From Our Own Correspondent.
Mrs. John McRae, and her little son Willie, are visiting their friends in the State of New York. They will be absent for a few months.

The Methodists of this village have succeeded in getting a substantial stone foundation under their church. They have also levelled the yard and built a great fence along the front of it. The work was principally done by Messrs. Bruce, Sherman, Alton, and his two sons. The improvements add greatly to the general appearance of their church.

Rev. Mr. McLaren, Presbyterian minister, who was stationed here two years ago preached here on Sunday to a large audience.

Mr. Charles McDonald of this place, returned on Tuesday evening from the Rocky Mountains, where he had been working for McKenzie & McDonald.

A parlor social in connection with the Presbyterian Sunday school will be held on Friday evening at Mr. McTaggart's.

Argyle.

Part II—Flossy Gunn, Duncan McQuarrie, Aggie McEachern.

Lorneville.

From Our Correspondent.
Services on Sunday next in St. Andrew's church at the usual hour.

Our railway depot is becoming quite famous for exportation of cattle and sheep eight carloads of which were shipped from here during the past week and all of which were gathered from the township of Eldon.

Mr. Crabtree of Toronto, shipped from here one day last week four car loads of cattle, fifty head of which he purchased from the herd of Messrs. W. & H. Cameron.

Mr. Chestnut, also of Toronto, purchased two car loads of fat cattle and lambs. Both these gentlemen are new buyers in this section and we hope their venture may prove a success.

Messrs. Thomas Rear and Dennis Howkins have added to their flock of sheep a fine thoroughbred coltswoold ram, for which they paid $30 00.

We regret to have to record the removal of Rev. Mr. Gillies from here to the 7th con. of Eldon. Mr. Gillies has been a valuable citizen here. Although moving for a short time to a more suitable residence we hope the people of St. Andrew's church will before long see their way clear to build a commodious residence for their minister in this village.

Mr. Gibbs of near Hartley, has rented Mr. Neil McDonald's dwelling house on the old homestead and has moved there. Mr. Gibbs will find he has reached a peaceful neighborhood and one where he may find lots of work.

Rev. Mr. Gillies preached an eloquent and forcible harvest sermon on Sunday last from the words "The Harvest is past, the summer is ended, and we are not saved."

Glenarm.

From Our Correspondent.

The regular monthly meeting of the temperance society met on Wednesday the 8th inst. There was a large number present. At the appointed hour the Rev. Mr. McDonald called the meeting to order and the proceedings were opened by singing from the choir. The first speaker called on was Mr. A. McKay. He gave a very touching and interesting narrative of the influences of intoxicating liquors on pioneer life. It was well received. Mr. D. C. Smith teacher, Islay, and after a few preliminary remarks, he read a concise and well arranged essay on "The Evils and Effects of Intemperance." He pointed out several illustrations of its effects on the human race at large. He showed a fine talent in his reading. Mr. C. N. McDonald was the next to take the platform. He gave a fine reading on alcohol, stating its composition and effects. The meeting was interspersed with choice selections from the choir. A large increase was made to the membership of the society. Messrs. John A. Graham, D. C. Smith, and William Calder are expected to address the next meeting. We must say that the quietness and good order that prevailed throughout was very creditable to the society. The meeting was concluded by all joining in and singing the doxology.

SACRAMENT.—The sacrament of the Lord's Supper was dispensed here on Sunday the 19th inst. There was a large attendance. Our pastor Mr. McDonald, was during the occasion assisted by Rev. J. Gunn of Woodville. The English services were held in the Methodist church, as formerly where Mr. Gunn preached an eloquent discourse.
