The dog and gun are abroad in the woods. Making game of them as it were.

Now is the time for the merchant-wise in his day and generation, to advertise in THE ADVOCATE.

Always read the advertisements if you want to know where you can invest your money to the best advantage.

A Man has invented yellow spectacles for making lard look like butter. They are a great saving of expense—if worn while eating.

The drowsy, innocent wasp has come indoors for the season, and the lively house fly has gone into his winter quarters.

Agent—Mr. G. W. Millar has been appointed agent for Messrs. Jno. Donaldson, & Co., official assignee, in the matter of Almon Spencer, insolvent late of this place.

Fatal Accident.—While Mr. Dougall McIntyre, 7th Con. Mariposa, was driving home from a sale on the 1st inst., his horse ran away throwing him out and killing him.

Bee.—A bee for the laying of the sidewalk in front of the church took on Saturday last, quite a number of hands turned out but owing to the unfavourable weather not much was accomplished.

Sermon.—Rev. Mr. Ewing, of Georgetown, preached in the Presbyterian church last Sabbath. Mr. Ewing is an eloquent speaker, and was much appreciated. He will also conduct the services next Sabbath.

"Always shoot quail on the wing," says a sporting journal. But when we go a gunning we are not particular whether we shoot 'em on the wing or on the head. A partridge shot on the head is just as good as one shot on the wing.

Enlarged.—The Omemea Herald has been enlarged and is now a double royal sheet, and a neat spicy paper, full of general intelligence. We hope the enterprise of the Herald will be substantially rewarded.

Removal.—The Methodist congregation have removed from Spencer Hall to the Baptist Church, and last Sabbath held services there. The church is much more commodious. The increasing numbers of the congregation rendered a change absolutely necessary.

Passed.—We congratulate our young friends, Messrs. John Argue and John Campbell, of Woodville and Mr. Donald McDougall, of Lorneville on passing a creditable examination, at the Lindsay Model School, and receiving their certificates.

Cotswolds.—Mr. Donald Jackson, Stonfield, has just purchased from the front a pen of Thoroughbred Cotswold ewes. Mr. Jackson is determined to import nothing but first-class animals, and every year he is adding to his already large stock.

Arbitration.—Arbitration cases are becoming common in Woodville. This week two took place. D. Sidey, Wm. Cameron, A. Morrison, arbitrators. The Campbell vs. McMillan & McNabb, disputed account, award $23.72 for plaintiff. A Campbell vs. J. Jamieson award for plaintiff $25.90.

Musical.—We are informed that some members of the Presbyterian Church are interesting themselves in the formation of a choir in connection with the church. We are glad to hear this, as it is a step in the right direction, Woodville we think contains enough musical talent to produce a really first-class choir. We hope it will succeed.

I. O. G. T.—Last Friday evening the following officers of Blooming Rose Lodge, Woodville were installed by P. McSweeney T. D.,—W. C. J. B. Henderson; W. V. Miss H. G. Stott; W. S. E. J. Sidey; W. A. S. Miss M. Crouter; W. F. S. Arch. Smith; W. T. Miss Clark; W. C. J. Mathieson; W. M. R. Dunsheath; W. G. D. W. Stuart; W. R. S. Miss K. G. Campbell; W. L. S. Miss Jane Sidey; P. W. C. Alex. Taylor.

Improvement.—The "Northern Hotel" is undergoing considerable repairs and alterations. The sheds in the rear have been removed from the old site and will be placed in connection with the main building, and when completed and fitted up form a large wing. The removal makes a great improvement in the appearance of that part of our main street, and when these unsightly stables are also removed from the front a still greater improvement will be effected.

Weather Signs.—The colors of the sky at different times are a wonderful guidance. Not only does a clear sunset presage fair weather, but there are other tints which speak with clearness and accuracy. A bright yellow in the evening indicates wind; a pale yellow wet; a neutral gray color constitutes a favorable sign in the morning—an unfavorable one in the evening. The clouds are full of meaning in themselves. If they are soft undefined and feathery, the weather will be fine, if the edges are hard, sharp and definite, it will be foul. Generally speaking, any deep unusual hues betoken wind and rain; while more quiet and moderate hues bespeak fair weather. Simple as these maxims are, the British Board of Trade has thought fit to publish them for the use of seafaring men.

Concert.—The Band announces their Concert for next Thursday Nov. 14th in Spencer Hall. As this is to be a farewell concert to the band master, Mr. Johnson, who leaves for the old country shortly afterwards, and it will be altogether likely the last time our village will have the pleasure of hearing the band under Mr. Johnson's leadership, they should turn out en masse and fill the Hall. The programme will consist of Solos, Choruses, Glee, Plays, Charades, &c. and will be one of the best ever offered to a Woodville audience. That band deserving of a hearty support no one will deny, and the best way for our readers to show that they appreciate the band is to turn out to their Concert. Remember Thursday next, 14th inst. Tickets 25 cents.
