Local Matters.

See John Jamieson's $2.50 Pants. Splendid Value.
Wm. Henry is still selling 35 lbs. of Currants for one Dollar.
Call and see our new stock of choice Dress Goods. Jas. A. Mitchell & Co.
THE ADVOCATE from now until 1st of January, 1880, for $1. Send in your name.

Division Court sits at Woodville on Thursday November 20th, and at Victoria Road, Friday 21st.

Meeting.—The annual meeting of the Woodville St. Andrew's Society will be held next Wednesday evening.

Early on Tuesday morning some parties broke into the "Regulator" to procure some of their new goods before the morning's rush commenced.

Wanted.—We will pay 10 cents for a copy of THE ADVOCATE, of October 23rd, 1879. Will some one kindly bring or send us one.

Jamieson's $6.50 Suits can't be beat. Get one.

Our worthy Postmaster has added still another improvement to his establishment in the shape of a new and gorgeous sign. Mr. Thos. Clouston is the painter.

Call and pay your accounts and save Bailiff's fees. Jas. A. Mitchell & Co.

Mr. John Murdoch, Editor of the Highlander, Inverness, Scotland, will lecture in Beaverton, to-morrow night. Subject: "The Land Question of Great Britain and Ireland."

Wm. Henry has just opened this week a fine assortment of Ladies' Ulsters.

At the County of Victoria Model School examinations last week, Mr. Wm. Campbell and Miss Annie Campbell, of Woodville, succeeded in obtaining certificates.

The $2.50 all-wool pants that Jamieson is selling are worth double the charge.

Warning.—Mr. A. J. McCorquodale wishes to warn the party who borrowed the $20 gold piece from him in Cannington that unless he returns it immediately he will be prosecuted.

Ladies' Jackets from $3 up to $10, the best value in town at Jas. A. Mitchell & Co's.

Personal.—Mr. Alex. Mackenzie, editor of the Celtic Magazine, Inverness, Scotland, called on us on Monday last. Mr. Mackenzie is "doing Canada," collecting information about its people and their condition.

The rush still continues for those seamless back boots, when they are selling so cheap at the "Regulator."

The Sidewalks.—During the late snow our village sidewalks were in a fearful condition, the snow was allowed to remain on them and travel became even worse than it would have been in the road. We hope those having the sidewalk pass their residences will try to keep them clear of snow this winter.

A large new stock of Dry Goods arriving to-day. Cheaper than ever, at Jas. A. Mitchell & Co's.

Removal.—Mr. Rod. Campbell, as will be seen by his new advertisement has removed to his new shop east of the Northern Hotel. A new workshop is being built in the rear and a sidewalk is being laid in front of the shop and towards the hotel, which when completed will be a great improvement to that side of the street.

Jamieson, the Tailor, has just received a splendid lot of Overcoatings. The best ever brought into Woodville. See for yourselves.

Better Still.—Mr. Wm. Smith, Lot 2, in the 4th Con., Eldon, tells us that he can beat Mr. Anderson's yield of turnips. He gathered over a thousand bushels of Swede Turnips from an acre and three quarters. Turnips seem to have been a big yield this season. If grain had "pinned out" in the same proportion some of our farmers would have been millionaires this winter.

Just arrived this week at the "Regulator" a large and beautiful assorted stock of men's and boy's Overcoats, also a large lot of Tweed suits for winter wear.

WM. HENRY, WOODVILLE.

The universal favor with which the "Honey Fanning Mill" has been received by the farming community has rendered it necessary for Messrs. White & Bro. to run their works over-time in order to keep up with the increasing demand for them. They have made and sold a large number thus far this season and find their orders coming in as fast as they can fill them. Being a complete grain and seed separator and having a cleaning capacity much greater than those of other manufacturers together with the fact that they personally guarantee every mill made by them renders it an implement which recommends itself at once to those who are desirous of securing the highest price for their grain. Intending purchasers should witness this mill at work at their warehouse before they give their order.
