We are pleased to hear that McFarlane of this place won two for his general purpose team at the ton fair held on Oct. 7th.

Rev. Mr. Ross, of Woodville, here last Sabbath to a very attentive.

PERSONAL.—We are pleased to the safe return of Mrs. J. McArthur Cobourg.—Mrs. John McKay, sister Walter McFarlane, of this place son Mr. Duncan McKay are visiting McFarlane's. We hope they may to give a pleasing account of their here to their friends when they return their home in Orillia.

Lorneville.

From Our Correspondent. Last Sunday was an unusually busy here, trains running east and west a laden with lumber and grain. The men were busily engaged all day, and the sound of the anvil was heard. How is this disgraceful state of affairs got last. Surely there should be some compelling a due regard for the law, for the Sabbath.

Mr. A. Hawkins who resides a short distance from here sold a fine young team of horses recently for the handsome sum of $240.00 cash.

Mr. H. Maybee the well-known cattle shipped last Monday from this station a lot of fat cattle to the western markets. Mr. bee is one of the best buyers of the route.

Fraud upon the old Markham Nursery. Two persons have been canvassing townships, Bruck, Scott, Georgina, etc. taking orders for fruit trees to be supplied, they said, from the Markham Nursery. It is said nursery. The orders taken to be filled the coming October and November. Now, as neither of the persons referred to has anything to do with the proprietorship, nor even an agency for the same, the public are hereby informed that their orders have evidently been taken with the intention to deceive. Persons so desiring may be more fully informed by letter addressed to the proprietor. L. CROSBY, Box 76, Markham, P. O. Ont.
