GEORGE SMITH,
Sec. Treasurer.

Believer.
From our own Correspondent.
The engineers engaged in the survey of the Trent Valley Canal are now working near this village. Every person is anticipating the revival of business in this locality when the canal is put through.

WILD SPORTS OF THE CHASE.—A man living near here went to try his luck a few days ago, in the pursuits of the chase in the Carden plains. He travelled for some time without meeting with any game. Finally he espied a large black bear seated amongst the branches of a tree. Unfortunately, however, the poor man gave way under the palsy and did not recover from his fit until Old Bruin was far beyond the reach of a rifle ball.

Mr. Geo. Silverthorn killed a large buck lately on the plains. Others have been out hunting but without success. Mr. Henry Follitt has put up an addition to his blacksmith shop, and intends doing a rousing business. Mr. Follitt has had grand success with his bees this last summer. He intends wintering eighty swarms.

Mr. George Munro has moved into his new store and has put an addition to the back end of it. He has his store well packed with a good assortment of goods at present.

Alexander Munro returned from Winnipeg a week or so ago, and is looking hale and hearty. He intends going back to Winnipeg on the 16th inst., and will be accompanied by Mrs. W. A. Munro, who is going to her husband in Winnipeg.
