaverton against real Orillia yachts was to absurd for anything. However, since the strangers had arrived it might be well to read them a lesson in sailing not soon to be forgotten. The race consequently came off on Saturday morning and let it not even be whispered, the Orillia boats were beaten, badly beaten, did not get a show to win. The four Beaverton boats, 'tubs' be it known, had swept the lake and left Orillia and her commodore disconsolate. How could it be? It could not have been done fairly, such a thing were impossible and as usual a foul was brought up. It did not stand, however, and the Beaverton fleet weighed anchor for home early in the afternoon in high spirits having administered a solid proof of the adage, "all things are not what they seem," particularly Beaverton yachts.

Holloway's Pills.—The chief wonder of modern times.—This incomparable medicine increases the appetite, strengthens the stomach, cleanses the liver, corrects biliousness, prevents flatulency, purifies the system, invigorates the nerves, and re-instates sound health. The enormous demand for these Pills throughout the globe astonishes everybody, and a single trial convinces the most skeptical that no medicine equals Holloway's Pills in their ability to cure all complaints incidental to the human race. They are a blessing to the afflicted, and a boon to all that labor under internal or external disease. The purification of the blood, removal of all restraint from the secretive organs, and gentle aperitive action are the prolific sources of the extensive curative range of Holloway's Pills.
