Beaverton Local News.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 12, 1888.

The Weather.

During the week the weather has been of a blustering, cold and altogether disagreeable nature, reminding us very forcibly that winter is fast approaching.

Highest Price

In Cash for Potatoes, Oats and Peas at R. Dunsheath's, Beaverton.

Thanks.

The band desire us to tender their thanks to Mr. E. Tisdale for the generous contribution of $10.00 and Mr. A. Gunn of $1.00, made to the band fund.

Highest Price

For Pork at R. Dunsheath's Beaverton

The Concert.

Or rather, Minstrel Entertainment, given by the Orillia Band Minstrels, under the auspices of the village band, on the evening of the Fall Show, was an excellent affair and deserving of considerable praise. The singing by the Minstrels was good and the farces rendered fairly convulsed the audience with laughter.

Tea.

Best value in Tea ever offered, at R. Dunsheath's, Beaverton.

Almost Dirt Cheap.

Potatoes now are almost dirt cheap, ranging from 20 to 25 cents per bushel and that for a really first class article. The crop in this locality is abundant and excellent in quality.

For Bulk Pickles go to R. Dunsheath

All Kinds of Firewood for sale and delivered to any part of the village—P. McMillan & Sons, Beaverton.

Read Carefully

Our new fall announcements in advertising columns. They are interesting and may save you money.

More Scott Act.

We understand summonses have been issued to hotelkeepers in each village from here to Atherley to appear for trial for violation of the Scott Act. Verily, there is no rest for the whiskey-sellers.

Do Not Like It.

It is stated that considerable comment has arisen over our remarks on the Thorah Fall Show and it is told that if the show was not all that could be expected, we ought not to have said so. This journal is not in the habit of calling black white, or any other color than black and we could not honestly state the show to be a success when we knew it was not. Too much of this kind of thing is done by newspapers generally and to their serious injury.

Potatoes

For sale, cheap, at R. Dunsheath's, Beaverton.

Moving to Coboconk.

Mr. Wm. Bain, of 2nd concession, is moving away from this section to take up his residence in Coboconk, where in conjunction with his brother-in-law, Mr. Pettinger, he enters the milling business. They have entirely renovated the mill and purpose turning out "A 1" stone-ground flour.

Now is the Time.

If you are not a subscriber to the Express, now is the time to have your name enrolled among its readers. A trial trip to January 1889 for 20 cents.

Highest Price in Cash

For Eggs at R. Dunsheath's, Beaverton.

Mean.

The correspondent to the Orillia "News-Letter" and other local paper, publishes what he claims to be the evidence in the recent perjury case—Crown vs. McKee—and a more garbled and unreliable production it is impossible to conceive. Only one side of the story is produced and it is needless to say is that of the prosecution, while every vestige of evidence favourable to the defendant is carefully withheld. This is said to be a full report and the man has the impudence to offer it as such to the public for the small sum of 10 cents per copy as announced by a placard posted at his door. We do not observe in this report any reference to the effort made to "pack" the bench, nor do we find any criticism of the ignorant and flagrantly partial magistrate before whom the case was entered. Perhaps this precious correspondent sees no wrong in these things although he is virtuously indignant that Mr. G. F. Bruce, J. P., should persist in his right to act on the case. It is a hard matter for newspapers to choose of such windbags but the loss of a voluminous, and not very veracious correspondent is better than discredit to the paper by misleading and one-sided reports written with an animus too poorly disguised, at least we have found it so from experience.

Children Cry for

Pitcher's Castoria.

Exchange.

Rev. Mr. Raley of Zion Church, Brock, preached from the Methodist church pulpit on Sabbath last. Rev. Mr. McKee preached in Bobcaygeon.

Sermon on the Recent Perjury Case.

The Rev. Mr. Johnson, of Knox Church, treated his congregation on Sunday morning last to his opinions on the recent McKee perjury case, during his sermon as well as on the subject of temperance generally. Mr. Johnson is on the right side on this question and like every good citizen does not believe in intimidation when doing a public duty. It is no crime to endeavor to enforce a law and the man who undertakes to do so is in a strong sense a public benefactor and one who should receive the protection and assistance of the community. The trouble is there are not enough men willing to cover their convictions with their actions and that largely through fear of some unseen consequences. When one does rise superior to the common herd, he at once becomes the butt of an intense hatred from the opponents of his position and at the same time he does not receive that support from those who favor his views, which he should. This has been notably true of the Scott Act here lately. Two or three men have had to bear the brunt of the enforcement of this law. An unpopular one, it is true, among a certain portion of the community, but at the same time it is the law of the county and as such, those who endeavor to have it enforced should receive honest support. A large number of the voters of the county voted in favor of this law, evidencing by their action that they were not in favor of the sale of intoxicating liquor and yet if one rises to put their votes into practical and tangible protest, the same voters will stand aloof and let the individual suffer in consequence. Such has been the case here. Too much maudlin sympathy has been expended on men who in every action, openly and intentionally violate the law, as well as allow their hirelings to studiously insult those who happen to view the question differently, and who think that a law which has been fought for should at least be accorded a fair trial.

W. C. T. U.

The regular meeting of the W. C. T. U., was held on Thursday the 4th inst. After the usual preliminary exercises, the Secretary's report was heard and adopted. On motion of one of the members the old press committee was re-appointed. The open meeting spoken of before was postponed for consideration at the next regular meeting. The Band of Hope has been re-organized and is again in working order. The new officers are:—Annie Bruce, secretary; Celie Cockburn, treasurer; Eva Westcott, organist; Frances King, Katie Wilkinson, Minnie Martin, Watson Hodgson, Cassie Cameron and Wallace Moore.—[Press Com.]

Not the One.

In our last we announced Frederickson of Mr. Robt. Adams of this place as having been injured by a gunpowder explosion. It should have read "Walter."

J. C. Miller Dead.

Mr. J. G. Miller, late of the Customs Department, died at 10 a. m. yesterday at his residence, Fermanagh Place, Sorauren avenue, Parkdale. Mr. Miller was born in the city of Quebec and removed to Toronto in 1880. He was for a number of years in mercantile pursuits in Beaverton and Toronto, and was for fifteen years connected with the Customs Department. He was a prominent member of the Masonic order and a life-long Conservative. He will be buried to-morrow at 3 p. m.—"Empire" of October 6th.

Woodville Local News.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 12, 1888.

Moved.

Latest advices give that Mr. D. W. Stuart has moved his residence from Hunter to Grand Forks, Dakota, U. S.

Married.

Mr. John Currie of Mariposa was united on Wednesday last at the residence of the bride's aunt, Fenelon, to Miss Betsey Spence of Fenelon.

Coming In.

The grain market is good just now and large quantities are consequently being brought in.

The Pulpit.

Mr. W. Bethune of Knox College who has been located at Cambray during the summer, preached in the Presbyterian church here on Sabbath last. Mr. Bethune is a fervent and thoroughly earnest exponent of the sacred Scriptures and possesses a forcible eloquence which is destined to place him in the front rank of the church.

Back Again.

A large number of old faces were seen on the streets here on Show day hailing from every point of the compass.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.

When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.

When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria.

When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

Woodville Fall Show.

The annual Fall Show of Eldon Agricultural Society took place on Wednesday last. The day was delightful considering the weather, with which we are usually favored. A large number of people were present and although the show was not in any sense up to its usual mark, enjoyed themselves. The best feature of the show this year was the horses, of which an excellent display was made. In cattle, the exhibit was light, although the animals present were good, while in sheep the entries in the various classes were numerous and of first-class quality. Roots and vegetables were a small exhibit but good. Grain well represented, also poultry. In the inside department, the usual large display of ladies' work, was missing, the samples being far behind those of former years both in variety and number. Fruit came well to the front this year and we also observed greater care is being taken in preserving to the various specimens their proper names. Altogether, the show could hardly be called a success. The general impression current is that small shows have seen their best days and that they are doomed to an early extinction from the overpowering influence of the larger exhibitions. Whether this be true or not, it is at present quite evident great indifference is exhibited towards the shows, particularly by the farmers, who of all others are the ones who receive the greatest benefit from them. We believe it would be wisdom on the part of the Government to assist these fairs or shows even more generously than at present and at the same time revise the usual routine with a view to making them more efficient for the purpose intended. The large shows can never fill the place of the small local ones as a competitive stimulus and far more good to the community would be received if the latter were more generously treated. Again, why not make these shows a market where everything pertaining to the farmers' calling would be bought or sold, particularly in the way of seeds and stock. We believe it would add largely to the interests as well as effective value of the shows and at the same time would cost no more to operate.

Deaths.

On Friday, 5th inst., at Fermanagh place, Sorauren avenue, Toronto, George James Miller, late of H. M. Customs, aged 55 years.
