

Editorial Notes.

A BANQUET was given on the evening of Friday of last week, at Fenelon Falls, to Mr. Hector Cameron, M. P., on the occasion of inauguration of work on the Trent Valley Canal.

THE much debated question of the abolition of the union between Church and State is now becoming a matter of intense interest in England, and is fast being forced into the field of "practical politics."

CHRISTIANITY, as Macaulay complained, hardly gets fair play in India to this day. When the three members of the Salvation Army were arrested in the streets of Bombay, they were simply marching through the streets with a banner and singing hymns as they went.

A DEPUTATION of clergymen and others representing three of the foremost Protestant bodies in the Province, waited on Premier Mowat on Tuesday of last week, to urge the necessity of making the study of the Bible in our Public Schools compulsory.

Beaverton Local News. Buy your Groceries at Cooper & Tisdale's, Beaverton. RAIN is badly needed. VIVID lightning occurred here on Tuesday morning last. The weather is extraordinary for the season, beautiful and mild. Cloth bought from us for Mantles cut free of charge. Cooper & Tisdale, Beaverton. See that pile of Shawls on Cooper & Tisdale's counter, Beaverton. THE sting of a bee is only 1/64th of an inch long. It is your imagination that makes it as long as a hoe handle. SEVERAL of the best wells in the village have gone dry, something which has not occurred for many years before. Our stock of Millinery far eclipses any previous season, and sold at the right prices. Cooper & Tisdale, Beaverton. BUT little grain is stirring, our farmer friends evidently waiting for a rise in prices. Business is consequently depressed. See Cooper & Tisdale's stock of boots and shoes, largest, cheapest and best in Beaverton. MR. JNO. McRAE's new building is progressing rapidly towards completion. The old hotel is on the way to its new site next Mr. J. J. Glover's harness shop, where we learn it is intended to convert it into two stores. Ladies' fur caps, fur boas, fur muffs in great variety at Cooper & Tisdale's, Beaverton. SOME thief entered the residence of Mr. Jas. Duncan on Sabbath evening while the occupants were at church, and stole a silk dress and velvet jacket belonging to Mrs. Duncan. There appears to be some party or parties about who are exceedingly light-fingered, and an effort should be made to trap them. Gentlemen—Order your Fall and Winter Suits from Cooper & Tisdale, Beaverton, where you get the best assortment of Tweeds to select from. We have a case of typhoid fever in the village. This is no more than we expected, and we will be surprised if more do not occur if some steps are not taken to drain and clean the bed of the river. The accumulation of filth which exists there cannot help but be the source of sickness and fever. The Midland railway will shortly issue the winter time table and schedule of train arrangements. It is expected the link of roadway between Manilla and Wick will be in running order in about three weeks, and that the new arrangements will include the running of the Toronto trains over that route. ONE of our bachelor friends remarked to us a short time ago, "There is no inducement to young men to marry here, they cannot get a house to live in." This is too bad, and ought at once to receive consideration. If this remark embodies the only bar to conjugal happiness, our village capitalists should see to it at once, that some of their wealth be turned into cottages, and thus earn everlasting gratitude, and at the same time render many young lives happy. At a meeting of the ladies of St. Andrew's church, Beaverton, held on Thursday of last week, it was unanimously resolved to hold a Bazaar in aid of the building fund of the church. The Bazaar will be held in the basement of the church on Friday, the 22nd of December. From the unanimity and good feeling displayed by the ladies at their meeting, we may confidently expect that the enterprise will result the success which has usually attended their efforts to reduce the church debt.

BORN. On the 10th ult., the wife of Mr. James Smith, Thorah, of a daughter. DIED. At Beaverton, on Thursday, 26th ult., Angus Murray, aged 49 years.
