A HORRID CRIME.

Brutal Assault Upon a Fifteen-Year-Old

A Wolcot (N. Y.) despatch says the 15-year-old sister of Mrs. Hogan, of South Butta, Wayne County, was the victim of a horrible outrage on the evening of Wednesday last. Being on a visit to her brotherin-law, Mr. Hogan, she attracted the attention of Joseph Smith, aged 25, a farm laborer about the neighborhood. Early on Wednesday evening, after Mr. and Mrs. madhouse is one of those things which has Hogan had left home to attend a long remained a part of the unwritten hiswedding, Smith went to Hogan's tory of misfortune or crime. It is seldom and left the weak and then unconscious blue eyes which showed no trace of insanity, girl to die, as he supposed. She was still and dark hair. The recent inmate of so gagged and bound, as well as nearly nude, dreaded a place as the asylum received her bleeding, and all but dying until morning. against her. Two prepossessing little chil-

Mrs. West, the Irish Beauty.

(Dublin Evening Telegraph.) Mrs. Cornwallis West, who accompanies her kinsman, the Hon. Lionel Sackville, to Washington, is a beautiful and brilliant patients are left, and afterward I was Irishwoman—a niece of the Marquis of granted the freedom of the halls and build-Headfort, her maiden name Fitzpatrick. ing." as "professional" supported by the taste on foot for my release, I felt more relieved, as "professional" supported by the taste expressed by royalty; but concerning the superiority of intellect there was not the superiority of intellect ther superiority of intellect there was not the more calmly." Mrs. Scanlon said that the slightest difference of opinion. Ruthin officers, physicians and matrons were all Castle, the seat of Cornwallis West, has very kind. Nevertheless she could not always been enlivened with all sorts of dra- have borne the thought of hopeless matic entertainments, in which the lady of imprisonment, away from home and the castle takes the leading part with the friends and in such a place, long. She greatest talent and ease, while her low- wondered how such things could be in browed, classical rival could never sustain a civilized community, and shuddered to a conversation with any degree of interest. | think what the result might have been had She is still young enough to justify pre- the newspapers or her friends not raised tension to witch the world with her loveli- the standard of rebellion. If people could ness, having been born during the Crimean | be thus condemned without a hearing, once war and christened by the odd name of within the prison wall, death would be Eupatoria. Her style of beauty is in direct | their only release. She was delighted to contrast with that of her rival-laughing, see the sheriff, who came to release her sparkling, blonde and piquant. Her arrival from her enforced confinement, and the at Washington will be an event at that return journey was more pleasant than the city and serve not only to waken up the sad night of her departure. She was diplomatic corps from the droning ennui of informed that the prosecution said they its commonplace routine, but will serve to would fight the case when it came up before protect her honorable kinsman during the the county court next week, but did not siege which he will surely have to sustain | think they would. against the American "gurlls," always on the watch and ready to pounce upon a diplomatic bachelor.

Oregon's Extraordinary Lake.

around. The depth of the water is was suspended from a standard of brass, unknown, and its surface is smooth and the top of which was the rod of Mercury unruffled, as it is so far below the -the symbol of commerce. On the satin surface of the mountain that air surrounding the actual bill of-fare, which months has expended nearly $8,000 in this way. But those who seem to know, say that the only result has been to increase the number of these animals, the reward offered for their destruction being an incentive to breed and raise them.

certainly a most remarkable curiosity .-

Jacksonville (Or.) Paper.

SHUT UP IN A MADHOUSE.

Rational and Intelligent Lady Confined Among the Hopelessly Insane.

THE DESPAIR OF DEATH. A despatch from Kanas City says the terrible experience of the first night in a to be dying from loss of blood and Joseph, and of her other experiences in the Having been restored to asylum there, but waived the question prominent nose; rather slow in speech; is it. She was driven to the bridge depot, but a little peculiar; wore dark pants, yellowish | did not expect to stop at Dunlap & Freebrown coat, nearly new, and new kip boots. man's office. The journey was a sad one, The poor girl lies in a very critical condi- as she feared the trial in store for her and tion, though there is a hope of her recovery, did not know where it would end. On to the asylum. "Were you locked up in a cell?" was asked. " No. For the first two days I was locked up in the ward where harmless

"How did the other patients affect

A Fine Affair.

The dinner given by the Chamber of Commerce of New York to the French and German guests on Saturday night last was Several of our citizens returned last one of the most elaborate and costly ever week from the Great Sunken Lake, situ- provided by Delmonico. It is the correct ated in the Cascade Mountains, about thing now to present the bill-of-fare on a seventy-five miles northeast from Jackson- conspicuous banner, so that he who eats ville. This lake rivals the famous valley may read, and this one feature was of Sinbad the Sailor. It is thought to elaborate, and indicative of the profusion average 2,000 feet down to water all of the whole. This banner of blue satin and its width ten or twelve. There is a seal of the Chamber of Commerce, and a har being the control having trees and a har being the control having trees have have a supplied to the control having trees having trees having trees having trees having trees have have a supplied trees have a supplied trees have have a currents do not affect it. Its length was printed upon a scroll held by an eagle, mountain in the centre having trees upon view of Yorktown, with the dates of 1781 it. It lies still, silent and mysterious in and 1881. The flags of France and the the bosom of the everlasting hills, like a United States were on the side, with huge well scooped out by the hands of the French and American soldiers in the cosprimeval forests watch and ward are keep. Pacific Railroad, with a locomotive engine corsage was of black satin, veiled with jet. ter. Rev. James Barclay, who, two Sabing. The visiting party fired a vide into giant genii of the mountains in the tume of the last century. Under this was ing. The visiting party fired a rifle into and a train of cars whirling along. Bethe water several times at an angle of neath all was a representation of the forty-five degrees and were able to note American steamship, the City of Peking. several seconds of time from the report of The standard was about eighteen inches the gun until the ball struck the water. high. The responses to the toasts were Such seems incredible, but is vouched for hardly as enjoyable as the dinner. The by our most reliable citizens. The lake is speakers were rather prosy.

> A peculiar iron ore has been discovered near the Battery Hill siding, Pictou, N. S., grain is in every way better than from the efficacy of prayer. In fact, praying is the The snowy mountains from the vales upborne proof of prayer."

BURIED IN THE DEBRIS.

Thrilling Scene at the New York Falling Buildings - A Brave Woman and Heroic Fireman. The most remarkable occurrence of the recent fall of a tenement building in New York was the rescue of Mrs. Minnie Hill, wife of John Hill, who occupied the first floor of No. 53 Grand street. She was imprisoned under the mass of rubbish for seven hours, and was conscious all the time, but during five hours—from 9 until shortly about to resign, consequent on ill health. after 2 o'clock-her face was exposed to view, and she was able to converse with success by anglers on the Tweed at Kelso. house, knowing that he would find that one who has passed through its nightthe young girl alone. The girl knew him, mare of horrors comes out sane. But to be her. About 9 o'clock the firemen heard her salmon and 21 grilse, the aggregate weight as he had been employed upon her brother- thrust in among such unfortunates as these, cries almost immediately under their feet. of which was 554 lbs. in-law's place, and she was not frightened knowing the mind is unimpaired but cannot They stopped work with the shovels and at first at his appearance. Soon after long withstand the dreaded strain upon it— pickaxes, and began moving the debris said, while everything was done for the Maggie Martin, aged 13 years, living at No. at first at his appearance. Soon after some street, and began moving the description of ceiling, from unasked her to go into the parlor and play for him at the organ. She excused her- misery, more bitter than the despair of derneath which they heard her self, saying she must bring in the clothes death. Such was the condition of Mrs. cry: "Hurry up, please, I'm nearly smothwhich had been washed and hung out to Scanlon during her first night in St. ered." They cried out to her to hold out a dry. As she started for the door, to get Joseph. For three days she neither ate little longer and she would be rescued. cut of his presence, he struck her from norslept, and during all that time the bitter Within ten minutes her head, face upward, behind with his fist, and felled her to the tears of despair scarcely ceased to flow. It was discovered fastened to the floor, so floor. She resisted and struggled as best was doubtful if her intellect could have that she could only move it from side to she could, but two or three more blows withstood this strain much longer, but on side, by a large beam, crossing within two about the head rendered her utterly the third day she received a cheering letter inches of her throat. The rest of her body unable to offer further resistance, though from her attorney saying that there were was covered with a number of beams, in her terrible fright still retained con- proceedings for release, and again hope which fastened her down so that she Smith took carefully from his pocket a been only the darkness of despair. A fireman, supported her head for a few stout cord, with which he proceeded delib-strangers with no familiar stout cord, with which he proceeded delib-erately to gag her and prevent any outcry.

The gagging was done by tying the cord so The gagging was done by tying the cord so tightly around her neck that she could not make the manufacture of the depression that about the extent of the exten utter no sound whatever. He then dragged maniso or the maudlin sobs of the land that she could only move her must enter upon a work in which they and hopelessly insane. Mrs. Scanlon, of this land that she could only move her must enter upon a work in which they are contain to an author that she could only move her must enter upon a work in which they are contain to an author that she could only move her must enter upon a work in which they are contain to an author that she could only move her must enter upon a work in which they are contain to an author that she could only move her must enter upon a work in which they are contain to an author that she could only move her must enter upon a work in which they are contain to an author that she could only move her must enter upon a work in which they are contained and that she could only move her must enter upon a work in which they are contained and that she could only move her must enter upon a work in which they are contained and that she could only move her must enter upon a work in which they are contained and the could only move her must enter upon a work in which they are contained and the could only move her must enter upon a work in which they are contained and the could only move her must enter upon a work in which they are contained and the could only move her must enter upon a work in which they are contained and the could only move her must enter upon a work in which they are contained and the could only move her must enter upon a work in which they are contained and the could only move her must enter upon a work in which they are contained and the could only move her must enter upon a work in which they are contained and the could only move her must enter upon a work in which they are contained and the could only move her must enter upon a work in which they are contained and the could only move her must enter upon a work in which they are contained and the could only move her must enter upon a work in which they are contained and the could only move her from the house into the orohard, and hopelessly insane. Mrs. Scanlon, of this legs a few inches in any direction. As she were certain to encounter much opposition. When the property of the direction of the station in a state of the carried her thence some 25 rods, tearing off city, has been the victim of all the horrors carried her thence some 25 rods, tearing off city, has been the victim of all the horrors told her story the scene was almost portions of her clothing as he proceeded. of an insane asylum at St. Joseph. Your ghastly. It seemed like a head talking, He outraged and partially butchered the correspondent to-day found this lady at the for the mass of bricks, plaster and beams girl, inflicting a frightful wound upon her home of her sister, and, as she entered the surrounded her on all sides, except for a person with his knife. This done, the das- room, he saw a petite young-looking woman few inches around her head. All the rest tardly craven fled from the scene of his crime of full and even beautiful figure, with clear of her body was hidden from sight. She said that when she heard the cracking noise in the wall she snatched her little son Frankie, 3 years old, to her breast, and was about running into the rear room for a that the landlords had turned the cold the chill frost of the night, and there she becoming manner, which asserted itself at baby 3 months old. Before she had time shoulder upon them in the meantime, but baby 3 months old. Before she had time shoulder upon them in the meantime, but lay in a semi-conscious state, suffering, once in contradiction to the charges made to go many steps the floor seemed to sink perhaps they would have to alter their to go many steps the floor seemed to sink perhaps they would have to alter their When Mr. and Mrs. Hogan returned from dren of the McLeods cast wandering, but boy still in her arms. In an instant all carried, as was also one to the effect that the wedding they missed their girl and not at all abashed, glances at the visitor, was in darkness and her child was struck the passing of the Land Bill was now the wedding they missed their girl and not at all abashed, glances at the visitor, was in darkness and her child was struck the passing of the Land Bill was now and a plantal documentary that the passing of the Land Bill was now the wedding they missed their girl and not at all abashed, glances at the visitor, was in darkness and her child was struck the passing of the Land Bill was now the wedding they missed their girl and not at all abashed, glances at the visitor, was in darkness and her child was struck the passing of the Land Bill was now the wedding they missed their girl and not at all abashed, glances at the visitor, was in darkness and her child was struck the passing of the Land Bill was now the wedding they missed their girl and not at all abashed, glances at the visitor, was in darkness and her child was struck the passing of the Land Bill was now the wedding the west of the land and the west of the land at the land at the west of the land at the instituted a general search, which was only and a playful dog gamboled about his feet out of her arms. She had lain urgently demanded. Dr. Farquharson, terminated at 7 o'clock Thursday morning, —a strange contrast to the bolts and bars there for two hours in the darkness M.P., also spoke. by the finding of the poor girl as above of a madhouse. Mrs. Scanlon talked without losing her consciousness, fearing The Roman Catholic Diocesan Synod of described. When found she seemed quietly and pleasantly of her trip to St. to move lest the beams should fall closer Glasgow—the first since 1558—was held and crush out her life. She heard the fire- lately in St. Andrew's Cathedral, Great men working above her, and shouted Clyde street, Archbishop Eyre presiding. all she whenever the subject touched upon facts in several times without effect. She did not At first the church was crowded with the knew about the outrage. Inquiries the former case with a readiness which give up hope of being rescued, but was laity. The proceedings commenced with proved that the ruffian had got shaved in showed not only her clearness of mind, but afraid that any moment a pick-axe might the singing of a psalm and hymn, during Wolcot on Thursday morning, and in the her tact and good sense as well. The facts break through the ruins immediately over which the clergy of the arch-diocese moved afternoon was seen at North Huron head- in this part of the case, however, have her face and go through her head. A wet in procession from the sacristy round the ing for the lake, with, it is supposed, the already obtained publicity. Mrs. Scanlon cloth was placed over her mouth and nosintention of stowing himself away in a said that when the sheriff came for her trils and a wire gauze screen over her eyes the altar. High Mass was then celebrated, Canadian vessel. The following is a des- and showed her the orders for her incar- to protect them from the dust and pieces after which the litany of the saints was Canadian vessel. The following is a dear constantly falling recited. Then the hymn of the "Holy of plaster which were constantly falling recited. Then the hymn of the "Holy of plaster which were constantly falling recited. Then the hymn of the "Holy of plaster which were constantly falling recited. Then the hymn of the "Holy of plaster which were constantly falling recited. Then the hymn of the "Holy of plaster which were constantly falling recited. Then the hymn of the "Holy of plaster which were constantly falling recited. Then the hymn of the "Holy of plaster which were constantly falling recited. Then the hymn of the "Holy of plaster which were constantly falling recited. Then the hymn of the "Holy of plaster which were constantly falling recited. Then the hymn of the "Holy of plaster which were constantly falling recited. Then the hymn of the "Holy of plaster which were constantly falling recited. Then the hymn of the "Holy of plaster which were constantly falling recited. Then the hymn of the "Holy of plaster which were constantly falling recited." little stooping; light hair; moustache to rebel, but when she saw that it was too beside her, bracing up a portion of laity left the church and the doors were lately shaved off; light blue eyes; large and late she was disposed to make the best of the wall which threatened to fall over shut. The Archbishop delivered his charge, on her. It did fall eventually, but after which his Secretary read the decrees receiving its full force on one of his consisted for the most part of the appointlegs, which was severely sprained. There ments of officers and of examiners of the she lay for five hours from the time she was candidates for orders. There was also arriving at St. Joseph she was taken direct uncovered, with the firemen and bystanders read the "Confession of Faith," which was cause of this long delay was the complicated concluded with singing of the "Te Deum." bright daughters in general; and became you?" "Their cries and slexieks were was finally recovered she was covered with difficulties in 1842. Patten's sugar refinery, fearful. For the first three days I could a blanket and removed to the ambulance. Which has been silent for many years, especially in the valley of the Orinoco and by those qualities alone one of the leaders not eat nor sleep, and cried constantly. I Then for the first time, when life was having lately been acquired by Messrs. its affluents. Among other facts of observas to the place she was entitled to hold in do not think I ate a mouthful. On the made a certainty to her, she fainted. She Alexander Scott & Sons, workmen have ation he states that the Guaraunos, at the respect of beauty, for her rival was power- fourth, when I received a letter from Mr. soon recovered and was taken to the New been set to work to clear out the premises, delta of that river, take refuge in the trees ful and found her claims to the first place Dunlap, and knew there was a movement York Hospital. Shortly after Mrs. Hill's with the view to the sugar-house resuming when the delta is inundated. There they

SOME LOVELY DRESSES.

The Costumes Worn by the Elite of New

the unusual brilliancy of toilets were the The matter is naturally causing a con-Marquise de Rochambeau and Mrs. John siderable sensation. Jacob Astor. The Marquise de Rochambeau was dressed in black satin trimmed with black thread lace, decollette and sleeveless. Around her neck was a necklace of diamonds and opals, attached to a large 3,000. It is decidedly quaint, both as to splash of diamonds in the form of marguer. exterior and interior. It is situated in the ites joined with opals. The diamonds are midst of the beautifully kept cemetery an heirloom, and the setting is in the which lies immediately below Castle Rock. purest style of Louis XIV. In her hair The present building is said to be about were diamond crescents and stars, and at 150 years old. It was in use in 1745, when the top of the corsage was a large diamond the Pretender was in possession of the brooch. Mrs. John Jacob Astor wore an castle just above it. Neil McVicar was imported dress of blue satin, trimmed with the Whiggish pastor at the time. Orders very deep old point d'Angleterre lace, were given that in all the churches prayers yellow with age. The train was of several should be offered up for the young Prince. colors of brocaded satin. The corsage was The proximity of the castle guns suggested cut in a deep square. Her diamonds to the recalcitrant pastor that "discretion, consisted of a large necklace, to which and so on," and he cut the knot by the folwas attached a magnificent brooch. At the lowing prayer: "As for this callant that is bottom of the square was a splash of dia- come among us seeking an earthly crown, monds in the shape of a marguerite, and Lord, speedily send him a crown of glory. from each shoulder across the front of the Good old Neil's portrait still hangs in the corsage were similar splashes depending vestry. In the porch of the church is a from necklaces. She also wore a tiara of memorial stone of Napier of Merchiston, beauty. Their value was estimated at church—the congregation fills it. It has of the black tulle; the ornaments were besides two assistants. diamonds. There were 750 couples present, and the event was a great success.

not pray as you would pull a bell, expecting Lorne to the Northwest: what you ask for," said Mr. Beecher at his prayer meeting recently. "Prayer is the prayer meeting recently. "Prayer is the property of the whole nature into the property of the property of the whole nature into the property of the property of the whole nature into the property of the prope uplifting of the whole nature into the And heritage of millions yet to be wolves, wild cats and foxes by offering a pure iron. Abram Toney, a young Indian, to sun itself in the light of God. It is the to sun itself in the light of God. It is the Their rugged names in Blackfoot and in Cree. Sowing spring wheat late in the fall has tone and disposition of our life, and no man That went we forth to see, and saw it lie, been tried at Edmonton, Man., with the best results. Besides ripening early, the have any doubt left in his mind as to the A thousand leagues on end, till in the sky

LATEST SCOTCH NEWS.

Farms containing upwards of 3,200 acres are presently advertised to let in Perthshire.

Shetland herring fishing has this year proved the most successful season ever known. The total value of the fish caught Purse, of the First police district, found is estimated at over £50,000.

It is stated that Sir Wyville Thompson, Professor of Natural History in Edinburgh University during the past 11 years, is

Recently there has been remarkable sational outrages.

approached quite close to each other in the worth of whiskey. They drank this and dark, and each looking over a hillock mis- then had it filled twice again in two more took his companion's head for a rabbit. taverns. House-Sergeant Shadrick ques-The first who fired lodged the contents of tioned her closely, but was unable to ashis gun in the other man's head, who now certain where they purchased the liquor. lies in a precarious condition.

only 11 had replied, and their answers were child was incorrigible. That morning, he regarded as unsatisfactory. It was moved added, she had stolen $11 from him and of that, as all means to bring about a temporary arrangement between farmers and landlords had proved abortive, the meeting resolve to apply to Parliament for a Land Bill. The seconder of the motion said the courageous fireman never moved, for the administration of the diocese. These continually telling her to be of good heart accepted by all the clergy in succession. and that she would soon be rescued. The The proceedings, which lasted four hours, position of the beams which were holding An incident has just occurred which own conscience. her a prisoner. A pile of rubbish had to brings back vividly to public recollection be removed from all sides of her before the fate of the Renfrewshire Bank, which each one could be taken away with the had its headquarters in Greenock, and certainty of not injuring her. When she succumbed to the pressure of financial many of the toilets were exquisite, and it intolerable evil, and in the interests of is long since a public society event in New society it is much to be desired that any York has shown such costliness and ele- Renfrewshire Bank notes in existence gance in attire. Conspicuous even amidst should be speedily seized and destroyed.

The Minister and Prince Charlie.

St. Cuthbert's is the largest church in Edinburgh, having a seating capacity of full sets, and were much admired for their cey. We have said St. Cuthbert's is a large $100,000. Mrs. Cornelius Vanderbilt wore 2,700 communicants. Dr. McGregor, who jetted tulle, with jet ornaments on the has lately been travelling with the Marquis front, over a black satin en traine. The of Lorne in the Northwest, is senior ministed tulle. The neck was cut in a deep baths ago, preached before the Queen at square and trimmed with drifts and ripples Balmoral, is his colleague, and there are

The Buffalo Express of yesterday publishes the following sonnet written by Wil-A DEFINITION OF PRAYER .- "You must liam Kerby, regarding the visit of Lord

Their rugged names in Blackfoot and in Cree.

YOUTHFUL DEPRAVITY.

Three Little Girls Purchase 30 Cents Worth of Rum, and Two Nearly Die

from its Effects. (Philadelphia Record.)

Early last (Tuesday) evening Officer two little girls lying in a gutter at Broad and Wharton streets in a drunken stupor. Another little girl, who had been playing with them, ran across a lot on the appearance of Purse, but was captured by Officer Proctor, to whom she gave her name as Maria McLaughlin, aged 15, living at No. 1,509 Dorrence street. All three were removed to the station-house in a hack, and the two insensible children placed upon stretchers. The eldest, Maria, Sir George Campbell, speaking at Dysart, said the names of her companions were Two poachers, while hunting for rabbits they procured a bottle and one of them in the Links of Queendale recently, went into a tavern and bought ten cents It being evident that the two girls were in a A largely attended meeting of farmers precarious condition, Dr. Thomas C. Rich arrested. Shortly afterwards Patrick Martin, father of another of the girls, arrived and remained while the doctor was restoring his child to consciousness. The case will be thoroughly investigated to-day and efforts made to find the saloon-keepers who sold the liquor.

Saturday Evening Reflections.

Try your skill in gilt first, then in gold. A hen to-morrow is better than an egg Publish your joys, but conceal your The bearing and training of a child is woman's wisdom.

People's intentions can only be decided by their conduct. One day is worth three to him who does everything in order.

Sow good services; sweet remembrances will grow from them. An effort made for the happiness of others lifts us above ourselves.

Let us not burden our remembrances with a heaviness that's gone. He who throws out suspicion should at once be suspected himself.

Time and the sun will make vinegar without any shouting to help them. The wrangler, the puzzler, the wordhunter, are incapable of great actions. To act upon a determination made in anger is like embarking in a vessel during

The most miserable pettifogging in the world is that of a man in the court of his

A Tribe of Tree Dwellers.

A French naval doctor, M. Crevaux, has lately made important explorations in the northern parts of South America, more rescue, the body of her little boy Frank its functions. In the course of their make a sort of dwelling with branches and said a large quantity of one-pound motes, the traveller on the river by night often the issue of the now defunct Renfrewshire | sees with surprise long rows of flames at a Banking Company, has been found. Orders considerable height in the air. The Guarwere given for their destruction by fire, but aunos dispose of their dead by hanging a few of the notes have fallen into the them in hammocks in the tops of trees. At the ball given to the German and hands of some of the workmen. That Dr. Crevaux, in the course of his travels, French delegates to the Yorktown celebra- notes of any kind which are not bona fide met with geophagous, or earth-eating in New York on Monday night, should find their way into circulation is an tribes. The clay, which often serves for their food whole months, seems to be a mixture of oxide of iron and some organic substances. They have recourse to it more especially in times of scarcity; but, strange to say, there are eager gourmands for the substance, individuals in whom the depraved taste becomes so prenounced that they may be seen tearing pieces of ferruginous clay from huts made of it, and putting them in their mouths.

Interesting to Liverymen.

Judge Chadwick has just given his decision in a case of some importance to liverymen which was tried by him at the last Division Court held in Guelph. During last summer Mr. J. A. Nelles hired a team of horses from Mr. Hiram Anderson, a livery stable owner, to drive to Puslinch Lake, but instead of returning from the lake direct he drove by way of Preston, making the round trip about twenty-eight miles instead of eighteen. The horses were brought to Mr. Anderson's stable very warm, and one of them showed symptoms which led the owner to call in the assistance of Dr. Greenside, V. S., the following day. It was then learned that the beast had been foundered, and there was evidence that this had been caused by injudicious driving. Mr. Anderson entered action for damages amounting to $50, and the Judge gave a verdict in his favor for $40.

On Wednesday, October 26th, the reign of Queen Victoria ran up in duration alongside that of " Great Queen Bess "-44 years and 128 days. If Victoria lives and rules six years longer she will have reigned as long as Edward III., " glorious and immortal memory." Twelve years more will put her reign with that of Henry III., and sixteen years more will give her as long a term as that of her grandfather, George III. With her strong constitution and her out-of-door habits

The American artist, Mr. A. A. Anderson sails this week from Paris for New York with a number of panel pictures and decorations which he has painted there for the house of Mr. Osborne, brother-in-law of Mr. Vanderbilt.