Gleanings From our Exchanges.

AND OTHER SOURCES.

BEXLEY.

From our own Correspondent.

Your correspondent here was the recipient of no less than forty-eight photos, of four persons a short time ago. They were however returned to the artist who took them. The artist had made a mistake in addressing them to the proper persons.

Every Saturday for seven weeks past has been a wet one. Farmers are beginning to leave indoor work for the last day of the week.

For several weeks past hunting seems to be going on on Sundays as well as on other days of the week. Remember the fourth commandment.

VICTORIA ROAD.

From Our Own Correspondent.

Mr. Washington of this place is contemplating of moving his mill at Corson's Siding, or else leaving it where it is for custom work and building another at the siding.

The latter will more likely be carried out.

The school at Corson's Siding has been reopened in the old school house, it having been refitted for the winter. A new one is expected to be built in the spring.

Mr. Reazin, P. S. Inspector, was in this locality last week.

Only two applicants for mail carrier between Bexley and here and vice versa.

HEAD LAKE.

From our own Correspondent.

Our new mail carrier has been more punctual the last few trips than he has been since he started. We hope that he may continue to do so. We think it hard enough to wait for the "Tuesdays and Saturdays"

(our mail days) to come without having to wait on a slow mail carrier.

Mr. Richard Peel killed a very large deer here a short time ago. He sold it at Victoria Road Station for $12, and was shortly afterwards offered $15 for it, but the latter was too slow in making his offer. Messrs.

Halliday and Murray have killed a number of deer here this fall. They intend shipping them to Toronto.

Miss Sarah Maxwell of this place was bound in the holy bonds of matrimony to

Mr. John Griffin of Norland. Mrs. Griffin left the residence of her father last Thursday to take up housekeeping with her dearly loved near Norland. We wish them every success.

We had a visit from our Inspector, Mr.

Reazin, last week. He seems to be well satisfied with the way the school work is carried on. It is hoped that he will soon recover from the injuries he received in Muskoka, and that when he visits us again he may be able to tread the school room floor with ease.

BEAVERTON.

From our own Correspondent.

The old Presbyterian Free Church was sold to Mr. Alex. Cameron for the sum of $100. We understand Mr. Cameron intends moving it over to one of his vacant lots on Mara street, and fitting it up for a dwelling house some time soon.

Mr. Thos. Paxton, ex-M. P., spent a couple of days in town last week, to the great delight of his friends.

Business in the village is very quiet at present, no doubt occasioned by the bad condition of the roads. Farmers are busy plowing and very little grain is coming in now.
